Appointments Made on Recommendation of Elections Committee at Council Session Last Night.

Boy's Miraculous Escape From Death Under a Car

One of the most miraculous escapes ever recorded in the history of street car accidents in Salt Lake City is that of little Charles Rosenham, the 6-year-old son of W. E. Rosenham, of 2291 Hickory street, who ran in front of a street car going at high speed, was knocked down and run over by the car, and then emerged from the vicinity of the same box, where the impact had lodged him, safe and sound, as easy without even a scratch to indicate his terrible experience.

Wednesday, at 12:20 o'clock, when a crowd of children, were going home from school for lunch, an Ashton avenue car driven by Conductor A. M. Wright and in charge of Conductor A. E. Campbell, was running along at a high rate of speed, and on reaching the corner of Twelfth south and State streets, Conductor Wright was horrified to see a little boy leave the foot of the children and run straight into the direct path of the car. The child ran on suddenly, and the car was so close to him that Wright, though Motorman Wright threw on his air

SLAUGHTER HOUSES MUST BE SANITARY

Pure Food Bureau Plans Vigorous Campaign to Enforce the Law.

At yesterday's meeting of the pure food bureau it was decided to make a vigorous campaign against slaughter houses over the state that are conducted contrary to sanitary regulations. Numerous complaints have been received by the bureau from various points, so that it was considered high time to take vigorous action. The board adopted the government sanitary regulations which say the establishment shall be kept clean and in a sanitary condition, and all meats handled on floors shall be protected from trucks used in carrying the products, walks, platforms and approaches. Trucks, trays, implements and tools must be kept clean. Employees' clothing, especially coats and shoes, must be changed after, and butchers must clean their hands after a stated fashion.

An inspector will be sent to the southern part of the state, and local health officers will be asked to cooperate with the state officials in enforcing the law. The bureau also decided to start a campaign against home-bred hams using short weights and measures.

SHIFTING OF FAMILIES.

School Board Table Shows How Population Varies.

Some idea of the shifting of families from one part of the city to another and the influx of new residents in the city, is given by an interesting report compiled in the office of D. H. Christensen, city superintendent of schools. The report shows that the northeastern section of the city have been the chief gainers in the matter of population during the past year, as the schools situated on the east side have the largest percentage of gain.

HIGH LIVING IN BOSTON.

Salt Lake Consumer Not Alone in Paying High.

The following paragraph in a recent issue of the Boston Transcript shows how prices of the necessities of life are being crushed up the quotation scale, as they are in this city and elsewhere:

In the market stalls today it was noticed that hams which would sell for 11 to 14 cents per pound a few weeks ago were now marked at 16 to 20 cents; bacon formerly sold at 14 to 16 cents is now 18 to 20 cents; the cost of the roast has advanced from 11 cents to 15 and 18. Pork chops have gone to 20 cents a pound; a few weeks ago they were only 12 to 14 cents. The cost of the lamb has risen from 12 cents to 16 or 18. Packers are said to be holding back their pork, and the demand in the local market is making the quotations. Prices on other products are:
