Ogden, Nov. 24.—A telegram received by Vice President C. J. Ross of the Ogden tabernacle choir announces that the large new organ for the tabernacle was shipped by the Kimball Organ company of Chicago Wednesday. It comes through without any delays it will arrive in Ogden in about ten days. The west end of the building has been entirely remodeled and is now ready for the placing of the big instrument. On its arrival representatives of the organ company from Chicago will be here to receive and place it in position. The company has been delayed considerably in getting the organ manufac-tured, but claim that it is of superior workmanship and that the quality of tone is very fine. It will require con-siderable time to set the organ up, but those in charge of the work hope to get it fully completed and ready for use at the quarterly conference to be held in January. The tabernacle choir has been doing extensive rehearsal work, holding a practice two and three times a week for a long time. Prof. Sal-luente has selected some new, beautiful organs and anthems which the choir is preparing, and hopes to have the singers in good condition by the time the new organ is ready, when all brands of the choir will be given. A special re-hearsal will be held tomorrow after-noon, the gentlemen meeting at 2:30 and the ladies at 3 o'clock. A full at-tendance is requested.

FIVE COUPLES DIVORCED.

Judge Howell Hears Woes of Mis-mated People.

Ogden, Nov. 24.—The divorce mill was set going in the Second district court yesterday by Judge Howell, and before the time of closing court last evening the bonds of matrimony exist-ing between five couples were dissolved and 10 people were made free, once more to select partners for life or to live alone in the world. The plaintiff in each case was the woman, and the grounds of the cases were very much alike. The first case to be called was Al-cinda Ryan against Thomas F. Bryan, who were married at Eugene, Oregon, Oct. 1, 1901. The plaintiff testified that for years the defendant was guilty of drunkenness, cruelty, and failure to provide for the support of the family, and that on one occasion defendant threatened the life of his wife. The court entered a decree as prayed for. The unhappy matrimonial alliance between Sophia J. Ryan and Oscar L. Ryan, as an issue of which three chil-dren were born who are all under age, was next heard. The prosecution was made by the state, and the young wife and child were deserted and have since been supported by the labors of the wife. The court granted the divorce to the plaintiff to whom he awarded custody of the child, and $10 per month alim-ony. The bonds of matrimony existing be-tween Mary L. Hagen Keene and Charles L. Keene were ordered dis-solved on the grounds of failure to provide. The couple were married May 9, 1905, at Denver. Because of failure on the part of Mr. M. Dilley to provide for his wife and son the court dissolved the mar-riage vows, and granted Mrs. Flora B. Dilley the custody of the son and alim-ony. All of the suits have been pending for some time past, but the attorneys did not desire to have them heard until the recent ruling of the supreme court was rendered, as the husbands in each of the cases had deserted their families and left the state.

EPHRAIM.

LUND-LARSEN NUPTIALS.

Lecture by Russell Exalt—Missionary Farewell Social.

Special Correspondence.

Ephraim, Sannep Co., Nov. 23.—Last Wednesday, George Larsen and Lund, two well respected young people of this place, were married in the Manti Temple.

Tonight Count Alexander M. Loch-witzky, the noted Russian exile, lectured in the Academy hall.

A missionary farewell party was given tonight in honor of Peter Peterson, who leaves for a mission to Denmark.

Don C. Cameron, Healdsburg, Cal., Treas. Civil Service Reform Club, writes: "I am glad to speak a word for Peruna to all those who are afflicted with catarrh of the lungs as I was for years and for which I could find no relief until I tried your valuable remedy."

"I had no appetite and had lost much in weight and could not sleep at night. The slightest exertion tired me and I had given up in despair. I always had little hacking cough, my lungs felt sore, and my back ached."

"After taking two bottles of Peruna I felt so much better and looked so much better that my friends were both pleased and astonished. I continued taking the medicine until now I am perfectly well."

AL organs of the body are lined with mucous membranes. Any of these organs are, therefore, liable to catarrh. Catarrh is a congestion of the mucous membrane, which precedes true inflam-mation.

Many cases of inflammation of the mucous membrane never go farther than the catarrhal stage. Therefore, the catarrhal stage is liable to become a chronic one.

Preceding Bright's disease of the kid-neys, there is a catarrhal condition of the lining membranes of the kidneys.

Preceding true gastritis, there is a catarrhal condition of the mucous mem-brane lining the stomach.

Preceding inflammation of the bowels, there is a catarrhal condition of the mucous membrane lining the bowels.

The same is true of the lungs. Pre-ceding true inflammation of the lungs, or consumption, there is a catarrhal con-dition of the mucous membrane lining the lungs. Sometimes this catarrhal condition will remain for years without further development.

The victim of catarrh of the lungs is liable at any moment to develop con-sumption, as the catarrhal condition of the lungs renders them peculiarly sus-ceptible to consumption.

If the catarrhal condition could be entirely removed by some form of treat-ment, the liability to contract consump-tion would be also removed.

It is claimed for Peruna that when faithfully used, according to directions, it will relieve the catarrhal condition arising in any organ of the body.

Perhaps the most frequent illustration of the fact that Peru-na will relieve cases of internal catarrh are the numerous cases of catarrh of the lungs that have reported entire re-lief from the use of Peruna. The above case of Mr. Cameron is only one of the many which we have on file.

An annoying and persistent cough; a loss of flesh; a shortness of breath; weakness of the whole system; this hangs on in spite of all remedies. At last Peruna is resorted to, and a prompt relief obtained. This has been repeated many times, as hundreds of letters in our files give testimony of.
