SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL

Will Keep Display Lights—Sailor Men Want Protection From Minors.

NEW TRIAL FOR WM. CRAIG.

Remittitur From Supreme Court Dismissing a Rehearing—Weber County Affairs—Other News Notes.

Ogden, Oct. 9.—At their meeting last night the city solons decided to continue the use of several thousand lights for illuminating the business part of the city until April 1 next. These lights were originally placed for the United Commercial Travelers' convention last June. The council also voted to appropriate $238 to re-enforce the wires and lamps and provide the necessary care for winter weather.

The railroad committee reported that Superintendent E. C. Mason of the Union Depot company promised to see that the five-minute obstruction rule on the tracks was observed. City Treasurer B. A. Moyes in a communication stated that the work of that office was so heavy as to require an additional clerk. Considerable discussion ensued, and the matter was finally referred to the finance committee. While awaiting the report from that committee temporary help will be provided.

The Retail Liquor Dealers' association said they were helpless under the ordinance providing a penalty for the sale of liquor to minors. They ask that an ordinance be passed making it a punishable offense for a liquor dealer to sell to a minor. The matter was referred to the license and laws committee. Charles Glynn, who was formerly city engineer, was appointed inspector. He was discharged by the city engineer without just cause and asked the council to reinstate him. The request was denied without action. It appears that Glynn was discharged, according to his own statement, for condemning some concrete work done by one of the local construction companies. He claims that his work was not up to the standard, and he positively refused to pass upon it favorably just because it was the work of the city engineer.

NEW TRIAL FOR WM. CRAIG.

Supreme Court Sends Remittitur to That Effect to District Court.

Ogden, Oct. 9.—The remittitur from the supreme court in the case of J. D. Sken against William Craig was received by the clerk of the Second district court and filed. The judgment of the lower court, the case was reversed and the defendant remanded back to the district court for a new trial. Supreme Judge McCarthy wrote the decision and Judges Bartch and Straup concurred in the same.

This is the case wherein Mr. Sken charged Mr. Craig with collecting illegal fees from Ogden city while serving as a city councilman, and the jury decided against the plaintiff in the case and he appealed the action to the supreme court which decided that the evidence and law was against Mr. Craig and he will have to stand trial again on the charge.

HULANISKI HEARING.

Set for Oct. 17—Sken Accusation Filed in Court.

Ogden, Oct. 9.—The accusation against County Atty. Hulaniski brought by J. D. Sken was filed with Judge Howell in open court last evening, and the defendant was given 10 days to appear and plead to the charges. The bringing of this action has been the principal topic of discussion everywhere the past two days, and the question as to what effect it will have on the county election is being talked about considerably.

WEBER COUNTY BUSINESS.

Meeting of Commissioners—Rapid Transit Reported Trespassing.

Ogden, Oct. 9.—The board of county commissioners met last evening for their regular session. Commissioner Wilson was in attendance, reporting that the Ogden Rapid Transit company is infringing on the rights of Weber county on the canyon road through Ogden canyon, to see that the track is not placed on the canyon road so that vehicles cannot pass safely. At the mouth of the canyon the road is quite narrow and the track would be a great hindrance to the street car company to accommodate its track.

The commissioners decided to sell all the old election booths that were formerly used in Ogden city, at half price now that the voting machines are to be used. The clerk of Summit county asked for a price on the booths.

Until Jan. 1, 1909 L. Clark may use the driveway at the west of the court house leading to the rear of his place of business on a yearly rental of $5.

BEEF CAR SHORTAGE.

The Amalgamated Sugar company has been able to keep the wheels of its Ogden factory running continuously ever since the date of starting, but the supply of beets is very low, and some fear is entertained that the mill may have to be shut down for a few days, that the farmers may get a supply of sugar beets on hand. The company has had a difficulty to contend with this year that it has never experienced before, there has been a shortage of cars to get the beets from the various districts to the factory. The cars are not to be had and a number of box cars have been cut down at the local shops so as to be able to supply the demand partially. The railroads companies are doing the best they can to get cars to supply the demand.

COLLIDED WITH STREET CARS.

While driving home toward Five Points George Yearley's buggy, in which he and his wife were riding, was struck by a north Washington avenue street car and partially demolished. Mr. Yearley and his wife were slightly hurt and did not hear the approaching car nor the ringing of the bell. The motorman, William Garr, slowed up the car, but it stuck the back wheel, entirely destroying it and broke the steering gear. The sudden jar shook the old couple up pretty severely and frightened them, but they escaped without further injury to themselves. Those who saw the accident claim that the street car motorman was not to blame.

REGISTRATION DAY.

The registration books were opened again this morning in all of the districts throughout Weber county, and will be open all day tomorrow, after that there will remain but two more days, Oct. 16 and 20, in which to register. The law requires that everyone must be registered in the county in which they are to vote, and every body should be interested enough in the matter to see that their names are on the books.

SILMAN-COOK WEDDING.

A license to wed was granted by the county clerk to Joseph Cook, 21, and Miss Gladys E. Silman, 15, both of Salt Lake City. They were married by Elder Ernest E. Hooton.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

The Stewart Opera company plays "Habit" again tonight at the Grand Opera House.

The engagement of Miss Cora Eayra to J. H. Barnhardt of the Southern Pacific company has been announced by the young lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Eayra.

JULIUS CAESAR.

Was a man of nerve—but sickness left its mark and he became aged before his time. Sickness is often caused by a torpid liver. It regulates your liver and gives you health. Mrs. Carrie Austin, Holton, Kansas, writes: "I consider Harbin's Kidney Pills the best I ever used. I can never without it." Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

Grimes' wild west show will be given on the fair grounds here tomorrow (Wednesday).

Archibald has gotten out plans for a $5,000 residence to be built by Geo. Beckstead of Riverton on West Center street in this city.

County Supt. Ekertsen and the teachers of the Lehi, American Fork, Springville, Spanish Fork, Payson and Santaquin schools will be in Ogden on Saturday to take an autumn outing to Provo canyon.

Archibald is down from Boise, Ida., where he has charge of the construction of the big irrigation project in Boise and which is being constructed by the reclamation service.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE.

Showed, at the battle of Austerlitz, he was the greatest leader in the world. Ballard's Snow Liniment has shown the public it is the best Liniment in the world. MORONI.

MRS. ANNIE ANDERSON DEAD.

Tragic End of Ray Draper—Immense Beet Crop—Successful Dry Farming.

Special Correspondence.

Moroni, Sanpete Co., Oct. 7.—The death of Mrs. Annie Anderson, wife of Andrew Anderson, occurred on the 3rd inst., resulting from stomach weakness and other troubles, leaving three children as the result of a former marriage, and twins about five days old, one of which died the day after its mother, and was laid away with its mother on the 6th inst.

Mrs. Anderson was the daughter of George P. and Annie Simpson, born about 37 years ago, in Moroni, where she has always made her home. She possessed many good qualities of heart and her death is a source of deep sorrow to her many friends. Funeral services were held in the ward tabernacle. Consoling remarks were made by Elders Daniel O. Larsen and Aaron Hardy.

DEATH OF RAY DRAPER.

Word has just reached here that Ray Draper, son of Parley P. and Margaret Draper of this place, has been killed near Scottsbluff, by being thrown from a horse. No particulars have been received.

IMMENSE BEET CROP.

The beet crop in this vicinity is beating all previous records. In the tonnage produced, yesterday 156 wagon loads were weighed, filling 14 cars. Many loads could not be weighed for want of cars.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE NOMINATED.

A Democratic precinct primary was held last evening under the auspices of the Woman's Republican club in the club rooms in this city. Congressman Howell was present and delivered an able address, showing the work of the Fifty-ninth congress and its benefits to the people, and calling attention to the prosperity enjoyed by reason of Republican policies. He spoke highly of the labors of Senator Smoot and Sutherland in the senate and predicted a Republican victory in the state.

County Chairman Homer made a speech of welcome and complimented the Woman's club on its good work for the party.

Miss Vera Hoover gave a charming reading and vocal and instrumental selections were given by Miss Eva Ward and Miss Myrtle Homer, respectively. After the program refreshments were served.

DAMAGE SUIT NON-SUITED.

The case of Mrs. Isabelle Tidd vs. the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company was tried yesterday in the district court. Plaintiff sued for $5,000 damages alleging failure to deliver a telephone call message sent to her from Manning, in November of last year. The jury found for the defendant, Theodore Archer, who was suffering from appendicitis, and that the doctors had declined to take of cars; 112 cars have been filled here, and the digging has only fairly begun. Some patches have produced 22 tons to the acre. It is said others will do better, and that the best raised here will bring over $30,000 to the farmers.

BIG DRY FARM CROPS.

Moroni, Oct. 7.—Farmers here are greatly encouraged over the results obtained in raising wheat without irrigation, as high as 35 bushels per acre being produced. There are thousands of acres of land in the north half of this county that can be utilized for that purpose.

Severe, killing frosts have prevailed here during the past week.

The public schools are doing good work with the following corps of teachers: Mrs. B. Draper, principal; Norman C. Curtis, James Prestwich, Lorena Blackham, Lydia Jolley, Laura Bradley, Charlotte Hardy and Zillah Faux.

HEBER.

PROSPEROUS BEET GROWERS.

Big Sheep Shipments—Muttons in Strong Demand.

Special Correspondence.

Heber, Wasatch Co., Oct. 8.—Wasatch stake was well represented at the recent conference held at Salt Lake City, from which many returned Sunday evening.

Usually a great deal of time is necessary in the construction of public buildings which are supported solely by donation, but the Heber Amusement hall is a commendable exception.

PROSPEROUS BEET GROWERS.

The sugar beet growers of this county are realizing more for their crop than at any time in the history of the beet growing here. They have been handicapped somewhat in not being able to get cars for shipping; but the present outlook for a long spell of good weather is encouraging to them.

SHEEP SHIPMENTS.

A number of sheep owners are hunting pasture for their sheep while waiting for cars to ship them to Kansas City and other markets. Heber has become quite a shipping point for sheep. The bank of Heber City has already drawn on one bank in Kansas City for over $60,000 for sheep men of this county. A great many more sheep will yet be shipped this fall. Nearly every man you meet in Heber nowadays wants to know where he can get a bunch of sheep for $3.50 per head.

A MOST WORTHY ARTICLE.

When an article has been on the market for years and gains friends every year, it is safe to call this medicine a worthy article. It cures Coughs and all Pulmonary diseases. One of the best known merchants in Heber, Mr. J. H. Hill, writes: "My family has not been troubled with the winter coughs, we owe this to Ballard's Snow Liniment. It has cured my children from many sick spells." Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street.

EPHRAIM.

THE SNOW ACADEMY.

All Departments Open—Christenson-Sorenson Wedding.

Special Correspondence.

Ephraim, Sanpete Co., Oct. 4.—All of the rooms in the Snow academy building have been completed, and are now occupied. This magnificent building of 23 rooms is a monument not only to the city but to Sanpete county as well. It has been built by the Snow academy. The physics and chemistry have been assigned their place in the laboratory, and have begun their work in earnest. The laboratory work in other classes, particularly domestic science, will begin next week.

Founders day is approaching, students are anxiously practicing their athletic sports for that occasion. Every night a large crowd is seen on the ground in drill and practice.

After dinner the conference visitors are a number of the academy teachers. The school will not close, however, as arrangements have been made to conduct all classes.

Harvesting is nearly over, and the farmers are beginning to sow fall grain. Last night the weather took a sudden change and "Jack Frost" made his appearance.

PAROWAN.

ROWLEY-CASON NUPTIALS.

City Electric Light Plant—Agitating Arid Farming—Fruit Wasting.

Special Correspondence.

Parowan, Iron Co., Oct. 2.—George T. Cason of Alberta, Canada, and Miss Stella Rowley, of Parowan, Utah, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rowley, Sept. 27. They will leave at once for Canada, where they expect to make their future home.

Considerable enthusiasm is being stirred up in regard to arid farming in this vicinity and the purchase of a steam plow is being agitated by those who have faith in the proposition and no doubt some definite action will be taken in the near future.

The city council is now taking active steps toward the installation of the electric light plant and prospects are good for this city enjoying the benefit of it in the near future.

Threshing is in full swing, and the new steam thrasher is working nicely and giving the best of satisfaction.

The fruit crop is better than it has been for many years and a great deal is being wasted because it is impossible to care for all of it and wagon loads are being fed to hogs, fruit drying evidently having gone out of fashion.

DOCTORS SAID HE WOULD NOT LIVE.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still feeling worse, the doctors advised me to attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for my Kidney. Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for a bottle of Doan's Kidney Pills. I began to feel better and continued to improve until I was entirely well." For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co.
