DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, . . . January 21, 1869.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—"The Lottery of Life" was produced yesterday evening to a crowded house and achieved a decided success. The author, John Brougham, has depicted in his drama with a graphic pen the vices and follies of the present times in a large metropolis. The characters are almost all strongly drawn and give scope for excellent acting. The female parts are not so strong as the male characters, still they leave room for some good points. The play was well cast and on the whole well enacted. Madame Scheller, who appeared as Polly, one of the "Pretty Waiter Girls," entered a line of business to which she has hitherto remained a stranger, and she gave the character with a coquetish piquancy which was charming and fascinating. No doubt many actresses are inclined to make this character vulgar and repulsive, yet we see no necessity for such a conception. "Polly" sung several pleasing songs during the course of the performance. Miss Adams played Emily Summers, and did all it was possible to do with the part, which is not strongly marked. Mrs. Bowring was excellent as Miss Tartar. Mr. Graham played Terry, the swell, in an easy, natural and graceful manner. Allcraft is perhaps the most difficult character in the play and Mr. Lindsay did it ample justice. Mr. Hardie made his part of Sir Wylton Downe very prominent, and his proclivity for "punching somebody's head" was greatly relished by the audience. His boxing scene with Bob Mawley, well enacted by Mr. Margetts, produced roars of laughter. Mr. Howe made a favorable impression as Robert Mordaunt, a little more vigour would improve his declamation. Mr. McIntosh showed some good acting in his character of "Coal Oil Tommy," and sung his song with good taste. Mr. Thorne, as "Dodgers," appeared to advantage. The minor parts are all well filled. The scenery, mechanical arrangements and properties are really excellent. The Japonica Concert Saloon makes a gorgeous display. The Fifth Avenue Hotel and Brooklyn Ferry scene are also effective. Miss Clive, with her graceful dancing forms a most attractive feature in the concert saloon programme, which will be improved each succeeding performance. Altogether the performance passed off in an excellent manner and the play is destined to enjoy a good run. "The Lottery of Life" again this evening. Let everybody go and see this great and amusing play.

In addition to the other attractions, Mr. W. G. Dunbar will appear to-night in the Japonica saloon scene, and sing a song.

CHANGE OF BASE.—We stepped into the store in the Exchange Buildings, and glanced through the stock of F. A. Mitchell today, to see the new arrangement since the dissolution of the partnership of Godbe & Mitchell, when the latter bought out the stock of the firm. We were pleased to see our old friend putting out alone on the ocean of commerce, under such favorable circumstances. He has everything in his favor to ensure success. He is well and favorably known throughout the Territory, is active and energetic in business, and with a large stock of goods which he can sell at reasonable prices he will, beyond doubt, retain the large trade enjoyed by Godbe & Mitchell and increase it. We wish him continued prosperity.

BRANCHING OUT.—Among the changes in business which are now taking place we notice that A. C. Pyper & Co. have opened out in the tinware business in addition to their other trade. Seeing one side of the store filled with tin-ware goods we thought they had been imported, until hearing unmistakeable sounds of workmen in the business up-stairs. On inspection we found men at work with the newest and most improved machinery, turning out finished articles in double-quick time. The firm has already made its mark in business in this Territory.

POLICE.—Keats Woodruff, an Indian, was arrested yesterday for picking pockets, and this morning Alderman Clinton fined him in $25.

Patrick Rooney was again brought up for drunkness and fined in $10.

John Meyer was fined $10 for being drunk.

John Walker also incurred a $10 fine for the same offence.

OBSERVATORY.—An observatory is being erected for and under the direction of Geo. W. Dean, Esq., of the United States' Coast Survey, inside the wall and near the south-east corner of Temple Block, to obtain an exact meridian, and for the purpose of determining the difference of longitude at specified points across the continent from Cambridge, Massachussetts, to San Francisco, California. He has established an intermediate station at Omaha, Nebraska, about 1,500 miles west of Cambridge, and is establishing another in this city, something like 1,000 miles west of Omaha, and a little under 900 miles east of San Francisco. A first-class astronomical clock and one of Bond's spring governor chronographic registers, by which the time can be recorded to the one-hundredth part of a second, are the instruments to be used. The method of operating is by determining the exact local time by observation of the stars, and, having the exact sidereal time, by telegraphic connection they compare the clocks directly in circuit, the difference of time reported by the various clocks giving the difference of longitude at once. Then they determine the latitude and magnetic elements with the variation of the compass.

Mr. Dean is working assiduously to complete his preparations, and expects to commence observations by Saturday evening. President Young has rendered every necessary assistance, being anxious to further the object in view. To obtain the requisite blocks, for the purposes required, he found it necessary to send his teams to Weber Kanyon, and bring blocks from the quarry where the Railroad Company are obtaining the rock for their heaviest bridge abutments, a distance of 60 miles.

STEALING.—James Murphy arrived in the city last night, having a span of mules, with wagon and harness in his possession, which he had brought from Davis County, without the owner's permission. About 2 a.m. the officers arrived, and laid the matter before the police here, who soon after arrested Mr. Murphy. To-day he was brought before Judge Hoge, in Chambers, when he confessed the theft, and was bound over in $800 to stand his trial at the next session of the District Court.
