

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR GOOD TIMES

New Year Opens With a Disposition to Look to Future and Not Mourn the Past.

SOME UNPLEASANT FEATURES

Call Money Lower Than at Same Time Last Year—London Market Quite Reassuring.

New York, Jan. 6.—The opening of the new year sees a disposition reflected in the financial markets to turn from the contemplation of mournful yesterdays and to look forward with hope and confidence in the future. The conviction is firmly based that decided improvement is ahead, but this conviction has been tempered by some anxiety over a possible remnant of unpleasant consequences of the financial crisis yet to be gone through. A special field of uneasiness was the provision for the annual settlements in the money markets, which were unusually heavy, while the resources of the money market, although rapidly improving, were still much impaired. The smoothness with which the turn of yesterday was effected went far to encourage sentiment and to establish confidence that steady improvement in the financial position was to be expected henceforward. The call money rate did not get higher than 20 per cent, which compares with a maximum of 45 per cent in the corresponding week of last year and 125 per cent in the year preceding.

Still more significant of the growing improvement was the rapid dwindling of the premium on gold, which signaled the first business day of the new year. So long as the premium persisted, an insurmountable obstacle remained to the re-establishment of a normal banking position.

The London market was so far reassured by this development that a rapid decline ensued in the London discount rate and the Bank of England was constrained on Thursday to mark down its official discount rate from 7 per cent to 6 per cent in order to avoid losing touch with the money market. The 7 per cent bank rate was the signal of continued distrust in the outside world of the American position, and its abandonment marks the return of faith in the passing of our crisis.

In New York additional funds have appeared in the time loan market, and business in that department has taken on some degree of activity, although interest rates continue high. Growing demand for high-grade mercantile paper also offers promise of relief from one of the most threatening sources of embarrassment to come, growing out of the heavy maturity falling due in that department from time to time. The shrinkage in buying power which has gone with the financial upheaval, the slowness of collections and the stringency of the money market, which offered small prospects of adequate accommodations for the extension of needed credits, threatened a combination of circumstances from which disastrous consequences were dreaded.

Credit experts in the New York banks are more hopeful of needed accommodation being forthcoming to facilitate the process of liquidation, which is a recognized necessity, to some extent, in commercial affairs and which it is now hoped may be conducted in deliberation and good order. The publication of the bank statement at the close of the week disclosed the free inflow of currency to New York for the week. This development is of the utmost importance, as marking the passing of the feeling of distrust of the New York banking position and promising rapid re-establishment of the normal position.

The bond market is scanned with some attention and interest from day to day to detect evidence of a renewed flow of floating capital into investment. Some increase of activity was discovered

Why I Lost My Job.

Reasons Why Thousands Like Me Cannot Satisfy Their Employers.

"I believe my fate is not unlike that of thousands of other workers who daily lose their places for reasons they do not know, and probably would not believe. When their last pay envelope comes along, it is usually 'Your services no longer required.' If the truth were known, the reason for their unceremonious removal would probably be that their usefulness was destroyed because of some mental worry, bodily ailment or general indisposition. These things, as we all know, are the most fruitful causes of failure in all walks of life. The battle of Waterloo was lost because of a headache. In this quick age our minds must be clear, rapid, active, and free from outside influence or worry, or else we go down to failure with the throng of 'hangers-on' who go from one place of employment to another, giving no satisfaction to others or to themselves, constantly growing older and less useful, with no ambition, no will power, and no hope. Every man requires from every other man the best that is in him. But no man can use or get the best that is in himself until he is first freed from all fretful indispositions and worries."

That was my trouble. I was full of troubles. That's why I lost my job. My stomach in the first place was always out of order, and I was worrying about it and my mind grew cloudy, and slow. I made mistakes and grew grouchy. That was the end.

There are thousands like me, going about with "quick lunch" faces, dyspeptic manners, and repulsive atmospheres. No employer wants such men's services.

Take my advice. A healthy stomach is half the battle, for it keeps your mind clear, and your face rosy. I have a healthy stomach now and hold a good position, and my employer is satisfied, and so am I.

I started to take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which I was told were good for the worst cases of indigestion and dyspepsia. The first two tablets made a wonderful difference in my condition.

One ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digests 3,000 grains of food. The stomach doesn't have to work at all. The Tablets do all the work, no matter how heavy your meal.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure brash, eruptions, burning sensations, bloating, irritations, loss of appetite, nausea, heartburn, lack of energy, loss of memory, and dyspepsia and indigestion in their very worst forms.

No other little tablets in the world can do so much. You should carry them around with you wherever you go and take them regularly after meals. Then you will realize what it is to be freed from stomach torment, and have a clear mind, a quick memory, a happy disposition, comfort and rest. Get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store for 50c a package.

Send us your name and address today, and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

erable last week, but the demand was moderate, in spite of the large disbursements of dividends and interest to supply a fund for reinvestment.

KING LEOPOLD.

He Suffers from Gout and His Condition Grows Worse.

Brussels, Jan. 5.—It is expected that the premiership made vacant by the death of M. de Troos will be offered to M. Schollaer, president of the chamber of deputies, but it is expected he will accept only on condition that King Leopold makes important concessions on the Congo question.

The condition of the king, who is suffering from gout, is becoming worse. It is declared that the bone of one of his heels is slowly decaying, and spread of the disease is feared.

RENT RIOTS BREAK OUT IN NEW YORK

Police Reserves Were Called Out And Used Their Clubs Freely.

LANDLORD HOOTED, JEERED.

Wives and Daughters as Well as Fathers and Sons Took a Hand in the Disturbances.

New York, Jan. 5.—Incipient rent riots broke out on the East Side today as a result of the tension between the landlords and the striking tenants, and before the disorders were quelled by the police reserves, which were called from several precincts, many combatants were injured and five were arrested. The police used their clubs freely, but there was no way to obtain the number of injured, as they hurried away and were cared for by friends. The disorders were general throughout the affected district.

The most serious trouble occurred on East Eleventh street, where a landlord who had been unable to collect rent ordered his tenants to remove the Socialist flags with which strikers had decorated the buildings.

The landlord was hooted and jeered by the tenants and other strikers, who were holding a mass meeting in the house, and he called the police. The striking tenants resented the appearance of the officers, and in the clash that followed the reserves used their night sticks vigorously. Five protesting tenants, somewhat battered, were arrested. The offending decorations were removed.

Hardly had order been restored at this point when the police reserves were hurried to East Twelfth street, where striking tenants were making a demonstration against a landlord who had objected to the flying of red flags over his property. The crowd failed to obey the police order to disperse, and was set upon with night sticks.

One woman, it is reported, was rendered insensible during the fight, in which the wives and daughters, as well as the fathers and sons participated. The police tried to gain entrance into the tenement, but the strikers barricaded the door, and a semblance of order having been restored, the officers withdrew. Ambulances were summoned to care for the injured, but the strikers declined to admit the physicians, stating that they would call their own doctors.

There were several other outbreaks which were checked by the police, and all during the day the teeming East Side swarmed into the streets and held impromptu meetings. There were many altercations between landlords and tenants, and the reserves of four precincts were kept in readiness to respond to hurry calls.

Several mass meetings were held tonight by the strikers. It was announced at the headquarters of the strikers that the organizing of the tenants in Brooklyn and Jersey City was going on rapidly, and that by the first of February over 50,000 tenants in those cities would be ready to enforce their demands for lower rents.

BRYAN SAYS THERE WILL BE THREE PARAMOUNT ISSUES

Kansas City, Jan. 5.—In an interview here tonight William J. Bryan said that the tariff, the railroad regulation would be the paramount issues in the campaign of 1908. Mr. Bryan said it was impossible to determine at this time what the one paramount issue would be.

On his way from Texarkana, Texas, to Lincoln, Mr. Bryan was in this city an hour tonight. He said:

"The tariff question is certain to be a prominent issue. There are three economic questions which seem likely to divide attention: The trusts, the tariff and the question of railroad regulation. Students of these problems differ as to their relative importance. They all present the same fundamental issue, namely, whether the government shall be conducted in the interest of a few favorites or in the interest of the whole people."

"How do you find the sentiment in regard to proposed federal guaranty of bank deposits?"

"Sentiment in favor of it is growing very rapidly," said Mr. Bryan. "Oklahoma has already established the system and the governors of Nebraska, Kansas and Texas are being urged to call special sessions for the purpose of inaugurating the system in their respective states. I hope the present Congress will apply the system to national banks."

Asked if he was a candidate for President, Mr. Bryan replied that if he is nominated he would run.

Mr. Bryan will speak at Omaha tomorrow night.

GOV. GOODING OF IDAHO SUED FOR LIBEL IN BOISE.

(Special to the "News.")

Boise, Jan. 6.—Gov. Frank R. Gooding and the Boise Statesman have been made joint defendants in a $50,000 libel suit, filed by Robert S. Bragaw, state auditor. On Jan. 2 the Statesman published an interview with Gov. Gooding in the course of which the executive is alleged to have unduly criticized the actions of the auditor in the matter of issuing certificates in the Steunenberg case. Some of the claims were not itemized, and the certificates were refused by the auditor. Gov. Gooding says that to itemize in all cases would have resulted in exposing the hand of the prosecution to the opponents, and he alleged in the interview that in beginning of the trial Auditor Bragaw consented to the method employed.

THREE SKATERS DROWNED.

New York, Jan. 5.—The first day of ice skating in this vicinity was marked by the drowning of two boys, John and William Stackler, and a man who tried to save them at Jamaica, L. I., today.

MRS. C. M. LANE DEAD.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Word has been received here of the death today in San Francisco of Mrs. C. M. Lane, mother of Franklin K. Lane, a member of the interstate commerce commission. Mrs. Lane was 70 years of age.

ENTERTAINING AOKI.

San Francisco, Jan. 5.—Viscount Aoki today attended a reception given in his honor at the residence of Chozo Korke, the Japanese consul-general. The viscount received all of the attaches of the consulate and many of the members of the San Francisco Japanese colony. Later the viscount paid a personal visit to President Pudsuni of the Yokohama Specie Bank. Tomorrow he will go to Oakland to investigate the affairs of the Japanese in that city.

SAVED BY A CAT.

New York, Jan. 6.—A common house cat saved the lives of Joseph H. Haywood and his wife, who live in Grant City, Staten Island. Mr. and Mrs. Haywood were awakened from a sound sleep by the cries of the cat and its scratching on the door of their bedroom. On awakening they discovered that the house was on fire. They escaped through a second story window and a few minutes later the floor fell. The entire house was consumed, the cat dying in the ruins.
