LOCAL BRIEFS.

Twenty-five members of the Bryan club of Indianapolis, Ind., arrived Saturday, and the supply is such that they have been selling for less than the freight.

W. G. Filer said today that a Twin Falls farmer had planted 400 acres to oats and expected to harvest 20,000 bushels in return for his trouble.

The people on Eleventh East street between Ninth and Eleventh South are wondering what has become of the sprinklers. They say the dust down that way is stifling.

The One Hundred and Tenth quorum of Seventy will hold its regular monthly meeting in the city hall at 7 o'clock tonight. All members of the quorum are urged to attend.

The unmarried members of the University club held the married members at baseball Saturday afternoon, on Walker's field. Prof. Eaton of the High school umpired the game and escaped without a scratch.

At tomorrow's formal opening of the Y. M. C. A. building from 4 to 9 p. m., there will be in waiting from 7 o'clock on to show visitors about the structure. Ladies are requested to call in the afternoon.

President Fish of the American Telephone & Telegraph company believes that it will not be long before telephonic communication will reach around the world, by automatic relays, the same as obtain in telegraphy.

Architect Fred A. Hale has given the contract for the building of G. H. Davis' two-story, modern cottage on Seventh street, between J. F. Avenue and J. F. Avenue, to C. H. Dumbach taking the contract for the heating and plumbing at $700.

President H. M. Wells of the Commercial club is in receipt of a number of letters from Los Angeles business men commending the club for its hospitable treatment accorded the southern California visitors during the recent excursion.

Articles of incorporation of the Capital Real Estate Investment company of this city have been filed in the county clerk's office. Its capital stock is $25,000. A. H. Vogler is president; R. E. Miller, vice president; W. H. Bluff, treasurer; A. H. Parsons, secretary.

The relatives and police are looking for John Hardman, an aged blind man whose home is at 356 West Third South. Yesterday morning he disappeared from his home, and as nothing has been heard of him since, his absence naturally causes alarm among his relatives and friends.

The Butchers and Grocers' association will hold tomorrow night's meeting at 8 o'clock. It is desired that there be a good attendance as the trip is taken for the purpose of arranging for a grand excursion and barbecue at Salt Lake Aug. 25.

Spreading rumors on the Murray line south of Panguitch Saturday afternoon, let a car off the track, and shook up the passengers. Mrs. Gillette of Sandy was thrown to the floor of the car and was severely injured, but was able to proceed to her home in the wagon of an acquaintance.

Local National church officers have only words of commendation for the Ad-Glenn, Oregonians. They say he "lends promptly to all business, and as soon as he receives an official communication it is read immediately, and proper action is taken. Such devotion to the duties of office is encouraging to the officers of the church."

The fire brigade of Fort Douglas was called into service Saturday night at about 11 o'clock to fight a grass fire that was crowding down upon the hospital enclosure. Such devotion to the duties of office is encouraging to the officers of the church.

Supt. of Waterworks Hines is sending out notices to water users requesting the curbing of leaks to certain hours. This is being done to prevent a water famine. There is plenty of water at the present time but a great many people are very extravagant in the use of water and if not restricted might cause a shortage. In the upper district the hour for closing the sprinkling will be 8 o'clock a. m., and in the lower district it will be from 5 to 9 o'clock p. m. Supt. Hines has employed five inspectors, one for each precinct, to see that the order in regard to the restriction is complied with.

Edward Withers, colored, is said to have had an appointment with a young lady, also colored, on Second South and Second West streets at 9 o'clock Saturday evening. But the meeting did not take place because of the green-eyed monster of jealousy, and Mrs. Withers who was armed with a gun. While Withers was waiting for the girl, Mrs. Withers drove up in a carriage and started for her spouse. The latter started to shoot Mrs. Withers brought her shooting iron to bear on her hubby and informed him that if he did not stop she would shoot. He stopped. Then Mrs. Withers began pounding Mr. Withers. The latter grabbed his wife and a fight for the gun ensued. The pair were still fighting when a deputy sheriff appeared on the scene and placed them both under arrest.

Californians Spent a Busy Day Taking In Sights of Salt Lake.

The members of the southern California Editorial association spent a very busy day yesterday taking in the sights of the city before boarding the train for Portland last night. With the exception of about four all the members of the party are making the grand tour to the Puget Sound district and home via San Francisco.

At 9 a. m. yesterday they boarded the Sealing Salt Lake car and viewed Salt Lake. Some of the editors attempted to take notes from the lecture of Mr. Hengard, but as the statistics crowded in thick and fast, threw up their hands and promptly put their note books away. At 12:30 p. m. they alighted at the Commercial club, where the guests of that institution, the invited and later sat down to an informal luncheon. Some attempt was made at speechmaking, but this was cut short in order to attend the services at the Tabernacle. Following at 4 p. m. the editors were given an organ recital through the courtesy of the First Presidency when Prof. J. J. McCallister rendered five numbers that enchanted the visitors.

While at the Commercial club the visitors passed resolutions which later in the evening were signed by all who were in the party.

The resolution of thanks was as follows:

"The members of the Southern California Editorial association in annual session in Salt Lake City, Utah, July 9, 10 and 11, 1935, before closing their session desire to most cordially thank the Press club and the Commercial club of Salt Lake City for their many and continuous courtesies, which made our stay here so pleasant and profitable."

"Among the precious memories of our lives will be the generous welcome received at the hands of these clubs."

"We also wish in this public manner to acknowledge most acceptable courtesies on the part of the daily papers, of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, of the Salt Lake & Los Angeles Railroad company, of the Sealing Salt Lake City car company, of Charles W. Parsons, editor-in-chief of the Deseret News, and of the management of the Commercial club."

"The members also hereby express their pleasure and satisfaction with their visit here, over the many evidences we see of thrift and of future greatness in store for this city, which will ever be present in their minds as inseparably connected with the welfare of southern California."

Among those who are remaining in Salt Lake for a couple of days is J. J. Watson, editor of the Pomona Times and trustee of the state normal school at Los Angeles. This is his third visit to Salt Lake, he having been here in 1928 and 1932. He expressed himself as being greatly struck with the advance of the city and the general air of prosperity in evidence on all sides.

DEMOCRATS SAVE REPUBLICAN CHIEF.

In Absence of Mayor Morris It Was Intended to Remove Lynch From Office.

SCHEME FAILED SIGNALLY.

Black and Davis Said to Have Engineered the Movement But They Lacked One Vote—The Plot.

It has been persistently rumored in political circles since Mayor Morris left the city for a visit to Los Angeles that a scheme was hatched among the Republican members of the council to remove Chief of Police W. J. Lynch during his absence and to put a man of their own choice at the head of the department. The failure of A. J. Davis to land the election of mayor pro tem, defeated the plot entirely, and the scheme has failed flat.

From the report being circulated it appears that the friends of A. J. Davis had planned to elect him mayor pro tem and he was to remove Chief Lynch at once. Black is said to have been at the head of the scheme, as he has had a personal grievance against the chief for some time past for the reason that the chief at one time threatened to disfigure the councilman's face unless he ceased abusing him on the floor of the council. A. J. Davis lacked one vote, however, of being elected mayor pro tem, and hence Chief Lynch is still at the head of the police department and will remain for some time yet from present indications.

Various kinds of alliances were attempted in order to elect Davis and to carry out the plan to remove the chief, but the scheme was foiled.
