Trade Increasing.

NEW YORK, 1.—The clearing house year ended Saturday last. Notwithstanding the decline in prices of many imported articles, the total of exchanges shows more than 5 per cent. increase over the last preceding year, and a slight increase over the exchanges of 1873-4, when the average of prices was 20 per cent. higher. This indicates a material increase in the quantities of products bought and sold, though the per centage of profits is reduced.

Meeting of Prominent Republicans.

The committee of fifty appointed on Saturday, at the meeting of prominent republicans, in the Union League club, met to-night to arrange for calling a mass meeting to endorse President Hayes' administration, and to take measures on the recent action of the republican State committee at Rochester. It was announced that a mass meeting of republicans and others, of the city of New York, would be held in the Cooper Institute, Oct. 10th, at 8 p.m., for the purpose of declaring unabated faith and confidence in the integrity, ability and patriotism of President Hayes.

Judge Noah Davis presided, and letters were read from many prominent republicans, signifying their intention of being present. George W. Curtis, Joseph H. Choate, and General Dix were invited to address the mass meeting.

Seizure of Illicit Stills.

LITTLE ROCK, 1.—A number of illicit stills along the Missouri line have been successfully seized. Much mash, beer and raw whisky was destroyed, and four men arrested. United States Marshal Tremens, who made the arrests on Thursday, was subsequently fiercely attacked by twenty of their friends, but beat them and brought the prisoners here, where they were to-day committed in default of bail.

U. S. Mint Coinage.

WASHINGTON, 1.—Coinage at the mints of the United States for the month of September, 1877: Double eagles, $4,492,200; trade dollars, $1,677,000; half dollars, $408,400; quarter dollars, $349,600; dimes, $129,000; total, $7,056,200

The Indian Chief Delegation.

The visiting Indians will visit the tomb of Washington to-morrow, and before leaving here will be presented with overcoats and other warm raiment, and a small amount of money.

Public Debt Statement.

The public debt decreased in September $8,882,524; currency in the Treasury, $119,152,043, including coin certificates, $37,997,500; outstanding legal tenders, $356,914,932; total coin bonds, $1,712,560,250; lawful money debt, $14,000,000; matured debt, $19,339,320; total without interest, $456,872,793; total debt, $2,202,767,387; total in the Treasury, $185,383,928; with $7,000,000 estimated due the military establishment; debt less cash in the Treasury, $2,051,587,254; debt decrease since June, $8,570,968; bonds issued to the Pacific Railroad companies, interest payable in lawful money, principal outstanding, $64,828,512; interest accrued and not yet paid, $969,352; interest paid by the United States, $35,957,629; interest paid by transportation of mails, $8,750,652; balance of interest paid by the United States, $27,206,977.

Return of Indians—Excitement at the Agencies.

CAMP ROBINSON, Neb., 1.—It is not definitely known how many lodges of Indians left Spotted Tail on the 23rd, but it is supposed nearly all of them have returned. Four companies of cavalry that left here last week to turn them back returned to-day, and report not having seen any Indians. There is a good deal of excitement among the Indians at different agencies in regard to their removal to Missouri, and it is doubtful if this will be accomplished without force.

WESTERN.

News from China and Japan.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 1.—The ultimate settlement of the Chefoo convention disputes is still obscure. There is general dissatisfaction at the delays of the British government in deciding whether to ratify or not. Meanwhile five of the six places agreed upon as new ports are now open to trade. The sixth, Hukow, at the mouth of Lake Poyang, remains closed.

The Canton River has broken through the embankments, flooded miles of the country, and destroyed vast crops.

Several cases of piracy are reported between Hongkong and Canton. The plunder in one case was $30,000.

The Chinese government contemplate authorizing partial post service, to be organized and managed by foreigners in the customs department. Stamps are said to be already ordered from England. The Chinese steamship company is to be subsidized for carrying the mails along the coast.

Cholera continues to devastate many towns along the coast and in the interior.

A Chinese lawyer, named Choy, was recently admitted to the bar in London, and is obtaining much influence and repute at home. The viceroy consuls and the government entrusts all legal questions to his consideration. He has been offered the secretaryship of the London legation, but declined.

The United States ship Ranger is now at Hongkong, on its way to Japan.

China is making good preparations for the Paris Exposition. She has been assigned over 16,000 square feet in the building on Champ de Mars, and much larger space on Trocadero. Among the features of interest will be pavilions, bazars, cottages built at Ning So and transported in sections, and in addition to private exhibits the government will send a classified trade collection, showing all that China can accomplish in manufactures or products for export.

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 9.—Great astonishment was excited by the successful raid of a small rebel band upon Kagoshima on September 2d. After the battles at Nobeoka last month everybody believed the revolt had collapsed. Saigo, however, with three or four hundred followers, broke through the imperial army lines, and made a dash southward. By inexcusable negligence, the result of over confidence, Kagoshima was left entirely undefended. The insurgents easily obtained possession of the government buildings, and drove out the few officials stationed there. This event is understood to be a disaster, but is acknowledged a greater disgrace, and will entail renewed large expenditures. Latest advices from the seat of war represent the rebel troops as insignificant and the whole affair as a flash of dying desperation, but the government is exasperated at Saigo's persistence in merely wasting life when all his chances have long been over, and it is feared that if captured the intention of dealing mildly with him may be abandoned.

The Japanese ship of war Riojo Kivan, wrecked in a typhoon early in September, it is feared is a total loss.

The Imperial Princess Seikar-ino-Miya, died September 2nd. She was a sister of the late Emperor, aunt of the present, and for reasons of State was married some years before the overthrow of the great Tokugawa family of Sioguniots. The fourteenth tycoon of Yedo, last of the tycoons, since deposed and now living in seclusion in the interior, was made her son by adoption. Her remains will be laid with those of her husband in the famous temple at Shiba Toko, and one of the two chosen burial places of the Tokugawa house.

Same Shima, vice minister of foreign affairs, long distinguished as the ablest official of that department, returns to France early next year to resume the duties of minister there, which office he has continued to hold while serving at home the past two years.

News has been received from England to the effect that the efforts of the British minister in Japan to harras the post office department and obstruct the admission of Japan to the exercise of rights as a member of the postal union, are not approved by his superiors.

United States ships Tennessee, Monocacy and Alert are now in the port of Yokohama. The Tennessee soon sails for home. The Ranger is expected from China.

One of the under graduates of the Foreign Office named Ohara was murdered in his house September 6th, and his wife severely wounded. Private animosity is said to be the cause.

Transactions in silk are becoming active. Large exports also of rice, chiefly to Chinese ports.

The volcano of Vriesdsland, Yedo Bay, is again in eruption.

The national exposition in the capital is a great success. Visitors average 27,000 per week.

TEXAS.

Troops Cross the Rio Grande after Indians.

FORT CLARK, Texas, 1.—Colonel Shafter crossed the Rio Grande yesterday with 600 men and two Gatling guns, to extricate Bullis from his position. One thousand Mexicans left Piedras Negras, Saragossa, Viela and Nueva to-day. Destination unknown.

GALVESTON, 1.—No collision reported from the Rio Grande, but it is thought Bullis and Shafter have fought with the Indians on Mexican soil. Shafter has been reinforced, and eight companies are now in Mexico. Gen. Falson, commanding the Mexicans at Piedras Negras, has ordered his officers to keep on the trail of the Americans until they recross the river.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 1.—The Czarowitch visited Gorny Studen to attend the council of war as to whether the bulk of the Russian army should winter in Bulgaria or Roumania.

The report that petitions are being signed requesting the Emperor to return home is untrue. Uninvited offers of mediation would be regarded almost as a national insult. It is not Painter Verestchagin, but his brother, who was killed at Plevna.

BRITISH AMERICA.

Canadian Bank Forgeries.

MONTREAL, 1.—Forgeries on the Canadian banks, similar to those in the Western States, have come to light. The Bank of Montreal lost $4,000; Union Bank of Lower Canada $5,000; the Merchant's Bank and the Bank of Ontario also lost something.

How the Chicago Man Knows He's Away from Home.

Writes an American in London: "If their is any particular thing which is calculated to make an American homesick, to make him feel he is indeed in a foreign clime, it is the entire absence of profanity. Except what I may have overheard in a few soliloquies, I have not heard an oath since my arrival in England. The cabman does not swear at you, nor the policeman, nor the railroad employe, nor anybody else. Nobody in ordinary conversation on the weather, or in asking after some one's location, or inquiring after another's health, employs from three to five oaths every sentence. It's rather distressing to an American to get used to this state of things; to talk to a man for three or four minutes and never hear a single 'd—n;' to wander all day through populous streets, and not hear a solitary curse; to go anywhere and everywhere, and not be stirred up once by so much as the weakest of blasphemies. What wonder that the savage American becomes homesick under such a deprivation, and that he longs for the freedom and curses of his parrary home?

Another feature which I miss very much here are collections of tobacco-chewing citizens at street crossings and other places, who flood the sidewalks with saliva and make it 'interesting' for any lady who will happen to pass. I must confess that the entire absence of all such gatherings, engaged in ribald conversation, in staring insolently into women's faces, in making the air foul with tobacco smoke and curses, has convinced me that I am indeed far from home, and cast adrift among a strange, a peculiar and unsympathetic people."

Extravagant America! Even the cows have been to the Springs, this Summer.
