Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Ewing are at the Kenyon hotel for the winter.

Col. and Mrs. J. A. Benton have returned from a pleasant trip to California.

Midshipman S. W. Wallace is ill with typhoid fever at Annapolis, and his parents have gone out in response to a call.

The Westminster Presbyterian choir visited the state prison yesterday afternoon and sang for the prisoners, and the Westminster pastor, Mr. John Richardson, preached a brief sermon.

John Mortensen drove in from Brighton Saturday, and tied his team at the theater corner. When he returned, the team was gone. The police are in hot pursuit of the thieves.

The men's club of the First Congregational church will listen this evening to a tale of Old Times Back on the Comstock, from Judge C. C. Goodwin, who was district judge in Nevada in the early days.

Frank Smith of Butte is in the Keogh-Wright hospital with his memory badly impaired, due to concussion of the brain, caused by being thrown from a horse. The doctors say Smith will recover, though at present his mind is a blank.

Last evening burglars broke into the California fish market, 70 west First South street, and stole fifty cents from the cash till. The robbers obtained entrance by kicking in the back door. A short time after the robbery, Officer Brown discovered the broken door and notified the proprietor. It is believed the job was done by a gang of tough youths.

Private Rasmussen of a company, Twelfth infantry at Fort Douglas, has reason to believe that his brother Hans of La Motte, S. D., has fallen victim to a fake hypnotist. The latter put Hans under a spell, buried him for 24 hours, and then failed to restore him to life. The fakir then ran away and has not been found. The soldier brother at Fort Douglas is at present undecided what to do about it.

The unknown thief who stole a bundle of clothing from the rear porch of Mrs. I. B. Davis' residence on M street is liable to contract black diphtheria, as the clothing was from the O'Reilly residence in Waterloo and was loaded with germs of the disease. Mrs. Davis has been nursing at the O'Reilly's and after wrapping up effects in a disinfected cloth, left the bundle on her porch previous to a more complete disinfection. In the meantime a thief showed up and the bundle was not.

SERVICES AT THE TABERNACLE.

Elder Joseph W. McMurrin Delivers a Comprehensive Gospel Sermon.

SAYS PRINCIPLES ARE ETERNAL.

Folly of the "Belief Alone" Doctrine Which Has no Authority in Holy Writ.

At the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon Elder Joseph W. McMurrin delivered an interesting discourse on the eternal character of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, pointing out that salvation came only through an obedience to its principles. The meeting was well attended and was presided over by Elder Joseph E. Taylor of the stake presidency.

The choir sang the hymn:
Softly beams the sacred dawning,
Of the great millennial morn.

Prayer was offered by Elder Joseph Reddington.

The choir further sang:

Great God, indulge my humble claim,
Thou art my hope, my joy, my rest.

Elder Joseph W. McMurrin of the First Council of Seventy was the speaker. He began by expressing surprise at being called upon, but said he realized that this was one of the peculiar features of the Church of Christ.

Addressing himself especially to the "stranger within our gates" Elder McMurrin took occasion to remark that the Latter-day Saints considered themselves under obligation to present the Gospel of Jesus Christ whenever they had such an opportunity. They understood this as their mission upon the earth, and they were striving for the dissemination of the principles which would bless and benefit mankind.

The speaker referred to the eternal character of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and said that it applied to all and was binding upon all alike. In this connection he quoted the words of the Apostle Paul in his epistle to the Romans, in which he said: "For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth; to the Jew first and also to the Greek; for therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, The just shall live by faith."

The speaker then took up the coming of the Redeemer, and showed the unbeliever who existed at that time. He referred to the persecution heaped upon Him and His final crucifixion upon the cross, showing that they were unprepared for the coming of the Son of man. After He had been put to death, His persecutors naturally supposed that the doctrine which He advanced would die also. But not so; the Gospel had a greater mission than that. It had been introduced among men, and through the preaching of the Apostles it became firmly established in the earth, so much so as to endure forever. The speaker pointed out that the crucifixion of the Savior was a part of the plan of God; that the Master was indeed, the Lamb "slain from before the foundations of the world." He alluded to the coming of the Gospel to men and women in their pre-existent state, and said that salvation came only through a strict adherence to its principles. It was not sufficient that man believe. It was expected of them that they conform their lives to its teachings; that they be doers of the word, and not hearers only. This doctrine was the basis of the plan of salvation, for on one occasion He exclaimed, "Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" pointing out to them that a mere passive belief would not bring into them a salvation in the Father's kingdom. The Savior also said, "He that believeth on me, the world shall be born again in order to enter the kingdom of heaven. This is the exclusive proof, said the speaker, that the doctrine of belief alone, so much advanced by the denominations of the day, was erroneous and contrary to the teachings of the Gospel of Christ. The Latter-day Saints, in presenting this phase of their belief, felt to say with John, "Let God be true, though all men be liars."

Elder McMurrin, in speaking further in this strain, quoted the words of the Savior to Nicodemus requiring that man should be born again in order to enter the kingdom of heaven. This was the water and of the spirit was one of the essential requirements of the Gospel. But it had given rise to that horrible heresy, the sprinkling of little infants, for which there was no authority whatever in the Scriptures. Baptism was instituted for the remission of sin and was to be administered to those who were guilty of sin, and not to innocent babes, as erroneously supposed by many of the present day. And that this doctrine of baptism was a revelation from God, he said, was plain from the words of Peter, who, addressing the multitude on the day of Pentecost, declared in no uncertain tone that the promise is unto you and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

Concluding, Elder McMurrin bore testimony to the divine mission of the Prophet Joseph Smith, through whose instrumentality these glorious truths had been restored.

The choir sang the anthem, "Hosanna," and the benediction was pronounced by Patriarch John Smith.

Chronic Diarrhoea Cured.
Mr. Walter Richardson of Troutville, Va., had an attack of diarrhoea that came near ending his life. His physician had failed to relieve him and the disease had become chronic when he began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It soon cured him and he now recommends that preparation whenever an opportunity offers. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

JUDICIAL ADVERTISING.
William Jennings Bryan, Charles Austin Bates, Ernest Elmo Calkins, C. William Dixon, Edwin B. Webb, Jacob McCall, T. Russell (London, England), Joseph Traxler, Byron Howard, E. P. Adler and others, in conjunction with the strong, forceful editorials, all go to make the November Thanksgiving Number of Judicious Advertising a very good issue—interesting and instructive right through its 166 pages.

This is the first number of the second year, and Lord & Thomas deserve no little credit for the distinctive magazine they have turned out during the past year.

One of its strongest features is its editorials, which have attracted attention throughout the country. Its series of original parables and fables have pointed out morals in advertising in very interesting and clever ways.

Two numbers are sent for one dollar. The magazine comes every month from the Trade Building, Chicago.

RESULT OF THE OGDEN FAILURE.

Anna A. Scott Files Suit Against A. D. F. Reynolds for Collection of $10,000.

JOHNSON GUILTY OF FORGERY.

Fort Douglas Soldier Gets Thirty Days For His Folly—Peterson Pleads Tomorrow.

30.—Suit was filed in the circuit court this morning by Anna A. Scott of Coatesville, Pa., against Alan D. F. Reynolds, D. Reynolds of Ogden, Utah, the defendants doing business under the firm name of the Underwood Typewriter agency. The suit is instituted for the collection of $10,000 and interest at 12 per cent from Dec. 31, 1900, a promissory note and chattel mortgage covering typewriters, supplies and merchandise owned by the defendants, being held by the plaintiff. The court is also asked to appoint a receiver who shall be given power to sell the stock and liquidate the indebtedness and costs of action.

JOHNSON PLEADS GUILTY.
Roy Johnson, the Fort Douglas soldier charged with forgery, came into the federal court this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge. He will stand committed until the fine is paid, or until the expiration of 30 days, when, if he chooses so to do, he may make $10,000 and costs. He will be discharged.

PETERSON TOMORROW.
John A. Peterson, indicted by the federal grand jury for forgery, will appear in the United States courts in an attempt to defend, will be arraigned in court tomorrow.

IN JUDGE DIEHL'S COURT.

Ed Todd and John Harmon, the two men arrested on the charge of burglarizing the office of Dr. Cook in the Eagle block, were arraigned before Judge Diehl this morning on charges of burglary and housebreaking. They entered pleas of not guilty and the cases were sent for Dec. 3.

Harry McCloud, charged to the complaint charging him with gambling by means of the jack trick, and the defendant was taken under advisement.

J. W. Kane, charged with issuing a fictitious check on C. Bonnet, took until tomorrow morning to plead.

W. H. Girard, accused of obtaining money under false pretenses, and who was sentenced this morning to pay a fine of $150. Not having the money, he will serve a day for each dollar.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dumpling, the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.
