A stiffing odor permeated the alr and the frantic husband, son and fa-ther, bereft of his entire family at one fell blow, was almost overcome before he could throw open the window and let in the fresh air. A large gas range occupied one corner of the kitchen and nearby stood a small gas begter attached to a water holler. The heater attached to a water boiler. The range was unlighted, but the heater was operation, and the iron frame was red hot Several physicians were immediately several physicians were infinediately called in, but they found that all three of the victims had been dead for hours. The child's body was warm, indicating that it had been the last to succumb

There any plausible theory as to the origin of the fumes. There was a small hole in the top of the heater about three inches in circumference, and from this opening, as nearly as can be judged, the police believe the fumes came. Their theory is that gas was generated by the fl-luminating gas coming in contract with some foreign substance at the bottom of the heater, but the heater was found to be free from dust and dirt. This theory is scouled by the coroner, who believes that the victims died from the fumes of marsh gas, the house being located in a low-lying section of the city.

All were puzzled as to how gas could overcome the women so quickly. Both were apparently making for the door of the dhing room when they were overcome. Both bodies were but a few feet from the stove. Sewer gas was considered out of the question, owing to the fact that the plumbing was of the most modern' type and there was no leak in any of the connections. The family came here recently from Philadelphia.

LAND FRAUD TRIAL.

Dr. Perrin Charges U. S. Attorneys With Subornation of Perjury.

With Subornation of Perjury. San Francisco, Nov. 7.—During the heating yesterday of the appeal of Dr. Edward B. Perrin for a new trial on the charges of land frauds, on which he was convicted some time ago, Dr. Perrin suddenly arose and began an attack on United States Attys. Black and Devlin, declaring that he desired to prefer charges of subornation of par-jury including. United States Special Agent W. J. Burns in his attack. Dr. Perrin was quieted by the court but afterwards talked freely, saying that not only did he intend to make format complaint against the men named, but would publish a history of his alleged wrongs as well. He said that he would prove that Black, Devlin and Burns has conspired to bring about his con-viction by means of the testimone as
