CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

More Controversy on the National Debt.

Voorhees solemnly asserted that a vast proportion of the national debt had no existence in reality, it was fictitious and created by unjust and scandalous legislation, or still more unjust and scandalous perversion of true contracts.

It was a fraud fastened upon the labor of the nation, and was utterly unworthy of consideration, legal or moral and was sheer and naked extortion from the wants, necessities and helplessness of the people when they were wholly at the mercy of the capitalists. He then proceeded to show how the men who invested in national bonds, had obtained large bonds on investments under former prices of gold. He said this was extreme injustice and had driven many honest minds to embrace the fearful doctrine of repudiation. The issue was in the hands of the party in power. Butler, of Massachusetts, obtained the floor for the purpose of saying a few words additional in defense of the Republican party and the Administration. It would stand the assaults of the great from Indiana, Mr.

Voorhees, but it could not stand an assault in the house of its friends. He then proceeded to reply to Dawes, specifically declaring that he had converted no assertion of Butler's in his former speech.

Dawes, in reply to Butler, said he could not be drawn into further debate on the subject. What each had said had been to one word, or he did not desire to add one word to or fortify anything he had said. He was content to await the judgment of the country.

TENNESSEE.

Universal Suffrage.

NASHVILLE.—The convention adopted a vote, fifty to sixteen, on the section conferring the right of suffrage on all male citizens of the United States over twenty-one years of age, who have been residents of Tennessee one year; also a vote requiring that each voter shall show that he has paid the poll tax. Both branches of the legislature passed a resolution thanking the convention for adopting the foregoing.

WASHINGTON.

Nominations.—Gold Panic Investigation.—Testimony not yet given to the press.

WASHINGTON.—The President to-day nominated T. H. Cory, collector of internal Revenue for the 2nd district of California, and Leander Holmes, Attorney General for Washington Territory.

The committee on banking and currency state that no portion of the testimony taken before them with regard to the gold panic in September last, or the substance thereof, has been given to the press, and that all statements purporting to be such are unauthorized, and to a large extent inaccurate.

The Senate, to-day, confirmed the appointment of Luther H. Cory, Collector of Internal Revenue in the second district of California; J. D. Hyde, Receiver of Public Monies, Edward W.

Willis, Receiver of the Land Office at Visalia, Cal.; Michael Vidal, Commissioner of the United States under the convention with Peru in December, '68;

William Cumbach, of Indiana, Minister resident to Portugal.

NEW YORK.

The Funding Bill.—Dana confirms the terially, with the laying of sewers, gas and water pipes. The application was opposed on the ground that the tunnel don't do the harm charged. The decision was reserved.

One thousand five hundred to two thousand workmen are to be discharged from the navy yard to-morrow.

It is reported that the Senate finance committee has now completed the Funding Bill, which follows Secretary Boutwell's recommendation to fix the rate of interest at four and a half per cent.

Dana, former Assistant Secretary of War, says the Cincinnati Gazette has published the exact truth with regard to the contemplated removal of General

Thomas before the battle of Nashville, and that Gen. Halleck was mistaken in his recollection about holding the order of removal. He says the order putting Schofield in Thomas' place, was made and countermanded by Grant, and Logan was sent west with the idea that he might do to supersede Thomas, and that after Logan had gone Grant started upon the grand himself.

GEORGIA.

Progressing.

ATLANTA.—The House, by a vote of 66 to 56, decided to qualify and seat those persons who received the next highest vote to those members who were declared ineligible, and those whose seats were declared vacant by Gen. Terry. Nine members were sworn in to-day, of whom three are colored.

MONTANA.

Indian Expedition.

FORT SHAW, M. T.—Colonel Baker's expedition against the hostile Indians has just returned, having killed a hundred and seventy-three Indians and destroyed forty-four lodges. All their winter supplies and robes were captured and three thousand horses. Most of the marauders of last summer were killed. The expedition lost one killed and one wounded.

VIRGINIA.

Military Rule Ended.

RICHMOND.—General Canby, to-day, issued an order turning over the administration of the State to the civil authorities. The military officers filling the positions of State auditor and secretary, to-day tendered their resignations to the Governor.

ALABAMA.

Annexation.

MONTGOMERY.—A bill was introduced in the Senate to-day for the ratification of the agreement made by the commissioners for the annexation of West Florida.

OHIO.

Seizure by Meat Inspector.

CINCINNATI.—The Meat Inspector has seized one hundred and twenty-five hogs, brought from Kentucky, which were affected with hog cholera or some other disease.

ILLINOIS.

Butler and Dawes.—The Junction question not settled.—Corbin's Examination.—A Land Swindle.—Fatal Affray in a Saloon.—The Coal Duty.—Another

Judicial Circuit.—Mail Matter must be Prepaid.

CHICAGO, 29.—The Tribune's Washington special says that Butler's reply to Dawes, yesterday, was evidently uphill work. He spoke with much bitterness, but somewhat significantly, on two occasions of good man. The sentiment of the House was shown by one ball going through Freiler's neck the other through his right arm. Fre-iler drew a revolver and fired, striking Daquis in the breast. As the small ball he refused his pistol at the officer's head but the latter struck him, just as the weapon exploded, lodging the ball in Freiler's condition is critical, the ball having grazed the jugular vein, which is liable to bleed at any moment.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.

Corps Legislatif—No Reduction in the Army.

PARIS.—In the debate on commercial treaties, in the Corps Legislatif, yesterday, the opposition was violent and there was some stormy scenes; but the government developed some unexpected strength. At the sitting to-day the discussion continued. Ollivier made the closing speech and created a sensation by announcing that the Cabinet would not support the existing treaties; but they were in favor of their protection to all. He added that the ministers desired the conduct of the government to be sustained by a majority in the Chambers, which was a real expression.

has refused the request of the Cabinet for the reduction of the army.

Puello is now returning to the coast on
