

A Great Serial of the Air

lio Grande

The conquest of the air and the invention of a practical aeroplane are yet in the future, but many believe that we are on the threshold of these events. chuckle-compelling twist to a ludicrous situation like Herbert Quick has written for the Cosmo-politan a serial dealing with the air that is as thrilling as it is odd, quaint and unusual. 268 Pages

More "Aunt Jane" Stories

It is more than ten years since "Aunt Jane" began telling her stories in the pages of this magazine, and there is still call for them from all quarters of the globe. "Aunt Jane" is the "real thing," and her tales are the "real thing." We are going to have more of done. Once you read them, you never miss any.

Elbert Hubbard

The writings of Elbert Hubbard on the opening pages of our issues are among the magazine's most popular features, and will be continued during the coming year. A great feature of the coming year will be a life of Charlemagne by Charles Edward Russell, whose forceful and picturesque writing are always welcomed.

Ellis Parker Butler

"Pigs Is Pigs," and Ellis Parker Butler is Ellis Parker Butler. No one can give the quaint turn and the Mr. Butler. He will be heard from in the Cosmopolitan this year, and a broad grin is bound to follow the reading of his tales.

Edwin Lefevre on Wall Street

There is no writer that understands Wall Street as Edwin Lefevre understands it. Mr. Lefevre, like the Admirable Crichton, has "played the game." He knows every angle of it. Mr. Lefevre will contribute to the magazine in the 14 Short Stories contribute to the magazine in the course of the year a series of arti-
