Janky Bob Fitzsimmons and Old John L. Discuss the Fighters.

OLD RIVALS LIKELY TO MEET.

May Engage in Six-Round Contest For Ex-Champion's Benefit in Boston—Fitz Is Really Anxious.

According to a dispatch from Boston Robert Fitzsimmons, former heavyweight champion of the world, has decided to box James J. Corbett, another former champion, six rounds at the benefit performance to be given for John L. Sullivan.

This announcement is peculiarly interesting because it is known that Fitzsimmons has been trying to arrange a real battle with Corbett for a long time, but has not been able to accomplish it. There is a bitter feeling between the two men, not only professionally, but personally, and on this account their boxing contest for John L. would be watched with the closest attention.

Fitzsimmons, feeling toward Corbett as a rival, stands out in clear light in a conversation between Fitz and John L. given here.

Fitzsimmons, accompanied by his manager, called on John L. at his sister's home on Broadway, Boston. The two men were greeted with a friendly "hello" and a warm handshake. Fitzsimmons was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt, and John L. was in a light-colored suit and a white shirt.

John L. was in a good mood, and he was very friendly to Fitzsimmons. He was very interested in the proposed fight, and he was very anxious to see it.

COMING CLASS MEET.

University Athletics Are Preparing for Big Annual Event.

Next Thursday, the annual class meet at the state university will take place, and the athletes at that institution of learning are all agog over the event. The meet is one of the most important of the year, and it is expected that it will be a very successful one.

ANOTHER PLAYER HERE.

Kellackey, Signed for Salt Lake as a Catcher, Has Arrived.

Kellackey, the Montreal ball player, who was signed by Salt Lake as a catcher, arrived here yesterday afternoon and reported for duty. According to the other ball tappers, Kellackey is "the goods."

Iver May Go to Paris.

Iver Lawson has a flattering offer to go to Paris to ride the season. He has been assured a guarantee of $5,000 and may accept it. Should he go to France, the trip would cut him out of the eastern circuit and championship events. He will remain here for some time, however, as he desires to train here. He has already made a little preliminary work, and from now on will work out at Liberty Park.

Sensational accident.

A sensational accident happened at Tunis recently to an Italian racing cyclist named Mostacci. He has lately been performing that variety of looping the loop, which is known as "The Circle of Death," in a circus. On the night in question, Mostacci's bicycle skidded on a wet plank of wood, and he fell. He was underneath the looping apparatus. The lion tamer, the intruder who was on the platform, attacked him and inflicted some serious scratches on his arm before the proprietor of the circus drove the animal off. The cyclist also sustained a broken collarbone and a sprained ankle as the result of his fall.

RACES AT OAKLAND.

Number of Surprises, but Lady Kent Furnished the Greatest.

San Francisco, April 11.—There were a number of surprises at Oakland today, among them the victory of Lady Kent at odds of 9 to 1. In the last race, Misty's Pride was played as a good thing in the event but, after starting, she was stopped. Lady Kent beat her a neck in a drive. Clauses stumbled at the very start and threw Donner. The colored boy also fell off Red Bird, and Sir Douglas went to the post, but escaped injury. Steph. played into favoritism for the second race, was stopped at the post by a head from Alice Carey. Cotati took the third at odds of 15 to 1, beating Vistaria a head. Weather fine, track fast. Results: First race, five and one-half furlongs, selling—Harka won, Pacts second, Targette third. Time—1:37. Second race, Futurity course, selling—Lurene won, Alice Carey second, Priest-like third. Time—1:14. Third race, five and one-half furlongs, selling—Cottati won, Vistaria second, Brown Patsy third. Time—1:39. Fourth race, mile and fifty yards, selling—Kitty Kelly won, Antirad second, Isabella third. Time—1:45. Fifth race, Futurity course, selling—Tutus won, Wager second, Nullah third. Time—1:34. Sixth race, six furlongs, selling—Lady Kent won, Misty's Pride second, Chris Cross third. Time—1:24.

Dub Placke Leaves.

Philadelphia, April 11.—Henry J. J. Placke, champion of the world in all Europe, has decided to quit the American prize ring. Placke today declared that he will return to Holland, where he says, they fight like gentlemen.

The big Hollander has found the game too strenuous in this country, hence his intention of returning to the "fatherland."

Placke was certainly the biggest pugilistic joke that has ever been sprung on the public. In his bout with McCoy the big Hollander was beaten to a pulp by the foxy "Kid" in the very first round, and the police stopped the bout at the beginning of the second round.

NO CHANCE FOR TURNER.

Manager Ted Murphy Says He and Nelson Draw the Color Line.

Manager Ted Murphy for Battling Nelson denies the story published that his man is matched to fight Rufe Turner, the colored fighter.

"We absolutely draw the color line," said Murphy this morning. "We have never matched with Turner, or any other negro, and we never will. Let the black men fight it out among themselves and have colored champions if they want to. But no negro goes for us."

Murphy said that in all probability, Nelson would box Martin Conlee in "Frisco" and then return here for a match with Louie Long.

M'Laughlin in Town.

George C. McLaughlin, the wrestler, who had several matches in Salt Lake some time ago, arrived in town this morning but leaves tonight for Pocatello, where he has a match with Frank Unfried next Thursday night. McLaughlin said that if Thompson would make 150 pounds, he would agree to throw the 150 man five times in an hour. He also said he would meet Ross if the latter would make 170 pounds.

Will Coach Maine Footballists.

Orono, Me., April 12.—Emmett O. King, coach last year at Indiana university, has been engaged as coach for the University of Maine football team. King entered Harvard law school in 1901, and played center on the varsity team in 1902.

A FEW SPORTING NOTES.

Local fans are taking a great deal of interest in the practice games at Walker's each afternoon. Many of the boys are showing up well.

Chicago, April 11.—Jack O'Keefe of Chicago gave the decision over Billy Melody of Boston tonight, after six rounds of fighting. Neither man was hurt to any extent, but each had a margin in every round on clean work.

When a twenty-round boxing contest goes the limit, even if great cleverness and cunning is displayed, there are always those who shriek "take it." If the bout goes 15 or 16 rounds, and one of the principals is knocked out, or if the contest is stopped by a referee, the same people say the contest was brutal.

Springfield, Mass., April 11.—With a score of 97, H. M. Pope of this city tied the world's best shot record today's sports. It is likely that fully 50 of the shots were in the bull's eye, and 91 in the eighth ring. The record is held by D. W. King of Denver, Colo.

Young Corbett and Harry Pollock, his manager, will sail for England next week. While abroad Young Corbett will try to get on one or more of the English featherweights or lightweights. Pollock is anxious to bring Corbett and Jordan together, and he hopes to clinch the match when he arrives in London.

Jimmy Britt announces that he is about to start for New York City, and will be open for engagements with any of the best men in his class and will probably box several six-round goes in Philadelphia.

He will also make a short theatrical tour, showing in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington and Chicago.

James Devine, ex-chief of the fire department, is seriously thinking of entering his beautiful stallion in the races this summer. His horse is named "The Marshal Stunt." He is five years old and a wonderful trotter, considering he has never yet been pushed to his limit. He has made marks pretty close to 2:30 and with a little work, Devine thinks he can do much better.

Butte, Mont., April 11.—Frank A. Gotch, champion wrestler of the world, defeated Tim Harrington, a local man here tonight, in a close case. Harrington is champion Cornish wrestler of the world and won the first fall in three minutes and fifty-four seconds at that style of wrestling. The second bout was a catch-can and Gotch won this easily in 25 seconds. The third fall was also catch-can, and Gotch threw his man in one minute and thirty seconds.

If possible, the Ministerial association of this city proposes to put a stop to boxing contests in this city. They designate the events "prizefights." At a meeting of the association yesterday, the subject was brought up by the committee on public morals. It was declared that the Welch-Nelson contest was a brutal affair. Reference was made to the contest scheduled for Monday night between Jack Clifford and Frankie Ziegler, and it was decided to take steps to stop it.

With this object in view, a committee is to wait on the mayor and ask that the sport be stopped. There is considerable talk among certain prominent fight fans here to make an effort in the opposite direction. They contend that the sport is not brutal, and in proof of the assertion, they cite the condition of Welch and Nelson the morning following the contest, when both were on their feet, greeting their friends, and assuring them that they felt no serious results from their contest.

Amusements.

The Elford Stock company commenced the second week of its engagement at the Grand theater last night. The house was well filled and applause was frequent and prolonged, the stirring climaxes of "The Ensign" furnishing abundant opportunity for such outbursts.

The story, as everyone knows, is one of the civil war period, and is told in interesting style. It was first played locally at the Salt Lake Theater, by the James Nell company under the management of Jacob Litt, with Nell in the title role. Later it came again under Mr. Litt's direction, with Walter Edwards as the Ensign, and still later the Frawley's gave it. Last night Mr.

A piano new to concert goers of Salt Lake will be heard at the Recital to be given at the Salt Lake Theater when Prof. Shepherd will play a Superb Henry F. Miller Grand.

It is not surprising how these pianos have won their way among musicians all over the country when one becomes thoroughly acquainted with their refined and singing tone.

FOUR LOVING CUPS.

Prizes to Successful Competitors at Irrigation Congress Are on Exhibition.

The four loving cups presented to the successful competitors at the National irrigation congress fruit display are exhibited in Boyd Park's show window, and will be sent to the St. Louis fair. They are valued at $500 each.

The first of the cups was presented by Senator W. A. Clark, president of the congress, to the state of Idaho, for the best fruit grown under irrigation. Another was awarded A. Rhodes of Garland, Utah, by H. O. Havemeyer, for the best sugar beets grown under irrigation. The third was given the Manhattan Manufacturing company of Manhattan, Mo., by Frederick Baber for the best malt, and the fourth to McNeft Bros. of Yakima, Wash., by Adolphus Busch, for the best hops grown under irrigation.

Sosso had the titular part, and as in his previous appearance he read his lines with precision and fidelity, though he acted better than he "looked." One cannot help feeling that he should have his hair cut before he steps aboard the San Jacinto again. His present cut may be artistic from the Paderewski viewpoint, but as a dashing hero of the United States navy, never! In last night's performance there were two particularly bright spots. First and foremost was James Corrigan as Coxswain Jack Dudley. The Salt Lake public has now seen him in three roles as dissimilar as can well be imagined, and in each he has proved himself an actor of ability. Rarely, in fact, is a better character actor seen. His versatility is altogether out of the ordinary and one wonders why he is not identified with some larger organization. His Jack Dudley was a piece of most excellent work and clearly entitled him to the generous reception he was accorded. The second bright spot was little Mabel, the clever, Maitland child, who forced her way into the private office of the president and secured the reprieve that saved the Ensign's life. Unless all signs fail, this tot has something more in her make up than precocity. Under proper training it is not difficult to see a promising future for her. Her's was the part of Mary, and she played it like a veteran. Nina Maitland did the part of Mrs. Wilkes in excellent fashion, and most of the other members of the company were satisfactory. The play will be three more performances of "The Ensign," tonight, tomorrow night, and tomorrow afternoon.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Tonight two notable interesting events will take place, the musical recital by Arthur Shepherd and Willard Weihe at the theater, and a grandly danced at Christensen's, the latter to be the last of the series.

Mrs. Sinclair and Miss Sinclair gave a delightful afternoon function today in honor of Miss Laura Hird.

Yesterday witnessed the 17th birthday of John Macdonald, and the event was celebrated in the usual royal entertainment with which the anniversaries have come to be noted. The hospitality of the host and hostess is proverbial and last night's event in no way fell behind the past demonstration. There was an elaborate repast at 6 o'clock, followed by a program of music, recitations, and dancing, the long table, beautifully decorated with American flowers and other flowers, seating over 60 guests. Among these were President Joseph E. Smith, Counselor John R. Winder, Patriarch John Smith, Elders C. W. Penrose, Angus M. Cannon and Joseph E. Taylor, with other Church dignitaries, the entire evening being most delightfully spent.

The annual meeting of the Daughters of Pioneers took place yesterday at the home of the founder and first president, Mrs. A. E. Hyde, on North Temple street. There was a consideration of some business, followed by an enjoyable program of recitations and addresses, among the last being a talk by Mrs. Zina Y. Card on the early pioneer days and the assassination of the Prophet Joseph. Mrs. Alice K. Smith gave a sketch of the society's founder, Mrs. Hyde, and her zeal and loyal effort in the work of making it a success.
