

RACE FOR TRADE IN THE PHILIPPINES

A Battle of Nations Unveiled by the Shocks at the Custom House at Manila—Uncle Sam Will Have to Fight to Control the Trade in His New Islands.

The final outcome of the Manila custom house covering the period from August 25 to the date of the American occupation of the custom house, to December 31, 1898, and a story of an important race for trade in the Philippines, is now about as exciting as the struggle for a seat for the United States in the custom house at Manila.

The first revenue in the custom house at Manila, according to the report of the collector, was $1,000,000, and it was estimated that the revenue for the year ending December 31, 1898, would be $1,500,000, and an estimate of $1,000,000 for the year ending December 31, 1899.
