

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Persons wanted apply to E. Morris. See advt. Dr. W. H. H. Sharp, speaks hopefully about Judge Fyffe's case. The examination of the Stewart-Person assault case concluded yesterday. Yesterday we were gratified with a call from President John D. T. McAllister, of St. George Stake. The complimentary concert to Mr. Robert Gorlinki will come off this evening, at the Walker Opera House. The Stephens' concert at the Theatre last night was one of the most decided artistic successes in its line that ever took place in this city. The audience were enthusiastic.

A little paper says that bathing suits for this year are very simple. They consist of a large hat firmly fastened under the chin and a wad of cotton in each ear. The democratic editors who thought it so funny to make frequent reference to the visits of President Hayes to agricultural fairs may be interested in knowing that the Prince of Wales has drawn the first prize for a bull.

These ethereal Pennsylvania youths who rigged themselves up in knee-breeches and started on a pedestrian tour to Niagara Falls before their right arm came in contact with it, almost severing that member just below the elbow. He was taken down to his home in Springfield where Dr. Pike was called to examine him, who believes, notwithstanding it is in a critical condition, that the arm may yet be saved. -Enquirer.

John Streeper, of Springfield, met with a very severe accident on Friday at Pleasant Valley. Being employed at the sawmill in that place, he was running a circle saw when his right arm came in contact with it, almost severing that member just below the elbow. He was taken down to his home in Springfield where Dr. Pike was called to examine him, who believes, notwithstanding it is in a critical condition, that the arm may yet be saved. -Enquirer.

High Council.—The members of High Council are requested to meet in the Council House, to-morrow evening, the 21st inst., at 7 o'clock. WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

The Opera House To-night.—To-night the grand concert complimentary to Mr. Robert Gorlinki will be given. The programme is as rich as cannot fail to delight lovers of the divine art. The beneficiary will be assisted by a number of ladies and gentlemen who are among the best vocalists of this city. Go and give him a full house.

Lake Side Excursion.—The 6th Ward Sunday School excursion train for Lake Side, on the 24th, will leave the city at 7 a.m., and start on the return in time to reach here at the same hour in the evening. The tickets to the residents of the 6th and 9th Wards are 50 cents, to parties who reside outside of the locality 75 cents. Children under 12 half price.

From Provo.—This morning we were pleased to receive a visit from our old and esteemed friend Prof. Karl G. Messer, principal of the Brigham Young Academy. We learn from him that President A. O. Smedley is having an addition erected to the Academy building. It will be 22 x 27 feet inside. The upper portion will be used by the normal department, and the lower part for music teaching and the office of the Principal.

A Reckless Act.—We were informed this morning about a topical incident that occurred in the Seventeenth Ward last evening. E. Morse, aged about fourteen years, deliberately placed the muzzle of an implement of that kind against the ear of a five-year old boy of Mr. Andrew Jensen's and fired. The result was that the little fellow was distracted all night with pains in his head. It is a wonder his hearing was not destroyed. His parents purposed informing the police, that the boy Morse might be arrested.

Hopeful.—Yesterday, Dr. W. H. H. Sharp called and stated that the reports to the effect that Judge Fyffe was very low were incorrect, and that, on the contrary, he was improving. He assured us that he saw no reason why Judge Fyffe should not get well, and he had not the slightest doubt that he would. Dr. Sharp has for some time been attending the patient as nurse, has been most assiduous in his attentions, and is, doubtless, largely due to his ceaseless efforts that the Judge is as well as he is. We were pleased to hear him speak so encouragingly of the case.

A Good Example.—The Ladies' Relief Society of West Jordan Ward are showing an example worthy of emulation by other localities. They have purchased three acres of land, part of which is cultivated as an attractive garden spot and the balance is covered with a growth of fresh and verdant locusts.

Upon this pleasant place they have erected a neat brick house, in which the poor people of the Ward are comfortably cared for. This is carrying out, in letter and spirit, the original purpose of Relief Societies, as expressed by the Prophet Joseph Smith, when the first one in connection with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was organized.

Sudden Death.—Yesterday about 11 o'clock, Mrs. D. J. Mackintosh, was taken suddenly and violently ill. Medical assistance was promptly procured, and all that could be done for the lady was attended to, but she expired in a couple of hours from the time she was attacked. Her husband and other near relatives are in great grief at her demise. Deceased had not quite reached the age of twenty, and was greatly esteemed. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Latham, of the Sixth Ward. The time for the funeral is not yet fixed, pending the reception of information from some absent relatives.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

RICHARD WINN IS KILLED BY A CAR.

To-day Mr. William Husband, with Messrs. Barnes and Davis, received word to the effect that a man who was employed by him to dig gravel near the 6th Ward bridge had been buried by a caving of a gravel bank. Mr. A. Day drove to the scene of the accident and found that the man was dead. A son of the deceased, whose name is Richard Winn, left his father digging out the gravel and went fishing in the river. When he returned, he found him completely buried, with the exception of his head, and life extinct. The body was dug out and conveyed to the office of Sexton Taylor. Deceased was 48 years old and leaves three children.

Yesterdays' Concert.—The musical entertainment given by Mr. Evan Stephens yesterday is the chief topic of conversation with those who attended either of them. We state it as our unqualified opinion that they were the most brilliant and satisfactory performances as a whole, of any of the kind ever given in this city. The selections were in excellent taste, and what speaks loudly to Mr. Stephens' credit is the fact that about two-thirds of them were his own creations, he being the composer of them.

The two hundred juvenile choristers sang with the utmost precision and in the most delightful harmony. They presented a lovely spectacle, being tastefully dressed, and as they filled the stage, reminded one of a mammoth bouquet of choice flowers.

The Mendelssohn Club sang with exquisite taste. Every solo, duet, trio and quartette was executed to the intense gratification of the audience, and most of the performances were rapturously encored.

Mr. Stephens' talent is immense, not being surpassed by any other voice of that quality ever exercised before a Salt Lake audience. Altogether he is a musical genius, who will yet develop ability of the most brilliant character. We have not space to speak of each performance separately.

A Noted Indian Interpreter.—Yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting with the noted Indian Interpreter Ira Hatch, with whose name many of our readers are familiar. He is only forty-seven years old, though he has spent twenty-eight years among the red men of Southern Utah and neighboring Territories. Never having talked "crooked" to the savages, he has a great influence for good among them. He speaks quite a number of different languages of the aborigines, notably Mohave, Navajo, Moquit and Plate, the latter tongue being similar to the Utah.

As may be imagined, Mr. Hatch, during his lengthy experience as interpreter, has passed through many hardships and dangers, but the feeling of fear is reputed to be almost foreign to his nature. We learn from him that a gradual improvement is going on among the Indians in the south. They are, in a good many instances, taking to farming, and quite a number are experts at sheep shearing. A good many years ago the late President Brigham Young sent a box of sheep-shears to the Moquit, but they had no idea as to their use; now they handle these implements with as much facility as white men do.

Mr. Hatch's headquarters are at present at Sunset, Arizona, but he expects soon to locate in Savoy Valley, New Mexico.

An Alarming Incident.—The Enquirer states that a somewhat alarming incident occurred with Bishop N. Murdock, of Charleston, Wasatch County, while on his way home from Provo last Saturday. It appears he had a load of goods, which he was taking home, and which he was driving along the road, but the flies being very troublesome, annoyed the off horse considerably, which caused him to throw his head about, and in doing so the line caught under the fore part of the tongue. Mr. Murdock drew up the line and the horse began backing, and the wagon ran off the dugway, which, at that particular place, was some 60 or 70 feet above the river. All endeavors to urge the horses forward seemed in vain, and so the wagon with its freight went over the bank; the bishop was thrown from his seat, a lucky coincidence, for at the same time that he struck the ground the wagon, freight and horses went rolling down the bank over the prostrate man into the river below. The team was being worth about $200. This horse had his back broken, the other one was considerably damaged, and Bishop Murdock himself received many bruises, but was happily spared from having any bones broken. The goods were strewn all over the bank and some floated down the river.

Grand Concert.—It is expected that a grand vocal and instrumental concert will be given on Monday evening, August 7th, in the Large Tabernacle, for the purpose of raising funds for a hospital inaugurated by the sisters of the Relief Society, on which occasion that mammoth building will be illuminated with seven electric lights.

The following committees have been appointed: Executive Committee—Leonard W. Hardy, Robert T. Burton, Geo. Goddard, Zina D. H. Young, Ellen B. Ferguson, Emmeline B. Wells. Musical Committee—Charles J. Thomas, Elvesser Beesley, Evan Stephens, Thos. C. Griggs.

The best local talent will be enlisted for the occasion. The electric light will be an attractive feature, besides the worthy character of the object it proposes to aid, which every Latter-day Saint will no doubt feel pleasure in contributing towards, more particularly shortly.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services over the body of Mrs. Ann Farnsworth took place at the residence of Mr. Robert Deighton, Jr., in the 11th Ward, yesterday afternoon. Bishop McRee conducted the exercises, and Elder C. W. Fenrose preached the discourse. A large number of carriages with friends followed the remains to the cemetery.

Burglars' Theft.—On Tuesday a burglarious theft was committed on the premises of Mr. Nepht Pratt, who is the proprietor of a small grocery store in the 10th Ward. During the temporary absence of Mrs. Pratt, who waits upon the customers, she left a little girl in charge. The girl had occasion to leave, and she was gone a few minutes, during which time some person entered the building by the back window and stole something over $7.

FROM "THE TRIBUNE." Editor's Notice.—Seeing an article in your paper last week from Arnold Parker, I was impressed with the earnestness with which he appeals to you to continue to enlighten the world as regards the means by which he was so miraculously cured of rheumatism and hip-joint lameness by using Kendall's Spavin Cure. The article which he alludes to, Dr. Bates, impressed me so favorably with the real merits of this rare remedy that I tried it also for several rheumatism on my horse, and found it the most perfect cure I ever tried for spavins and other blemishes, as it completely removes the enlargement in every instance by after the lameness had subsided. The perfect success I have always had with Kendall's Spavin Cure led me to use it on my own person, and for all the family with the very best results as a family liniment. While the article of the cure made with it have been almost miraculous, none have been more satisfactory than several cures which I made with it of foot-rot and also sore teats as well as warts on teats of cows. I consider it a sure cure for sore teats or foot-rot in either cows or sheep. With the satisfaction this remedy has always given in every instance, I cannot refrain asking with my friend Parker that you continue to make known to the world this, the grandest discovery of the nineteenth century. Yours truly, JAMES A. CAMPBELL.

Herklens, N. Y., Sept. 10th, 1881. The above letter, with one published in the Tribune, encourages us in our efforts to make our paper one of the most valuable journals in the country and to all our patrons, and we now seek others of our readers who have been alike benefited by the letter published one year ago from Dr. Bates that they send us for publication, statements which they may wish to make for the benefit of others.
