LIBERAL CONSTRUCTIONS WANTED.

Tuesday.

THE polygamy case of John H. Miles, appealed from the Third District Court was argued, yesterday, before the Supreme Court of this Territory, and taken under advisement by the Court. We have already given our readers the points already given our readers the points of the case and do not now propose to repeat them. But we wish to draw attention to a plea interposed by the Prosecuting Attorney in his address to the court, yesterday, sgainst the appeal.

against the appeal. The Attorney claimed that the court should be liberal towards the presecution in its constructions and rulings on this case, because of the two houses were unroofed. difficulty of obtaining direct evidence of the first marriage. He said, in effect, that if this were not done it would be impossible to prosecute polygamy successfully in this Territory, for direct evidence of what took place in the Endow-ment House could not be obtained, and witnesses summoned preferred going to prison for contempt to answering questions bearing on these matters. dence of the first marriage. He ST. LOUIS, 16. - The learehold those matters.

What does the Attorney mean by this "Ilberal construction and ruling" on the part of the Court? Simply this: That evidence which would be counted insufficient in a our the charge of embezzlement. civil suit, shall be doomed conclu-sive in a criminal prosecution. The prisoner waived an examina-tion, and in default of thirty thou-sand dollars' bond, was remanded. That the established rules governing evidence shall be reversed. That the fallure of the District Attorney to make out a case, shall be remedied by the acceptance of tes-timony which would not be per-mitted under ordinary circumstan-ces. That the benefit of the doubt usually given to the accused, shall torney to make out a cass, shall be be accorded to the prosecution.

The Attorney is fully sensible o the weakness of his cause. He is the wearness of his cause, in the second structure of well aware that it abounds with er-rors, several of which, if viewed in the light of legal principle and ju-dicial precedent, must prove fatal. Therefore he wants a literal con-
