EVENING NEWS.

What's a Dolla to a Man wid a Family?

Going up the street, about ten o'clock one night recently, a citizen heard the sounds of a fiddle, a banjo and a tambourine.

As he neared the point from which they proceeded, he heard footstep keeping time to the music and a voice calling out the figures of a cotillion. He soon learned it was a negro wedding.

Just as he arrived in front of the house a happy voice called out: "Stop dat music immediately!"

It stopped, and the dancing suddenly ceased in the middle of the square. "What's de matter, Sam?" said another voice: "What do you mean by stoppin' de dance?"

"Means jes' 'tats what I want!" answered Sam. "I 'spected dat band myself to play for dis party; Ise de boss ob dis 'case; de band shan't play no mo'!"
