TRADING ON THE EXCHANGES.

Day's Business Reached 60,000 Shares for $8,495.86.

VERY LIGHT ON THE OLD.

But More Brisk on the New Board—Northern Light a Leader During the Day.

On the exchanges today the sales amounted to 60,000 shares. For which buyers paid the sum of $8,495.86. The new board had an exceedingly tight day, business with them reaching a total of but 20,000 shares, with a value of $1,240.37. On the new board, however, proceedings were more brisk, the brokers making a record of 50,200 shares, which, sold for $7,247.49. The market was quite firm during the day, several stocks being bettered as a good advance signifies of the day before.

LIGHT ON THE OLD BOARD.

Business was Sluggish, Transfers Being Few and Far Between.

This was a very tight day with the Salt Lake Stock & Mining Exchange, the sales of the regular call reaching but 1,200 shares, with a selling value of $1,240.37. Despite the efforts of the brokers to stir up business, it failed to do so, only 1,200 shares being sold and there responding to the call for transfers. In the main, however, figures were fairly firm, the market maintaining its characteristic firmness of the past week or so.

Trading started with sales of Dalton & Lark at 5½ cents. Then Four Aces, which sold on the curb an hour before or at the beginning at 4¾ apiece, sold at 4¾ and 4¾, buyer 30, the stock closing with a bid of 4¾. Geyser-Marion was the next to sell, 200 at 5¢, after which Ingot was dealt in at 3½ and Lower Mammoth changed at 1.20 shares, this going at 50 cents a share. Northern Light was firm and sold at 68 while Star Consolidated was taken at 2.40 cents.

Trading at the Bonanza Consolidated was not unusual at 40.

For Boston-De La Mar, in the lower end of the list, 200 shares sold at 1½, while Ino Bowers exhibited a weakness and sold down to 17½ this figure being the closing asking price for the day. Manhattan sold for ⅝, and Bahler's Post was handled at 10, followed by Tooele Gold, which sold at 15½, and was in good demand slightly below this figure.
