LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

EASTERN.

NEW YORK, 24.—The work of demolishing the objectionable hotels in the Washington market was completed to-day by a hundred and thirty laborers, who were engaged by the city of Washington.

The market neighborhood was then dedicated.

Brooklyn, King, alias Stoddard, made a party to cover any may have in the possession of the papers of King, alias Stoddard, and it was explained to the object of the party to cut off her claim to the property, and had no desire to get a dollar out of the Goodrich estate, nor does she propose to claim anything, but she does wish to get certain fruits which she presented to her, and which she says are now in her father's possession.

A petition in bankruptcy has been filed by John J. Allen, assistant attorney general, against the Brooklyn Trust Company. Contributor Schneider, of Brooklyn, says he does not intend to take any action towards the recovery of the city funds, believing that the city will get every dollar by waiting.

The counsel who took the extradition of Carl Vogt, the alleged Belgian murderer, is said to be obtaining a writ from the U. S.

court, to test the question whether the attorney general has power to release a prisoner under a Judge's commitment. If this does not hold the prisoner they will procure another civil order of arrest from the State court, and then he shall not escape.

Notwithstanding every effort made by counsel for Wm. J. King, sentenced to be hanged on the 15th of August, there is doubt that it will secure a stay of proceedings.

No judge of the supreme court has been found who would listen to the argument. Governor Dix has been appealed to for executive clemency, but every effort in that direction has failed to elicit a response.
