That terrible wash-tub!

This is the way it looks to the women who do their washing in the old-fashioned way. They dread it—and no wonder. All because they won't use Pearline. Use Pearline—use it just as directed—wash, boil and rinse the clothes—and the wash-tub won't be a boghead. You won't have to be over it enough for that. No hard work—no inhaling of fetid steam—no wearing rubbers—no torn clothes—nothing but economy.
