CORRESPONDENCE.
The Centennial.
Philadelphia, Pa.,
Oct. 28th, 1876.
Editor Deseret News:
The approaching presidential election, which, at every place outside of Philadelphia and the Centennial, is the topic of absorbing interest, has so far at least, done nothing in the way of decreasing the number of visitors. On the contrary, although such a thing seems strange, the directors of the show have actually succeeded in turning it to some account, as has been successfully proved on New York Day, when the well-advertised announcement that Gov. Tilden was to hold a reception in the New York State building, drew large numbers of people who might have been lost to the hands of the democratic presidential candidate. A repetition of this occurred on Thursday, Ohio Day, when the standard bearer of the republican party, Gov. Hayes, "intended to visit Philadelphia, "not for any political purpose, but simply to see the Centennial." It was well understood, however, that there would be a reception in the Buckeye building, and so thousands of worthy Philadelphians who, weeks ago, declared themselves to be "sick and dread of the Centennial," did not hesitate to join their western brethren in the hope of getting a chance to shake hands with one of the celebrities of the day. But, alas! how often human hopes are foiled! Before it was two o'clock, the Governor came to the conclusion that he would take him several days to shake hands with the multitude assembled in front of the building, and so he politely informed his friends, in his good-natured and jocular manner that he would have to "take a rest." Upon this announcement, which was received good-naturedly by the westerners and resignedly by the Philadelphians, the crowd slowly dispersed, and
Gov. Hayes, accompanied by
Gen. Hawley and a few friends, commenced "taking in the show."

est, has so far at least, done nothing
ber of visitors. On the contrary,
although such a thing seems
have actually succeeded in turning
it to some account, as has been successfully proved on New York Day,
when the well-advertised announce-
hold a reception in the New York
lost to the hands of the democratic presidential candidate. A
visit Philadelphia, "not for any
derstood, however, that there would
thy Philadelphians who, weeks ago,
ren in the hope of getting a chance
to shake hands with one of the cel-
often human hopes are foiled! Be-
assembled in front of the building,
ment, which was received
and resignedly by the Philadelphians,
the crowd slowly dispersed, and
Gov. Hayes, accompanied by
Gen. Hawley and a few friends,

TO CALIFORNIA.
We don't give this for a full company, but it is very strongly rumored that Cedar Rapids is to be the half-way station between Chicago and Council Bluffs.
If this is to be, and some experiments have been made to that end, we suppose it is on account of the superior condition of the road. A trip on the steel rail and well ballasted road, is not any more now, if as much, wear and tear on the engine and machinery to a train, from Chicago to Cedar Rapids, 218 miles, as it was from the iron rails from Chicago to Clinton, 138 miles, in the olden time.
It is not necessary for us to say that the C. & N. W. R. is a first-class road in every particular, that it is as easy as a walk in "rocking chairs," that its coaches are various, that its employees are the most polite and affable gentlemen the traveling public can meet or come in contact with.
Of travel—the report of the company's employees, if we may so say, is a high standard; we say we need not say this in a newspaper, it is self-evident to every traveler on the road. But in the future there are to be increased, we suppose the speed will be increased, if possible, the superior trains will be more superior, there will be no transfers, other than for a change of train.
Leave the world's commercial metropolis for the golden gate, and the great trains ON THE CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAIL-WAY—THE ONLY COMPANY RELIABLE OF CHICAGO THAT HAS A ROAD SO RELIABLE THAT THEY ARE NOT ABANDONED RUN AT ANY STATION CAPABLE OF BEING ATTAINED BY ENGINEERS OF THE MOST IMPROVED CON-STRUCTION, RUN WITH THE HAND OF IRON STEEL, AND A HEAD OF BRAINS WITHOUT ANY FEAR OF ACCIDENT OR INCONVENI-ENCE.
Every employee on the road feels a personal interest in the North-Western Railway. It is the "pride" of the company, and so far as anything he can do it will continue so to be.
THIS IS THE TRANS-CONTINENTAL LINK FROM THE GREAT LAKES TO THE GREAT SOUTHERN RIVER.
The old time traveler speaks in high glow of the "ease and comfort" of the place days of this pioneer train in thousands of iron. The comforts of travel on the North-Western Railway are in every traveler's mouth. From the Atlantic to the Pacific. It must be a proud privilege to the efficient management, and that is the reason every other employee feels so happy and obliging.
It is with pride we mention these things, and join the general shout along the line, HURRAH for the "Old Reliable" Cedar Rapids Republic, Aug. 14, 1876.
