Tilden Re-elected.

New York, 28.—Tilden was re-elected last night. In the course of his remarks he endorsed the democratic State ticket, and said this election has relation to national politics in regard to which you expect that I should make some observations. You are aware of the result of the contest in 1876.

A voice.—You were robbed.

Tilden.—(exactly)—I did not get robbed; the people got robbed.

Wood's Cross.—The right of free government, the right of the people to govern themselves and change their rulers at will. If the American people lie down and consent to sacrifice the integrity of their country over their own government they will commit a wrong not only against themselves, but the people of every other country.

Wood's Cross.—One thing I swear before the assembled people of America, I swear that the government of America will be restored to the people according to the idea of its founders.

Arrests, etc.

The World says the arrests last week were 1,539; births 644; deaths 433.

Indicted for Forgery.

The World's Columbia, S. C., special says: After being occupied during the entire week on criminal matters pertaining to the county, the grand jury, yesterday, returned a true bill against L. Carpenter, late revenue collector for the district of South Carolina, for forgery in two instances, and for raising, altering, and printing warrants upon the treasury. A true bill was also found against Robert Smalls, colored congressman from the fifth South Carolina district, for accepting a bribe of $5,000 to vote for the passage of a fraudulent printing appropriation, passed at the time Smalls was State Senator. The case is so clear against Smalls that he has not appeared at the present session of Congress.

Senator Patterson Accused of Bribery.

The legislative investigation committee is still in session and has procured over fifty witnesses to Patterson's bribery of the members of the legislature at the time of his election as Senator, and also in his connection with the Blue Ridge Railroad swindle. From the testimony given by ex-members of the legislature, it appears that Patterson paid them sums ranging from $100 to $1,000 according to their influence, to secure his election.

Theater Stopped—False Alarm of Fire.

The Times says, shortly after ten o'clock last night, during the performance at Niblo's Garden some unknown person in the gallery cried "Fire." The house was packed to its utmost capacity, and as might have been expected, the alarm created a panic. The audience sprang to their feet, and a rush was made for the door. Women screamed and fainted, and the scene was one of the wildest confusion. The exit door on Crosby Street was carried off its hinges by the excited crowd, and the glass in the doors leading to the main hall on the ground floor was broken to atoms. The crowd in the gallery rushed down stairs, and the noise made by them aided in still further alarming the multitude.

The policeman on Crosby Street gave an alarm, and in a few moments the fire engine from Marlon was on the spot ready to assist in extinguishing the flames.

Meanwhile Fleming, the lessee, ran to the stage, and coming forward assured the audience that there was no fire, and no cause for alarm; and at the same time, offered a reward of $50 for the arrest of the person who cried "Fire." This statement had the effect of quieting the audience, and the panic soon subsided.

During the excitement, the play proceeded, the only interruption being the remarks of Fleming.

After the curtain had fallen on the last act, Fleming again addressed the audience, who had been requested to keep their seats for a few moments, and told them that he believed the alarm of fire was raised for the purpose of injuring his business, and was the result of a conspiracy on the part of rival managers who were jealous of his success. He reiterated his offer of a reward of $50 for the arrest of the miscreant who raised the false alarm.

As far as could be ascertained, no person was injured by the rush resulting from the panic. Several ladies were carried, fainting, into the vestibule, but soon recovered. It is probable the alarm was raised to give the pickpockets an opportunity to ply their nefarious trade.
