WASHINGTON.—Hon. Montgomery Blair has been interviewed. He says, let the Democratic party stand back and the field be kept clear to the disaffected and independent Republicans. Let the Radicals call their convention and nominate whoever they please and then the Democrats rally to his support. He says some sacrifice must be made to General Grant, and expresses a personal preference for William Cullen Bryant, although he thinks Trumbull would make a splendid candidate, as would also Judge Davis, Judge Rauney, Ex-Sec. Cox, and Gratz Brown. He does not think there is any scarcity of material and the only difficulty is the Hunkerism and Bourbonism of the Democrats.

NEW YORK, 26.—Connolly is still under arrest at the New York Hotel. The most strenuous efforts have been made to-day to procure bail without success. Greeley in the Tribune to-morrow will reply to the Times article. He says he committed a stupendous folly in permitting himself to entertain dreams of quietude. He says within six or eight months he has received thirty or forty letters, mainly from private persons, proposing him to be a candidate for the next president. His answers were in spirit that of his only letter that he remembers to have seen in print, to Wm. Larimer, Leavenworth, on the fourth of May last, viz., that he is not an aspirant for any office, but he would not decline any duty which his political friends may devolve upon him. He says it is very certain that he will never make himself a candidate for President, and it seems quite improbable that others will ever make him such. He adds, "My protest is against the acrimony, malevolence, proscription and venom manifested by certain journals, which have been set on to clear the field of all intruders." He concludes by saying it is generally conceded that the next President must be Republican. In the ranks of the dominant party there are many better soldiers, though none are older than he who now pleads that fair consideration be accorded to merits and services of all patriotic statesmen, and that the office-holders stand back while the tax-payers are allowed to come forward and waive their preference and fraternally compare notes as to their choice for President in 1872.

NEW YORK, 27.—The Herald dispatch from Washington says the leading feature of the President's message will be internal taxation, tariff, finance, Washington treaty, Indian and Ku Klux disturbances. It is understood that the message will recommend the abolition of all internal taxes, except on spirits, malt liquors and tobacco in every form and stage, and a general recommendation is made of the revision of the tariff, although no articles are recommended for reduction or abolition of duty. It is, however, suggested that those only would be touched which can be included in the revision with the least injury to the country. No material change in Indian policy will be recommended. The message will allude but briefly to the Ku-Klux. It will be left to the attorney general to report at length. The result of the labors of the high joint commission will be a subject of congratulation. What further measures will be taken respecting the recent campaign in Corea has not yet been definitely determined. A strong policy, however, is indicated.
