THE EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, - March. 31, 1875.

"LOVE LIGHTENS LABOR."

A good wife rose from her bed one morn,
And thought with a nervous dread
Of the piles of clothes to be washed and more
Than a dozen mouths to be fed.
There were the meals to get for the men in the fields,
And the children to fix away
To school, and the milk to be skimmed and churned:
And all to be done that day.

It had rained in the night, and all the wood
Was wet as wet could be:
There were puddings and pies to bake beside
A loaf of cake for tea.
And the day was hot, and her aching head
Throbbed wearily as she said,
"If maidens but knew what good wives know,
They would be in no haste to wed."

"Jennie, what do you think I told Ben Brown?"
Called the farmer from the well;
And a flush crept up to his bronzed brow,
And his eye half bashfully fell;
"It was this," he said, and coming near,
He smiled—and stooping down,
Kissed her cheek—"Twas this, that you were the best
And dearest wife in town!"

The farmer went to the field, and the wife,
In a smiling and absent way,
Sang snatches of tender little songs,
She'd not sung for many a day,
And the pain in her head was gone, and the clothes
Were white as the foam of the sea;
Her bread was light, and her butter was sweet,
And as golden as it could be.

"Just think," the children all called in a breath,
"Tom Wood has run off to sea;
He wouldn't, I know, if he only had
As happy a home as we."
The night came down, and the good wife smiled
To herself as she softly said,
"'Tis so sweet to labor for those we love,
It's not strange that maidens will wed."

Pepper as Incense.

Whatever differences of opinion may exist as to the propriety of or impropriety of burning incense in places of worship, there cannot be any question but that the burning of Cayenne pepper for the purpose of making congregations sneeze is not a practice sanctioned by canonical, or, indeed, any other law. For this "innovation" a young man named John Gardner was brought before the Magistrates at the Preston Police Court on Friday, charged with causing a disturbance in the Wesleyan Chapel in that town on the previous Sunday evening. Gardner, it seems, went into the chapel soon after service commenced, and dropped a piece of lighted cotton-waste in the aisle, in which had been mixed a quantity of Cayenne pepper. The result was most distressing. The whole congregation was affected by fits of uncontrollable sneezing, some persons were violently sick, others fled from the chapel, and the minister himself, who suffered in like manner with his flock, was compelled to discontinue the service. Gardner having been pointed out as the author of all this anguish, an effort was made by the chapel-keeper to eject him, when he added to the excitement he had caused by kicking that functuary severely on the legs. For this offense he was fined 10 shillings and costs; but as he expressed contrition for attempting to suffocate the congregation, that charge was not pressed, and he was ordered only to pay costs for the misdemeanor. The affair is on all accounts to be regretted, for there is quite enough heat at present in religious circles without the introduction of Cayenne pepper.—Pall Mall Gazette.

BONNER'S PROGRESS. — Bonner is the most successful of all the printing craft, and at the age of fifty-two has accumulated a million. This, for a journeyman typesetter, who landed penniless on our shores, is doing very well. As a printer Bonner was noted for his taste in displaying advertisements, and when he took the Ledger he soon showed his skill in advertising for himself. One feature in this method was its utter ridiculousness. Had he inserted a square announcing that "Solomon Swipes writes for the New York Ledger," it would have seemed reasonable, but when an entire column is filled with this idle repetition it is a wanton waste of space. Why not tell us something else? And not only a column, but an entire side of the paper is filled with this very repetition, until people are disgusted with the very name of Solomon Swipes, and buy the paper so as to see what the fool means. Bonner's early profits were invested in advertising with a prodigality far beyond all precedent. The checkered column with alternate blanks was his invention, and told with great effect. One of the novels which he published in the Ledger was preceded and accompanied by an outlay of thirty thousand dollars in advertising. The result is that the journeyman printer is now a millionaire. He has the strongest faith in newspaper advertising.—N. Y. Cor. Troy Times.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

All domestic mail matter must be prepaid by postage stamps. There is no franking privilege, and no "free" mail matter except newspapers (one copy each) sent by subscribers within the county where published, and not delivered through letter-carrier offices. All letters received in the office with stamps cut from stamped envelopes, or with such postage-stamps as were in use prior to 1861, or with revenue stamps on them, are treated as "unmailable," and sent to the Dead-Letter Office. Departmental postage is prepaid by special stamps, prepaid and furnished by the Post-Office Department. Letters deposited in city lamp-post boxes must have the requisite number of stamps before placing them therein. Depositing money in the boxes does not insure their being prepaid. Newspapers are not taken at city lamp-post boxes. A letter on which one full rate of postage is prepaid, but on which further postage is chargeable, will be forwarded, when deposited in a post-office, and the deficient postage at single rates collected on delivery. If the postage is left wholly unpaid, or is prepaid less than one full rate, it will be "held for postage" and sent to the Dead-Letter Office. Should it reach its destination by inadvertence, however, it will be charged with double postage on delivery, with allowance of any amount less than one full rate which has been prepaid thereon. "One full rate" means, in the case of mail letters, three cents. All matter other than letters, must be fully prepaid, or it will not be forwarded except possibly by inadvertence, in which case double postage will be collected on its delivery. The following are the rates payable on the different classes of domestic mail matter:

FIRST CLASS.

On letters, sealed packages, mail matter wholly or partly in writing (except book manuscripts and corrected proof-sheets passing between authors and publishers, and except local or "drop" letters); on all other or further information than is conveyed by the original print (except the correction of typographical errors); on all matter not otherwise charged with letter postage, but which is so wrapped or secured that it can not be conveniently examined by postmasters without destroying the wrapper or envelope; on all newspapers, magazines, and periodicals sent from publishers to subscribers and enclosing any article whatever except bonafide supplements or bills and receipts for subscriptions; and on all packages of matter not in itself chargeable with letter postage, but in which is inclosed or concealed any letter or other thing chargeable with letter postage, 3 cents for each half-ounce or fraction thereof, weight of packages limited to four pounds.
