On Wednesday night last, Marshal
Crookston arrested Francis Axel Berg, of the Logan Fifth Ward, on the charge of adultery, the complaint having been made by a man about 70 years of age, named Petersen. The circumstances in the case are about as follows: Peter-the case are about as follows: Petersen married the woman in question. Johannah Johnson, who is about 30 years of age, in the old country several years ago, and as the fruits of such marriage they now have several children. During their residence in Logan, there has been living with them a young man about 27 years of age, named Francis Axel Berg. This man and Petersen's wite became quite intimate. The woman's love for the old man grew cold, the young man filling the place of affection in Johannah's heart which was fermerly occupied by Petersen. The littimacy which had been noticeable for so long resulted in their marriage, which ceremony took place unbeknown to the old man on the 28th of Nov. last, at the Presoyterian chapel. Since this time they have been chapel. Since this time they have been living together as man and wife. The oldiman, who is an invalid, suspecting that something was wrong in his household, swore out a complaint and had Berg arrested. Berg could not procure bondsmen so was committed to the county jali until teday when he will have a hearing before Commissioner Goodwin.—Logan Journal.

M. J. A. Meeting.

Minutes of the monthly meeting of the Y. M. M. I. Associations, held at the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Hall, Monday evening, February 20th, 1888. Present, of the Stake Superintendency, Elders G. C. Lambert and H B. Young; Aids to the Superintendency, H. J. Romney, J. H. Kelson, F. McDonald and J. Goff. Of the General Superintency, W. S. Burton. The music was furnished by the Sev enth Ward choir. Programme by the Eighth Ward Association.

Brother J. W. Snell, of the Eighth Ward Association, read an essay on "Education;" it was an excellent treatise on the subject, showing the necessity and advantage of the secular education generally considered essential by civilized nations, yet showing how life, if confined to it, would be a failure, but if leavened with the knowledge of the Gospel, and the use of all other branches being governed by the latter, life would be a success.

Bro. Jas. McMurriu, also of the Eighth Ward, addressed the meeting on the "Godhead." He referred to the necessity of getting a proper under standing of this subject, for, in the words of the Lord, "this is life etermal, that they might know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom Thou hast sent." By numerous "Education;" it was an excellent to appear.

Judge McBride opposed the request, and argued that their arrest by the officer was unlawful. He said that these who attempted to feuce Arsenal Hill did not expect to come in conflict within the line of their duty.

Commissioner Norrell said this was a different case to that which was determined a few days age, relating to the same land. In this case he thought the officer had gone too far. The motion was overruled as to Marshal Solomon and Officer Pickett, and the others were discharged.
Officer Pickett was then called as a witness for the defense, and testified—I am a policeman and deputy sheriff; on the 13th I was on the hill

Mr. Pickett was recalled and testified

Mr. Pickett was recalled and testified that Marshal Solomon was some distance away at the time of the ar-marshal Solomon testified that he was not present at the time of the arrest, and knew nothing of it till afterward; Heywood told me of it, and asked me to hold him, but I replied that there was nothing of it, and he fied—I think I saw Marshal Solomon there.

Judge McBride made a speech urging that Mr. Pickett had made the arrest without authority, and that because he was on the grounds under the orders of Marshal Solomon, the latter was responsible for all that the officer did. Mr. Moyle suggested that it was apparent that this suit was being prosecuted through petty spite. He urged that the officer had simply done his duty.

Commissioner Norrell said he considered that Mr. Pickett was not suthorized in making the arrest, and he was technically guilty. As to Marshal Solomon, Mr. Pickett was under his orders, and he was responsible. The defendants were required to pay 50 cents each and costs. An appeal will probably be taken.
