JOHN KELLET, Sexton.

Mount Pleasant.—"G. F." writes from Mount Pleasant, Jan. 19—

"Times are dull here, all seems to go on quietly. The Dramatic Association are trying all their skill to entertain the people with lively and very well rendered performances. Last Saturday evening they played the "Willow Cope" and "Limerick Boy." Considering that the members of the company are amateurs, they went through their parts with taste and spirit."

12th Ward Concert.—The concert given in the 12th Ward School-house last evening for the benefit of the Sunday School of the Ward, drew a well filled house. About thirty pieces, songs, etc., were presented, and all passed off in a manner creditable to the performers.

The entertainment lasted till eleven o'clock. The audience retired apparently satisfied, though a few thought it was rather too long, as there was no intermission.

Leotard's Benefit.—Mon. Leotard, the gymnast, has been in training for some time after his severe accident, and he is going to perform some wonderful feats at the Institute, Friday and Saturday, January 23d and 24th.

On the same occasion Prof. C. T. Goodman will exhibit his great panoramas, illustrating the Chicago fire, the Modoc war, and the Lava Beds.

The performance will be well worth witnessing, and the object of giving Mons. Leotard a benefit deserves encouragement.

Severe Accident.—John Knight, a boy, about 17 years old, who has been in the employ of John Lloyd, the shoemaker, for some time, as an errand boy, met with a severe accident yesterday afternoon. He was riding on a horse belonging to Mr. Lloyd, which he was taking to water, and slipped off and broke his thigh. The accident occurred immediately north of the Theatre, and he was lying on the ground for some time before anybody came to help him. He was finally taken to his home in the Twentieth Ward, and Drs. Benedict and Richards were called to attend him as soon as possible, but when they arrived the thigh had become considerably swollen, which prevented it from being easily set in its right position. To-day he is doing as well as could be expected.

Sad Case.—A Swiss lady, who is evidently demented, has been an object of comment for some time. She is said to have visited families with whom she had no acquaintance, and the police have been called upon to assist in keeping her from annoying them. Tuesday night the police were called upon to take her away from a private house where she had intruded herself, and when the officers arrived, she was endeavoring to leap from an up-stairs window. She was kept in the City Hall all night, and yesterday some friends took her away to their home. She can not speak English, and she refuses to communicate with her own country people.

The lady has a child, about two years of age, and both mother and child ought to be well cared for. They are said to have come here with last year's emigration, and no one seems to know the reason of the insanity of the mother, nor how long she has been in this deplorable condition.

Probate Court.—Yesterday, in the case of Salt Lake City vs. W. R. Keithley, on appeal from Justice Clinton's Court, the motion of the defendant to dismiss the case was overruled, and he was tried by a jury, found guilty, and fined $17.50 and costs.

In the case of the People vs. Goldthwaite, a nolle prosequi was entered, and defendant was discharged.

In the case of Salt Lake City vs. Kate Flint, defendant's counsel moved to dismiss the case for the reason that defendant was prosecuted in the name of the People of the United States in the Territory of Utah, instead of Salt Lake City, and the prosecuting attorney admitted that the motion was well taken, and withdrew the case, without further argument.

In the case of J. W. Goldthwaite vs. A. Boatman, on appeal, motion filed by the respondent to dismiss the case was argued and submitted. Decision reserved.

General Barnum, counsel for Thomas McClune, found guilty of adultery, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary, gave notice that he would move the court in arrest of judgment, on the ground that the verdict was not in accordance with the charge in the indictment, he having been indicted for rape, and found guilty of adultery.

Court adjourned till Friday morning at nine o'clock.

"The American Cyclopaedia."—We have received volumes I and II of "The American Cyclopaedia," now being issued by Appleton & Company of New York City. Ten years ago this firm issued "The New American Cyclopaedia," a work which has attained deserved popularity, but which must now be regarded as behind the times on account of the remarkable progress that has been made in almost every branch of science and art, the vast political changes, and the geographical discoveries and reconstructions which have taken place since that time. "The American Cyclopaedia" is not a re-issue of a revised edition of the above, but a new and very much improved work of the same kind. The subjects treated upon in "The American Cyclopaedia" are much more numerous than those contained in its predecessor, and its articles contain all the leading facts discovered in science and art, and details of the changes made in the governments and political systems of the world in the last decade. In addition to the increase in the number of subjects treated upon, the present work is illustrated with accurate colored maps of the principal divisions of the world, including one of the latest discoveries in the Polar regions; also with well executed engravings wherever such are considered requisite to explain and illustrate the subjects treated upon, advantages which "The New American Cyclopaedia" did not possess. In fact, we consider the present work vastly superior in every respect to its predecessor. It is a library embracing almost every conceivable subject, treating upon nearly everything that can interest the student of any branch of human knowledge; and to all who desire to purchase a cyclopaedia we can confidently recommend "The American." Its appearance, too, is all that can be desired. Its typography is clear and beautiful, its paper excellent, binding of the best quality, and in styles to suit the tastes of various classes of purchasers. The library edition—strong sheep, is six dollars per volume, bound in elegant Turkey it is ten dollars per volume. Each volume contains eight hundred pages, besides a copious index. Vol. 1 extends from A to Asher; vol. 2 from Ash to Bol. The complete work will contain sixteen volumes. Orders for "The American Cyclopaedia" must be given to Mr. Treseott of this city, who is the publisher's Territorial agent for the sale thereof.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 23.

Little Cottonwood.—The road has been broken between Alta and the terminus of the railroad, since the last snow storm, and the stage is running regularly.

Police Court.—Tom Kernan, Evans, and Martin Caughlin were fined ten dollars each for drunkenness, profane swearing and disturbing the peace. Evans deposited $6.50 towards paying his fine, the others will work their portion out on the public highway.

Inclined to Hostility.—A little "onpleasantness" happened late in the afternoon in Lannan's and Connolly's saloon, between a man named McGowan and Mr. Patrick, formerly U. S. marshal, now mining manager. Mr. Patrick went to his office and Mr. McGowan soon followed, accompanied by Mr. W. Appleby, and wanted an apology from Mr. Patrick, and it is said that a pistol and afterwards a knife were seen in the hands of McGowan. No great damages are reported, but the police have in vain tried to find Appleby and McGowan to-day.

"Editor Deseret News:

"Sir—Excuse the liberty I take, but this pressing of a certain party for admittance to power makes me think of the story of the wolf, who, knocking at the door, was asked, "Who is there?" The wolf said, "A friend." "What do you want?" "I want to come in." "You cannot." "O, let me in, it rains and it blows and it snows; pray let one foot in." So with hard begging he got one foot in. Then he began begging again till he got another foot in. Then he begged for his head and so on till he got his whole body in, and what was the result? He turned to and ate them all up. This is a fable, but I think it very apropos to the case of the petitioners that we read of in the News.

"ELIZABETH B."

Odoriferous Caving.—Mr. C. F. Stoffer, who owns a three-story building on Olive Street, yeelpet Rag Alley, or what the Danes would call Pjaltensborg, and occupied by Chinese in number too tedious to mention, had a well or pit dug on his premises, designed for a receptacle for waste water and "night soil." Yesterday afternoon the pit, which, by the way, was situated very close to an old water-closet, was nearly finished, and a man was boarding it up, when the bank gave way and the contents of the vaults of the adjoining premises, consisting of about fifty cart loads of "night soil," caved in to the pit, completely burying the unfortunate man. Stoffers, assisted by some blacksmiths, finally succeeded, after considerable difficulty, in rescuing him from, if not a horrible, to say the least, an unpleasant death. The man was nearly dead when taken out, but at last accounts he was likely soon to recover. It was fortunate that the wash-houses were situated so near by, or both the rescued and liberators might have raised a "stink" that would not have been confined to so small a neighborhood as it was.

Denmark.—By letter to Elder Joseph F. Smith, from Elder G. Larsen, dated Copenhagen, Denmark, December 24, 1873, we learn that a furious storm raged in Denmark on the 16th and 17th of that month, nearly equal to the one which made such fearful destruction of life and property there in November, 1871. The water rose nine feet above high water mark in some places, which caused much destruction to property, besides causing a great many shipwrecks.

By referring to the map of Denmark, it will be observed that the belts or channels of water which surround the islands are in some places very narrow, and when the water rises in the Baltic sea, which it often does on account of the increase of the water shed from the many rivers which empty into it on the coasts of Sweden, Finland, Russia and Germany; and when this increased volume of water is further assisted by a furious storm, like the one mentioned, it causes the water to rise very high on the islands of Denmark and on the coast of the gulf at Stralsund and Lubeck, on account of the obstruction it meets with before it can flow freely into the North Sea and the Atlantic.

We also learn from the aforesaid letter that the Gospel is progressing in the Scandinavian mission, and that many church publications are sold and circulated.

Habeas Corpus.—Mr. McCabe, who has been in the penitentiary under sentence by the Probate Court of Salt Lake County, for cattle stealing, and being loath to remain in "durance vile" for the remaining years of his sentence, and having found means to employ a lawyer, he submitted his grievance to him, and subsequently Warden Rockwood was duly served with the necessary papers commanding him to bring the body of McCabe before Chief Justice McKean to-day. McCabe came, body and all, before his honor this forenoon, and was duly discharged on habeas corpus, the Probate Court having unduly intermeddled with the prisoner for the alleged offense—in fact without having jurisdiction at all, the statutes of the Territory to the contrary notwithstanding.

After being released from the charge of Warden Rockwood, Mr. McCabe was held in five hundred dollars bonds, to be and appear before the next regular grand jury of the Third District Court. The bondsmen were duly forthcoming, and Mr. McCabe is set at liberty, and if the next grand jury of the Third District Court does not remain in session for a longer period than did the last one, there will not be much time to investigate the offence, and there is the further satisfaction, on the part of Mr. McCabe, that it may be a long time before it will meet.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 24.

Cold.—On Thursday the thermometer in the shade stood at three degrees below zero, at Payson, Utah county. The present cold snap has been much more severe in Utah, Sanpete and Millard counties in the south, than in Salt Lake county.

Tipped Over.—Yesterday afternoon a Utah Southern railroad baggage car, laden with charcoal, tipped over upon its side at Sandy. The car was not damaged much, but it would require considerable labor to unload and right it. It was attached to a freight train, which was being shunted upon a switch, and the accident occurred as the car was crossing the narrow gauge track of the Wasatch and Jordan Valley railroad.

Police Court.—William P. Appleby and—Cowan (whose name was published yesterday as McGowan) have been arrested, charged with assault on Mr. M. T. Patrick. Mr. Cowan is charged with having assaulted Mr. Patrick with deadly weapons. The case is set for hearing next Tuesday forenoon.

Tim Sullivan and Mrs. Beck, charged with being drunk, were fined five dollars each.

Henry Alstead, charged with being drunk and with vagrancy, will work fifteen days on the streets.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 25.

"Alert Hose Company."—There will be a ball for the benefit of this department of the Salt Lake Fire Brigade, at the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, to-morrow evening.

Non-License Payer.—Mr. Wallace, saloon keeper, was to have a hearing in the police court this afternoon, the charge preferred against him being that of selling liquor without license.

Fence Them.—Many of the graveyards in the settlements have no safeguards against cattle treading over the graves of the departed. Such places should have good fences around them.

Co-operative Stock-Herd.—The Sevier County Co-operative Stock-herd, which has existed nine months, is doing well. On the 31st of December a dividend of thirty-six per cent. was declared.

Prospering.—A private letter, received this morning, from Elder John Squires, now in England on a mission, states that he is enjoying himself greatly in his labors in the London Conference. He has excellent health.

Assault and Battery.—Jacob Herman was arrested on Saturday on a charge of transforming himself into a battering ram. He entered a saloon and commenced, it is alleged, battering a man with whom he had an altercation. He was to have an interview with Justice Clinton this afternoon.

An Exhibition.—An intoxicated individual, apparently from the country, attempted to hitch a couple of mules to a wagon, opposite Dwyer's store this afternoon. He flopped and wallowed around in the mud a while. He was finally assisted into the wagon by a companion. The incident attracted quite a large crowd.

Information Wanted.—Sam. H. Newby, eldest son of Henry Newby, 33 Broadway, New York City, wishes to hear of and correspond with his uncle, Alfred Newby and his family. Alfred Newby is a native of Staffordshire, England, and sailed from that country (as near as S. H. N. can remember) about ten years ago.

A Chance for a Free Ride.—Any one desiring to visit St. Louis and return "free gratis for nothing" can now be accommodated, if we can credit a citizen of that burg. He advertises for sale an augur which will bore through limestone. He calls it a well augur. And we think it must be a "well augur," for a sick augur would fail in this operation. The gentleman in question invites all to come and examine it, and further states that if it fails to fill the programme he will pay visitors' expenses there and back.

Married.—Cake and wine with accompanying card, on which was inscribed—"With compliments of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mackintosh," were received at this office this morning, the information being also conveyed that Mr. T. J. Mackintosh, and Miss Rhoda Young, daughter of Pres. Joseph Young, sen., were married in this city yesterday, Jan. 25th, by Pres. D. H. Wells.

"Of married love!—each heart shall own, When two congenial souls unite, Thy golden chains inlaid with down, Thy lamp with heaven's own splendor bright."

A Suggestion.—The liability of travelers to lose their way in this region, especially in snow storms, can be easily obviated by placing a post every quarter of a mile or so on, and guide posts at all forks of the road, or other necessary points. This would incur but a trifling expense to the various counties, but would be a great boon to the portion of the traveling public who may be unacquainted with the intricacies of the country. Those who should see to such matters and are unwilling to attend to them should get lost once, and the chances would be that they would get converted.

Chicago and Northwestern Railway.—T. W. Stennett, Esq., General Passenger Agent of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company, is now in this city, and made us a pleasant call this morning, being on a business trip to the Pacific Coast, in connection with the line he represents. Our acquaintance with Mr. Stennett is somewhat extended, and we have found him a most courteous and affable gentleman, and believe that he is one of the most popular, as he is certainly one of the most efficient, railway officials in the country.

More Ward Institutes.—At the close of the services in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms yesterday afternoon, Bishop Taylor announced that a meeting would be held to-night to complete the organization of an Institute for the special benefit of the young people of the Ward. In the 15th Ward, we believe that a similar movement is on foot. We hope soon to hear of others following suit. The more the better, too much cannot be done, if done well, to give the young a virtuous training, and to store their minds with useful information and learning.

Amusement.—Here is an exact copy of a bill posted on the shutter of a co-operative store, in one of our southern settlements the other day:

"Theatre Magic" and etc., B. C. Madson & Co., gymnastic, heavy lifting, shooting, fireworks, dancing on stilts.

"bith more.
"Tickets sold Co store. Daning
Tickets 25 cents Copel—25 cents for Theatre Dancing after Theatre
"Commences Co 7 klok"

Firemen's Police.—We understand that a body of firemen's police is in process of organization. It will be the duty of the members of it to preserve order on the occasion of fires, to prevent the useless destruction of property, and otherwise assist the regular police force and firemen.

There is generally a good deal of excitement at fires, and people act under its influence, and chop and smash and tumble things about when there is no need of it, and when their energies might be used to much better advantage. Useless injury to property will be greatly prevented by the presence of a body of men whose particular business will be to see that every necessary precaution is taken to preserve property.

A Jailbird.—Robert Kennedy seems to be an incorrigible jailbird. The last time he was released he told the officers that he would soon return. On Saturday, while in a state of partial intoxication, in a saloon, he seized a bottle and aimed a blow at the head of the proprietor of the place, A. W. Smith. Missing the cranium of the latter the improvised weapon came in contact with that of a soldier.

After this affair, Kennedy, who is quite a young fellow, entered a back room of another establishment, packed up a valise filled with clothing, marched down Commercial street with it and hid it behind a bench in one of the alleys of that locality. He will have a trial this afternoon on the combined charges of drunkenness, assault and battery and stealing.

—Be not diverted from your duty by any idle reflections the silly world may make upon you, for their censures are not in your power, and consequently should not be any part of your concerns.—Epicurus.
