Louisiana Affairs. Washington, 30.—A large number of bills were introduced in the morning hour, among them one authorising the President to appoint a board of five officers to investigate the charges against Gen. Howard, which was laid over informally

He declared his belief that the Kellogg government was in sympathy with a large majority of the people of the State, and said the entire republican party of Louisiana were opposed to a new election. Morton finally gave way for a motion to go into executive session, he will resume his speech on Monday, to which time the Senate adourned.

Coburn declined to let the amendment be offered, remarking that there was no place for the challenge to come in, as the court would be appointed by the President. appointed by the President. He moved the previous question, which the House refused to second by a vote of 74 to 100, and the amend-ment was received and the discus-sion proceeded.

Coburn argued that the amend-ment was a reflection on the Presi-dent, and said that all the members of the committee who reported the resolution were friendly to Howard, and he, Howard, himself had said the resolution suited him and ought to pass without objec-

After further debate, in which a personal controversy arose between Wood and G. F. Hoar, in regard to a former investigation, in which Wood accused Hoar of being the attorney of Howard and styled him a petty trickster, for which expression he was called to order by the Speaker, the amendment was agreed to, 172

The Marquis de Noville, the French minister, presented his letter of recall to President Grant today, expressing his thanks for courtesles extended to him, and congratulating the President upon the friendly relations existing between France and the U. S., and saying that he was instructed to convey the good wishes of Marshal McMahon, the President of the French Republic. President Grant regretted the departure of the minimister, but was assured that his mission had been advantageous to both countries, and it was his hearty wish that the friendly relations between France and the U. Pressured, 30.—A serious affray occurred fat Beaver Falls to-day, among the Chinaman in the cut-lery works. As Ah Poy, the overseer and interpreter, was passing through the office they attempted to follow, but were prevented by a policemen, whom they attacked with desperation, throwing at him knives and forks, pieces of iron and any missiles they could find. He fought them determinedly without weapons, until he secured a club, when he finally forced them to retreat, after wounding ten or twelve, two of them seriously. The trouble arose from the belief that Ah Poy had not been making a proper disposition of their funds. one copy, one year, in advance, the howard, which was laid over in formally.
