DAMAGE SUIT COMPROMISED.

Mrs. Julia Kennedy Accepts $2,000 From R. G. W. for Death Of Husband.

HEARINGS IN DISTRICT COURT.

Buster Brown in a Runaway—Enlarging Trackage in Railroad Yards—Wedding Bells.

Ogden, Utah, Nov. 3.—Miss Julia Kennedy, administratrix of the estate of Francis Kennedy, deceased, through her attorney, Andrew Howat, has filed a complaint in the Second district court against the Ido Grande Western Railway company, also a petition for authority to compromise the action. The complaint alleges that Sept. 9, 1905, and for a long time previous thereto, Francis Kennedy, now deceased, was in the employ of the defendant company as section hand, and while working on the section in this city on the date mentioned, the defendant company permitted one of its passenger trains to run at a rate of 60 miles per hour, striking Mr. Kennedy and hand car on which he was riding. A bill for $2,500 damages in the sum of $2,500 was prayed for. Mrs. Kennedy petitioned the court for permission to compromise the suit for $2,000, which order was granted by the court, and the $2,000 was paid over by the railroad company to plaintiff.

DISTRICT COURT CASES.

W. R. Swan Given Additional Time to Prepare Appeal.

When W. R. Swan, through his attorney, moved for a stay of execution in the case of the state against him, he filed an affidavit of impoorness, setting forth that he was without funds with which to pay for the preparing of a transcript of the evidence in the case, which must be filed with the supreme court on the appeal, and asked that the court have the transcript made at the expense of the state, which was granted.

On account of the illness of Court Stenographer Barker, the transcript has not been made, and 20 days' additional time was given in which to prepare and file bill of exceptions.

It may be that another affidavit will be filed in the case, setting forth that Swan is not without funds, but is nightily visiting the cases throughout the city, spending sums of money.

In the case of John McCullough against Mary MacCullough, motion for a new trial has been filed.

The case of George A. Fuller against Mathew Burnett, suit brought for damages alleged to be due because of water running upon plaintiff's land, through defendant changing course of water ditch, and for permanent restraining order, has been settled out of court and case dismissed at plaintiff's request.

Notice of appeal from the judgment of the district court in the case of the supreme court has been filed in the case of Ed. B. Stone against the Ogden Packing Co., in which judgment was entered in favor of the plaintiff for $250.

In the case of M. Heus against Lee Hickey, suit over title to certain water, decided in favor of defendant, the plaintiff has filed notice of appeal.

street and Roy, has commenced the laying of a track from Thirtieth street to the railroad yards which it will use in sending the dirt from the cuts off to the depot yards to be used in filling in the low places and bringing the grounds to a level. When that work is accomplished, then the rearranging of the yard trackage will be commenced.

BUSTER BROWN IN A RUNAWAY.

Buster Brown, the boy actor who is staying with his father Brown, the station master, had an unusual experience yesterday afternoon, and narrowly escaped serious injury. The little fellow went out horseback riding with one of the men of the company. When near Five Points some dogs ran after his horse, causing it to run away.

Buster stayed with the saddle for a short distance, but lost his balance and fell to the ground with considerable force. The other rider rushed to his

SHOCKING DEATH ON THE RAIL.
George S. Haskell Hit by a Passenger Train and killed.

Special Correspondence.
Provo, Utah Co., Nov. 3.—George S. Haskell, who has operated a small saw mill in Spanish Fork canyon for several years, was instantly killed on the railroad track near Thistle, yesterday forenoon.

Details of the accident are very meager here, although probably all the facts immediately connected with it are known. They are that Mr. Haskell was sitting on the back of his truck on the track as the first section of a passenger train No. 5 approached from the east. He was not observed by the train men in time for them to stop the train, which knocked Mr. Haskell down, and the wheels of the engine cut off the upper part of his neck. The remains were sent to Provo by the next section of No. 5, which reached here in the afternoon, and taken to Graham & Jones' undertaking parlor, where they are now being held, pending inquiries of friends or relatives of the dead man.

Little is known of him here. He was about 60 years of age, and the general impression is that he has no relatives in this country, although some who know him believe he has a brother and a married daughter, also living in Spanish Fork canyon. Sheriff Harmon is trying to learn the facts in the case.

MOORE DRUG CO. INCORPORATES.

THE DIETER CASE.
The coroner's jury which sat in the inquest held over the remains of Daniel Dieter, the 16-year-old boy who died in a tent west of the city from typhoid fever, Wednesday night, returned a verdict containing the following findings:

"That said Daniel Dieter came to his death by typhoid fever and its attendant complications, and that during the last illness of said Daniel Dieter his parents Alvin Dieter and Julia L. Dieter, wife and mother of said Daniel Dieter, did their best and necessary shelter, nursing attention." The jurors were John H. McEwan, A. B. Morgan and A. V. Hobson.

As stated in the "News" yesterday the parents are very indifferent to the condition, as far as doing anything to interfere with disease is concerned. They are living in a tent and take no precaution even of a sanitary nature against the spread of the disease. There are still four children in the family, the eldest probably 16 years of age, and it would be almost a miracle if they do not come down with the fever and more or less die. If they do not die of this take the fever.

The county authorities will no doubt take some steps to care for the children even against the wishes of the parents. This will certainly be done if any of the children become ill. Dieter told Sheriff Harmon yesterday when the sheriff informed him that he (the sheriff) would take the children away if they took the fever, that he would protest against having them removed, but he was made to understand that a protest would be of no avail.

a lease on 25 acres of land from the First Ward Produce company for a golf ground. It "is called 'The Pines' by reason of four of the shareholders refusing to sign the lease. Sixty-two of the 82 owners have agreed to lease the land, realizing the great benefit that would accrue to the county and city by the organization of a golf company and a permanent attraction for a fair that the four who are holding out remain firm in their stand."

A DISCUSSION.

"Blood Atonement and the Origin of Plural Marriage."

A pamphlet containing over a hundred pages, has just been issued. The writer, Joseph F. Smith, gives the following questions quoted between Elder Joseph F. Smith, Jr., and Mr. Richard C. Evans, the latter gentleman being second counselor to the president of the "Reformants." The questions are entered into exhaustively by both sides and a great deal of valuable information is given. Elder Joseph F. Smith, Jr., shows by historical data and incontrovertible documents that the position of his opponent is untenable.
