

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

Many pleasant affairs have entertained the week, mostly of a quiet nature, no really large functions having been given. For the near future several events are planned, among the more elaborate ones being the University banquet and reception, as well as the alumni reception to be given by the University faculty on the same day. This last will include a social gathering and luncheon to be served at the university.

Miss La Frele Hatch entertained at a pleasant affair this afternoon in honor of Miss Pearl Kimball, whose marriage to Mr. Alfred Davis takes place in June.

Mrs. Leslie L. Savage and Miss Mary Robinson were guests of honor at a delightful tea yesterday given by Mrs. O. W. Powers at Lingerlonger, the rooms being beautifully decorated, and a number of intimate friends assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Treasure entertained informally at cards last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Wycke, about 35 guests being present.

Miss Susie Sawyer entertained at an enjoyable affair yesterday in honor of Miss Helen Hamberger.

The reception given by the seniors of the high school to the graduating class last night at Saltair was a pleasant affair, the two classes with the chaperones enjoying a delightful evening. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. (Hobbs), Capt. and Mrs. William Webb, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Moreton, Mrs. Edward Kimball, Prof. George A. Eaton.

Mrs. H. C. Brownlee was hostess at a delightful afternoon affair on Thursday given in honor of Colorado friends.

Mrs. W. G. Lamb entertained about a dozen friends at bridge on Wednesday, the decorations being in lilacs and carnations, and prizes being awarded to Mrs. D. C. Jackling and Mrs. Creebles. Present were Mrs. Fred Richmond, Mrs. Charles Rookliffe, Mrs. E. M. Allison, Mrs. Joe Gallagher, Mrs. W. T. Donohoe, Mrs. George A. Harris, Mrs. J. B. Harris, Mrs. Frank Harris and Mrs. D. C. Jackling.

Mrs. Charlotte Newman entertained at dinner on Monday night in honor of Mrs. Ernest Eldredge, and on Wednesday gave a luncheon, about a half dozen friends being entertained at each.

Mrs. Frank T. Roberts entertained this afternoon in honor of Miss Fannie Bird, the guests being chiefly members of her sewing club.

Mrs. John H. Hinman has issued invitations for a "500" party next Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Mary L. Anderson was hostess at an informal tea on Thursday in honor of Miss Winn and Miss Block of St. Louis, the rooms being bright with flowers and the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. W. B. Sprague, Mrs. E. R. Perry, Mrs. Arthur Bird, Miss Crawford and Miss Hanauer.

Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett entertained at a pretty luncheon today, covers being laid for 12 guests.

Miss Johnson, supervisor of physical culture in the city schools, was pleasantly surprised on Wednesday afternoon in a gathering of friends at the gymnasium building of the university, when an informal social was held in her honor and a handsome gift presented her with the compliments of the teachers. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time spent.

Miss Amy Ball, whose marriage takes place next week, was guest of honor at a pleasant affair on Thursday night, given by Misses Burham, Bowden and Irvine, about 15 friends being present. The bride-elect received many dainty gifts in china.

Last night Miss Elizabeth Child entertained at a china shower in honor of Miss Ball, and this afternoon Mrs. Florence Taylor and Miss Bolto entertained at a parcel shower for Miss Ball.

Mrs. W. G. Piler was hostess at one of the prettiest events of the week, her function being a luncheon at the Country club in honor of Miss Mary Robinson of Michigan. Five tables were laid, each artistically decorated with decorations of lilacs, and about 40 guests enjoyed the affair, among them Miss Robinson, Mrs. Edward S. Ferry, Mrs. W. Montague Perry, Mrs. E. O. Howard, Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. David S. Murray, Mrs. W. W. Flagg, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. Leslie Loring Savage, Miss Mary Moore, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Margaret Park, Mrs. Arthur

Mrs. WILLIAM H. VAN SCHAIK

CONVICTED CAPTAIN OF GENERAL SLOCUM WEDS.

The marriage in Amsterdam, N. Y., last week, of Capt. William Henry Van Schaick, who is under sentence of ten years' imprisonment for neglect in connection with the burning of the Slocum, when nearly 1,000 lives were lost, to Miss Grace Mary Spratt of New York, was the culmination of a long courtship.

For upwards of 14 years they had been acquainted and lovers. Capt. Van Schaick, who has appealed from the sentence and furnished bonds, has purchased a large farm near Amsterdam, N. Y., where Mrs. Schaick will reside and await her husband's return in case his new trial turns against him.

H. S. Bird, Miss Anna McCormick, Mrs. R. H. Channing, Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. Robert B. Harkness, Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. Benner X. Smith, Mrs. Robert Gould Smith, Mrs. Louis Cecil Robinson, Mrs. George Jay Gibson, Miss Laura Sherman, Mrs. Don Carlos Roberts, Mrs. J. L. Franken, Miss Georgie Webber, Mrs. Union Worthington, Mrs. C. R. Pearsall, Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. A. E. Walker, Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Miss Maude Fitch, Miss Addie Zane, Miss Katherine Geddes, Mrs. Ernest Hamberger and Mrs. Solomon Siegel.

Mrs. M. H. Waller gives a party this evening at her home in honor of the birthday of her little daughter Glen.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Anderson gave a delightful entertainment Thursday evening in honor of the Pioneer stake S. S. Dramatic Co. The rooms were beautifully decorated in white and green, and during the evening an elaborate luncheon was served. The guests present were: Misses Nellie Worthen, May Green, Lillian Hunter, Nellie Anderson, Mrs. C. V. Pardo, Misses Lyle and Mabel James; Mr. and Mrs. James N. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Condie, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Christensen, Mr. John Glenn, Mr. Parley James, Mr. George Hickenlooper, Mr. Frank Anderson, Mr. Charles Coles, Mr. Alma Elk.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Tripp gave a dinner at the Alta club on Wednesday in honor of E. L. Lomax, the table being decorated with marguerites and ferns, and the following guests being present: Mr. and Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Penton, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ritter and D. E. Burley.

At the University club on Thursday an elaborate luncheon was enjoyed by the members of the Reviewers club, the occasion being the annual reunion. The table was decorated in white and gold, daisies and marigolds being used with ferns. The place cards were tiny traveling bags with labels indicating

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. Emma Mooney has returned from a visit of some months with friends in Texas.

Mrs. E. A. Kimball is in town visiting her sister, Mrs. Alonzo E. Hyde, Jr.

Alex Williamson of Edinburg, Scotland, is in town the guest of Samuel Williamson for the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Bickford will leave the first part of June for a month's stay on the coast.

C. S. Hoyle is here from Washington on his way to Las Vegas on a tour of inspection.

Miss Edgarda Wedgwood will leave early in June for Grand Junction to visit the Misses Sawyer for a few weeks.

Miss Nettie Hilton is home from Los Angeles, where she has been visiting for some time.

Mrs. M. K. Parsons and her daughter, Miss Elsie Parsons, are back from California, where they have spent several months.

Mrs. N. A. Ranschoff of New York is in the city to be the guest of Mrs. Simon Hamberger for the next month.

Mrs. Burgett of Boise, Ida., who has been visiting the McKinnis family, left for the east this week.

Miss Jasmine Young has returned from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCormick and Miss Anna McCormick will leave next week for New York, where they will be joined by Miss Genevieve, the party leaving early in June for Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard W. Reed and Mrs. Robert J. Glendinning will be home shortly from Boston and New York, where they have been visiting.

Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Stewart and Mrs. S. S. Walker left this week for Los Angeles and Pasadena.

Mrs. Henry La Motte and son, Exton, are back from the east, where they went by way of California and the Gulf of Mexico, and are again at Whitehall.

Miss Pearl Weller has returned from Chicago, where she has spent the past month visiting with friends.

Mrs. John Dern and Mrs. W. H. Cunningham left this week to visit relatives in Nebraska.

Mrs. Harold Russell is home to spend a part of the summer with relatives.

Mrs. T. W. London and her little daughter Zuleta, who have been with Mr. and Mrs. George P. Holman for some time, will leave today for their home in Portland.

Miss Emma Lucy Gates is home from New York and will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Gates.

Fred A. Hale has returned from Monterey, where he has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benton Hunter.

Mrs. Ernest Williams and Miss Lucy Williams have gone to Los Angeles for a six weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knight have returned from Los Angeles, where they have spent the past six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Seton Lindsey left the city this week. Mrs. Lindsey will spend the summer and early fall in England, and Mr. Lindsey will return to Seattle.

J. A. Scott has returned from a two weeks' visit in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Nye are here on their wedding trip, and will spend a week with the Webber family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jevne are in the city, guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Murray.

Mrs. Asenath Adams arrived Sunday from New York and is with Mrs. Isabel Pitt at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Witter.

Judge Thomas Marshall and David R. Gray are back from Chicago.

Mrs. A. Roundy and her daughter, Dorothy, are now at home at 448 First street.

Mrs. M. J. Shealy of Ogden is in town visiting her sister, Miss Elsie Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kahn have returned from their wedding trip, and will shortly be at home to their friends at 838 east First South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Yale Henry have arrived and are at the Fifth East hotel. Mrs. Henry was formerly Miss Adelaide Sligh of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Milton Sprague has arrived from California and is at the country home of his sister, Mrs. A. E. Walker, for a few days.

Miss Beatrice Cheesman, Miss Elizabeth McIntyre, Miss Gertrude Hanson and Messrs. Tod Goodwin, George Lawrence and Ellis Freed were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cates, at Bingham, for a couple of days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Wallace have returned from their trip to Japan after an absence of two months.

Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson, baby and nurse, will leave the last of the month for New Haven, Conn.

Dr. and Mrs. Alvah Lewis have for their guest their sister, Miss Lewis, who has spent the last three years in California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris have returned from Pasadena.

Mrs. J. G. Sawyer is here from Nevada visiting her mother, Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert.

Miss Pearl Van Cott and Miss Nora Van Cott will leave shortly for the east to spend a part of the summer with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Strong of Detroit are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Moore, and will remain in town during the summer.

Mrs. Emma Spencer has returned to the city after a pleasant visit with Mrs. E. A. Nock of Denver.

Mrs. Ellen Elliott has gone to Grand Junction, where she will visit for some time. Later she goes to Denver for a part of the summer.

Mrs. Eliza Snow Dunford is back from California, where she has spent the past year with Mr. and Mrs. Morton French.

An extremely pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Mary Talbot and Mr. Luther F. Steele of Portland, the affair taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Talbot on Tuesday night, with Rev. Bishop David Moore officiating. Miss Anna Finlay acting as bridesmaid, and Dr. W. W. White of Portland best man. The rooms were beautifully decorated in green and white, lilacs and ferns being used in profusion. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Dinwiddie will entertain at a dinner next Wednesday evening.

LADIES' SUIT SALE

New Eton Suits on sale at $11.75, $15.00, $20.00. Worth up to $45.00 suit. Materials Silk, Panama Cloth, Serges, Vests.

WEDDING BELLS

sole over tulle, and the bridesmaid white net over tulle. The bride's gown was trimmed with Duchesse lace, and she wore a long veil of tulle and carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley. The bridesmaid's bouquet was of white lilacs. Beautiful music was played throughout by an orchestra, and the bride party were assisted in receiving by members of the family and intimate friends. Later Mr. and Mrs. Steele left for a trip through the Yosemite and will afterward go to Portland to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Welles have announced the engagement of their daughter Marie Josephine to Edward Hope of London, England, the wedding to take place in the near future.

On Tuesday Miss Agnes Grant and Charles H. Swan of this city were married at Farmington, the ceremony being performed by Justice E. B. Richards.

The marriage of Miss Alvin Steed and William D. Thome took place on Thursday at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. G. Thurgood, the ceremony being performed by President Ashton. The rooms were prettily decorated with spring flowers, and refreshments were served, a number of relatives and intimate friends assisting.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE FILES

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah, May 19.—The reception and ball given Wednesday evening in honor of Prof. D. O. McKay at the Fifth ward meetinghouse and hall was a joyous event. It was arranged by the Weber stake Sunday school board, of which Mr. McKay was Second assistant superintendent, and was attended by over 200 guests. The early part of the evening was spent in listening to an excellent program of speeches and vocal music. The Sunday school workers as a token of their esteem presented Prof. McKay with a tastefully engrossed testimonial also a beautiful watch fob and locket set with a diamond and suitably engraved.

After the rendition of the program all present adjourned to the amusement hall, where the remnants of the evening was spent in dancing, social hand shaking and chat. Several young ladies served delicious refreshments. The halls were tastefully decorated with flowers, evergreens, palms and national flags. All present declared the evening to be one of the most sociable and pleasant of their lives.

Prof. Howard R. Driggs of Cedar City is visiting in Ogden this week with his brother, Sam. F. M. Driggs of the state school for the deaf and blind.

The Dixie Jubilee Singers, a company of colored vocalists, entertained a good sized audience last evening at the Ogden tabernacle.

The I. O. O. F. and Daughters of Rebecca will open the Utahna dancing pavilion Monday evening for this season.

John T. Hall and Miss Vera Smith, two popular young people of North Ogden and Ogden respectively, were married Friday at noon at the home of the bride's parents on Twenty-sixth street. The ceremony was witnessed by the relatives of the contracting parties and a few friends, who, after extending congratulations, partook of a dainty dinner.

David Eccles, Jr., returned home this week from a business trip to Portland.

At the auditorium of the state school for the deaf and blind on Monday evening a most excellent musical was given by Prof. Joseph Ballantyne and a number of his pupils at the school. The work done was artistic and creditable. The pupils appear to have excellently bright minds for music and rendered each number well.

Mrs. John Thomas entertained a large number of her lady friends Wednesday afternoon at her home on Twenty-seventh street, at an old time costume party. Some very good costumes were represented. The head prizes being awarded to Mrs. Parry and the second prize to Mrs. A. E. Becker. The guests were served with a prize and Mrs. Elwood Nelson was the lucky winner. A dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Glammann entertains the ladies next Wednesday.

The Sorosis met Wednesday with Mrs. J. H. Slater. Interesting and instructive papers were presented on the following subjects: "Domestic Science" by Miss May Ward; "Italian Writers," Mrs. Clara Hentli; "Booker

WOMAN OBTAINS RIGHT TO SUFFIX JUNIOR.

Judge John H. McCarthy, in the New York City court has just signed an order giving Miss Nettie Whelan of that city the right to change her name to Adele Ritchie, Jr., on June 9, in order that she may inherit her god-mother's property.

Miss Whelan is a niece of Adele Ritchie, the actress, who educated her, and with whom she resides. This is probably the first case on record in which a woman has been permitted to take the name of another woman, with the suffix junior.

calling forth rounds of applause from the large audience.

Miss Verna Stark of Brigham City spent this week in Ogden with friends.

Elder Bens, who has been doing missionary work in Switzerland for the past two years, returned home Wednesday evening delighted with his work.

Rev. Chas. Richardson, former pastor of the local Presbyterian church, was visiting in Ogden this week with friends. He is now located at Great Falls, Montana.

The W. C. T. U. was entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Harry Sims.

One of the delightful events of the week was the tully-ho party given Thursday by Mrs. D. H. Peery to the Hermitage in Ogden canyon, which was participated in by a large number of her lady friends. This was the first of the canyon's parties of the season.

Mrs. John Thomas entertained a large number of her lady friends Wednesday afternoon at her home on Twenty-seventh street, at an old time costume party. Some very good costumes were represented. The head prizes being awarded to Mrs. Parry and the second prize to Mrs. A. E. Becker. The guests were served with a prize and Mrs. Elwood Nelson was the lucky winner. A dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Glammann entertains the ladies next Wednesday.

The Sixth ward M. I. A. sewing club met Thursday evening with Mrs. Eliza Nelson, a profitable evening was passed.

Mrs. J. J. Nunn and Mrs. E. A. Thornhill gave a delightful canyon party today at Nunn's in Provo canyon. Many guests from the city enjoyed the outing, which included picnic and mountain climbing.

The card club met Monday evening at Mrs. Phil Speckart's and repaired to the home of Mrs. Samuel A. King, where Mrs. King was the guest of honor at a surprise party. The evening passed pleasantly with games, song, music and refreshments.

Master Le Grand Hardy entertained a number of young friends Wednesday

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

at his home.

TRAVELING COAT ON NEW LINES.

Among the newest models for traveling coats, brought out during the late spring days, is the accompanying empire model of griffonette cloth. The coat top or yoke is smooth fitting, its empire waistline slightly lifted above the regulation point, where the well-cut circular skirt is eased into the band very smoothly. The model is of a smart and serviceable gray griffonette cloth, the large, round buttons covered with gray velvet, these set upon the double.

LADIES' SUIT SALE

New Eton Suits on sale at $11.75, $15.00, $20.00. Worth up to $45.00 suit. Materials Silk, Panama Cloth, Serges, Vests.

WEDDING BELLS

WEDDING BELLS

A CARD OF THANKS.

We respectfully thank the public for the magnificent patronage accorded us during our Annual May Sale. All previous business records of this house were exceeded. We believe the people were satisfied with the bargains they secured, and that Z. C. M. I. will even more firmly than ever be cemented to the respect and confidence of the public. Please accept our sincerest gratitude and be assured that we will continue our endeavors to ever merit your support.

Zion's Cooperative Mercantile Institution

BEAUTIFUL MILLINERY

FOR

Mid-Summer Wear

ALL WHITE EFFECTS.

MONDAY, Tuesday and Wednesday, we will make a special showing of Pretty White Lingerie Hats for the Ladies' and Misses' of Salt Lake. The young girl graduates will then see the correct ideas for chapeaus to match the exquisite dresses they will wear. The exhibit will also include many white Pattern Hats for street and dress wear. "White" is Fashion's decree for this Summer, and in anticipation of the consequent great demand, we have assembled a special assortment of new, clean and exclusive ideas for our patrons. We invite you to come to the "White Hat Show." Attendance does in no way detract you to purchase.

We Are Showing the Handsomest Line of White Parasols ever Seen in Salt Lake.

Zion's Cooperative Mercantile Institution

HAS THE PEOPLE'S CONFIDENCE