

IN MINING CIRCLES.

A Banner Day With the Bulls and Bears on 'Change.

RULE TRADING AT GOOD FIGURES.

Review of the Market by Pollock-Increasing Items from Little—Dips and Spurs.

The stock brokers in their manipulation on 'change made this a banner day in the pit. But there were some exceptions to the rule. While most of the selling shares went at good figures, the only exception being in a transfer of Southern to 75 cents a share—the lowest figure at which that stock has sold in the pit since the organization of the exchange.

The sell opened with a bid of 60 cents for Anchor. Then came Alex, which was an offering at 77 cents, but fell a little in the bidding. Union Pacific was firm at $4.75 to the bidding, while others a wanted dollar more for the stock. Daily was wanted badly at $3.00, the stock, however, closed as an offering at $2.90. Daily-Week was stationary, the figure being the same as at the previous close.

The first stock to record a transfer was Four Aces, 1,000 shares of which was a stake at 19 cents. A bid of 18 cents was freely posted for the stock, but more of it could not be purchased under 20 cents, the closing figure. Dakota maintained its position of yesterday while Missouri advanced to $0.75 in the bidding and stood as a closing offering at $0.80. Missouri was stronger than ever and shared in the trading at $1.92 and $2. The latter figure could have bought more of the stock, but after the sale the bid dropped to $1.85 and remained there. The selling of Missouri at 75 cents, closed would have purchased 65 cents for it, a figure which was recorded as the closing bid.

Dillon was the only unlisted stock to move in the trading. This stock had advanced from the sales bringing from 2 to 4 cents a share. It was strongly bid for at 71 cents, but further trading could not be brought about, buyers demanding as much as 25 cents for the stock. However, all but a little in the trading, the stock being wanted at $2.50 as against $2.45 at yesterday's close. It stood as an offering at $2.55, an advance of 5 cents over Thursday's closing figure. "West Air" to the "Black and White" was thrown upon the market at 30 cents a share, while 50 cents was the bid bid point. Northern Light remained strong and could have found numerous buyers at 61 cents. The closing figures were as follows:

POLLOCK'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

Little Change in the Mining Market. Market Rise. Last Week.

James A. Pollock says in his weekly mining share market letter under date of today:

During the week just closed, the local mining stock market was almost stationary, that for the week preceding. As a whole the market was well maintained but there were weak points and buying was only normal. Little change in the market was to be expected, as a very material weakening of mining shares was not to be expected, as the market showed some good advances.

All the mining shares against the Alex. were paid during the week and the company is now practically free from debt, with a steady stream of good grade ore coming from the mine. The Alex. has been reported to have improved. Practically no business was done in the local market. On the 15th the usual dividend of $1 per share was distributed. Good reports are
