The Great Black Silk Sale!

BUT NOW-THE WONDERFUL MONEY-SAVING TIME.

HE store was months in working up this sale. Another such has not been presented here-Salt Lake has not known one so prodigious. It took time, it took diligence and persistence to get the immense quantity of such exceptionally fine silks-every piece came from a first-class manufacturer, remember-and bring the price down to a level sometimes found on a clean-up lot, never on full round bolts from which may be cut as much or little, or any kind desired. Entirely unnecessary is it to go again into detail of the affair-how makers finally yielded to the sacrifice. Enough is it that the silks are here and that women well versed in silk quality have pronounced them wonderful value and are buying, in many cases, for next fall and winter.

Only briefest sort of glance at prices does the following afford. Come and see the qualities that go with them:
