WASHINGTON, 27. — A warrant wass issued to-night for the arrest of W. Dickson, on the affidavit of juror McNeilly, for endeavoring to improperly influence the verdict of the Star route jury. Another warrant was issued for his arrest on the affidavit of Brewster Cameron, with affidavit of H. A. Bowen and Wilson W. Hoover attached, as exhibits, charging Dickson with conspiracy with George W. S. Driver and others to get money from the United manufacture in the Lancaster mine. Two days ago they went to do assessment work It is thought that they were killed by a premature blast.

Gen. H. G. Wright, chief of engineers, United States Army, in his annual report gives a detailed account of the condition and needs of all fortifications on the the subject of sea coast defenses. The report says the defenses of the United States against a maritime attack for many years must depend upon the finishing of the Barbette batteries, designed long ago, but with such modifications as will adapt them to the reception of a 12-inch rifled gun the magazines: also that it will be necessary to make ready without delay to apply one system of torpedoes to all harbors, preparing bombproof electrical eperating rooms and deep masonry galleries extending therefrom to low-waterline needed for the they cannot prevent the destruction of our seaboard cities by ships of a maritime foe, and that while reli-ance can be found in no other mode of defence a defence by fortifications and torpedoes is most efficient, most enduring and least expensive. Packed with the Property. A robbery of diamonds, silks, laces, velvets, etc., to the extent of $5,000, has taken place at the house of General Sturgis, at the Soldiers' Home. The trunks of Leskathe Pommard, a French governess em-ployed by the family and a friend of Gen. Sturgis' son-in-law, was found packed with the missing property.

I have read somewhat largely the expressions in regard to my orthodoxy, consistency, influence and general merit, without wishing for a moment to reply, as you kindly request me. When a dead man is lying on the dissecting table under the hands of experts, it would be unbecoming in him to rise up suddenly and discuss with his surgeons the propriety of their method and the truth of the re-NOTICE IS HERRBY GIVEN THAT the Co-partnership heretofore existing between Fred. J. May and Wm. Wood, under the firm name of May & Wood was, on the 17th day of October, 1882, dissolved by mutual consent. Fred. J. May withdraws from said firm. Wm. Wood continues the business and hereby assumes all liabilities owing by, and will collect all coustanding debts due to the late firm of May & Wood.

reduced to pulp, but thank heaven not to ashes. When you suggest a reply to these I am sure you can have no conception of the subdued and enlightened state of my mind. I am bent on improvement, aside from the laying aside of all my old notions of my belief and my standnotions of my benef and my standing. I am carefully putting together the real man that I am taught I am. When I get my personal identity together and in working shape, I intend to study theology somewhere, though now in my present confusion I cannot yet see whether I shall study at Andover or Boston. New Haven is nearer, but Dr. Smythe has been settled there and I fear the laxity of doctrine in his neighborhood. Princeton is not far south of me, but Dr. McCosh is a Christian evolutionist, and it would be folly, after what I have suffered, to come under the malarial influence of that philosophy. On the whole I incline to study at Park street, but wherever I may go I am determined before I

I may go I am determined before I die to find a theology which will pass muster at Bangor, at Andover, at Cambridge, at New Haven, at Princeton, at Alleghany, at Berlin, at Chicago, and at Park street, then I shall willingly die.
