

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah. - JUNE 4, 1895.

Notes.

A special train of seven box cars of horses came in from Ogden last night, from the celebrated stables of J. B. Higgins at Baileys, Del. Pa. They go to New York to be sold at auction.

Mr. Wright reports the large orchard planted last spring by the Bear River Orchard company as being in excellent condition, showing a rapid growing condition. Mr. Wright is superintendent.

Ogden is still interested with a series of transient misbegotten men.

A man named J. C. Williams was found lying on the U. P. track yesterday morning. He had an iron bar and a badly bruised face and body. He was taken to the U. P. hospital. It was thought he had been run over or out of the way of a train coming behind him, but unfortunately did not move far enough and was struck by the engine.

Millard Stake Conference.

The quarterly Stake conference of Millard Stake convened in the District meeting house Sunday morning, May 26, 1895, at 10 o'clock. Elder W. N. Hinckley presiding. There were present on the stand: Elder F. M. Lyman of the Twelve Apostles, who made presidency, a few of the members of the High Council, four Patriarchs, nearly all the Bishops and other leaders of the Stake; and an attentive audience filled the large house at every meeting.

After the opening exercises Sunday morning, Elder Hinckley gave a brief report on the condition of the Stake. He then read the Word of Wisdom. The Hallel sacrifices are on the level, and the young ladies are ahead of the young men. The Patriarchal records are a success as a school.

Elder F. M. Lyman said when men speak or pray in public they should do so to be heard. Spoke upon the Word of Wisdom, and referred to the second trial in the Church before the High Council. The Word of Wisdom was involved when the Prophet Joseph decided that no man should officiate in this worthy purpose but shall be ordained in the church. In this case, with the exception of the members of the constitution, will be acknowledged through the columns of the DESERET NEWS.

The services were interrupted with reports from the bishops of the different wards, which were in the main very good. The singing by the District choir was excellent. Elder Hinckley was largely through the ward, which now has a baptismal birth day, ending with rain, snow and hail.

Elder C. Anderson spoke upon the necessity of Church discipline and reforming the Church to make it a better organization. The Church is not a family, but a society, and we must not let it become one.

Elder F. M. Lyman said that our faith is not strong enough to control the elements or to tame death. We are subject to disease, and notwithstanding we may be healthy, we may have to submit to the same afflictions as others.

We are subject to these laws and we cannot deny them. We cannot afford to sit away from time or make cast in our great houses and gain much knowledge. It is wrong to mourn for our dead; but it is wrong to say the Lord killed them; sickness and death are results of broken law. Church discipline is necessary to keep the Church pure.

At the Monday morning service the general and local authorities were presented by Elder C. Anderson, and they were all unanimously sustained, after which Elder Lyman again suggested that the Church should not want to sit quiet, but that they should say something about their own standing. We have sought Statehood at different times, and been denied as often, and never unless have God's help. We have sought the United States to understand to give us an enabling act. The people who have been laboring upon us being out of harmony with the government have changed, and the people are not looking upon us as inferior. There are no mortgages allowed in the Church now contrary to the laws of the land. The great majority of the people have never accepted of plural marriage as part of the law, but there has been a very small per cent of the members of the Church that ever practiced that principle. There are many members of the Church that never believed that the principles of the gospel were true. I called on him this morning, "I like your sentiments." "Please do more than say, "He always" - Wm. H. Hinckley.

"They tell me that the editor is not very well," said the poet's friend.

"He is failing quite rapidly," was the reply. "I called on him this morning."

"His condition is critical."
