

CORRESPONDENCE.

A LINE FROM SANPETE COUNTY.

MOUNT PLEASANT, June, 8, 1861.

Mr. Editor:—Did you ever visit this little town, not city. If not, you have lost a treat. Here on a nice rolling piece of ground, commanding a fine view of the surrounding country, and of the mountains and hills, covered with timber to their base, stands a superior fort, built two years ago, under the direction of Mr. James Ivie. Many persons still live in the fort, either fearful of Indians or else they like the proximity of house to house. The citizens are, however, generally locating on their lots outside, and some evidences of taste are being displayed in their buildings and improvements.

Five creeks contribute their waters to irrigate the land. Pleasant Creek is made to turn machinery every few rods and so strong and rapid is the current that mills could advantageously be located along the stream very near to each other.

We have good peace here and the usual spirit of industry is manifested. A fatherly care is exercised in the control of affairs, but there is little to control, the people seem to control themselves. We have no liquor saloons, no liquor manufacturers, neither stores to take away our grain; but we have an abundance of sheep and stock. We have two tanneries, and need more. Shoemakers are wanted; furniture is much needed, and a potter would be found delighting us, while he turned his clay into gold (wheat). We have only one flouring mill, and need more. We have three saw mills, and need more. We have an abundance of land, and need more farmers. The range for stock is excellent; timber of most kinds plentiful, and there are chances untold for the poor of the Saints, to find a home, where they can say:

"No pent up city controls our powers.

The whole mountain Territory is ours."

The citizens of Mount Pleasant have petitioned the County court of Sanpete to add one thousand dollars to the appropriation made by the Legislature, last winter, for the purpose of improving the road through Spanish Fork canyon, but no response has yet been made, and nothing has been done in relation to the Legislative appropriation. Why this apathy and indifference? A good road through that canyon is much needed by the people of this valley, and why is it that we must go round thirty miles further to reach Great Salt Lake City; shall we ever see a better and a nearer road?

A strong effort will be made this season to improve this place, so advantageously located, and thus make it what its name denotes, a pleasant place.

It is gratifying to say, that what articles are manufactured here are highly creditable to all concerned.

Our big field, which is nine miles in circumference, is well fenced, and contains some of the finest soil in the Territory. The low and uplands are admirably suited for the various grains, we lack some vines, but for the great staple of life (wheat), I believe Sanpete is second to none in the Territory. The man of family would do well to look here before he locates anywhere, if he desires a cheap home, and in fact any and all who will get their living by the sweat of their brow. I am satisfied that from the harmonious workings of affairs here, a future awaits this place as bright as that of any star in the constellation of Deseret, and that as much honey will be found in our portion of the hive as in some more favored ones nearer the center.

It would do you good to see the anxious expectants gather around the agent's office, on the days of arrival, awaiting the NEWS, richly freighted as it is with news items. The "Extra"—how glad we are to see it! Your city folks know not the value of a paper like that. The sermons, as well as the war news, are read and re-read by your subscribers here.

Our postal arrangements are not satisfactory. We need a post office at this place, and hope to get one at no distant day. We are talking about erecting a new meeting-house, and establishing a small library in one room, that our youth may have a chance to improve their minds, as well as to become proficient in the art of dancing; in short to keep up with the spirit of the times and the progress of Zion.

Should you ever vacate the editorial chair for a residence in the country, I hope that you, though a northern man, will come south to Mount Pleasant, where secession is never breathed, but where, on the glorious fourth, we hope to hoist the genuine stars and stripes and show that they and the Constitution are still revered in the midst of the mountains. I wish orders had been just sent for our teams to have freighted the Union out here, we could have preserved it so well in this salt country.

—Yours,
ITEM.

—A desperado named McBride, was arrested recently at Marietta, Ohio, charged with arson, and was defended ably by a lawyer, to whom he agreed to pay $500 in case of acquittal; failing in doing so, his property was sold to satisfy the demand. As Mr. Green, the lawyer, was passing McBride's house, one evening after, the villain shot him fatally; and when the police and citizens attempted to arrest him, he dangerously wounded John Lewis, and then blew out his own brain.

CLIPPINGS.

—A Memphis paper says two nephews of Lieutenant-General Scott are in the ranks of the Mississippi forces ready and anxious to pay a visit to their uncle Winfield.

—One thousand ladies of Massachusetts have enrolled, ready to go to the seat of war as nurses.

—It is rumored that the Democracy of Vermont will soon lose a standing candidate for Governor in John G. Saxe, the poet, who is about to remove from Burlington to Albany, N. Y.

—An old farmer in Southern Illinois, seeing the cannon in Cairo, remarked "That them brass missionaries had converted a heap of folks."

—Eli Thayer has been appointed Examiner in the Patent Office, with a salary of $25,000.

—Gen. Lee, who is at the head of the Virginia troops, is the son of the celebrated "Light Horse Harry," of the Revolution.

—It is estimated that not less than five thousand printers have volunteered to defend the Stars and Stripes.

—General Scott was seventy-five years old on the 17th of June.

—It is stated that Mary W. Dennis, six feet two inches high, is First Lieutenant of the Stillwater company, Minnesota regiment. She baffled even the inspection of the surgeon of the regiment in discovering her sex, but was recognized by a St. Paul printer, who became shockingly frightened at her threats of vengeance upon him if he exposed her, and he decamped.

—When I was in the South, says a writer in the Missouri Republican, and saw the enthusiasm and immense warlike movements, I did not believe that any force from the North could possibly subjugate that people. When I came North and saw the vast preparations that are being made here, I could only think of the utter ruin that must ensue if these forces do actually come into conflict.
