CONGRESSIONAL.

Resolution to allow colored people to participate in 15th Amendment in House of Representatives—Amusement Among Members—Tariff Bill.

Several bills were introduced and referred.

A resolution was adopted, 113 against 55, to grant the use of the Hall of the House of Representatives to the colored people of the District of Columbia on Wednesday evening, to celebrate the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution.

This was followed by a resolution for the appointment of a committee of arrangement. The Speaker named Dicky, Maynard, Allison, Cox and Eldridge.

Cox said he could not serve, except on condition that his friend from Massachusetts, [Butler] be allowed to entertain the meeting with a little minstrelsy. He added, that he declined to serve because he did not wish to meet some persons who would be present among the colored jubilate.

Eldridge begged to be excused without any conditions. He said this Congressional duty was not required by the House and he would not serve on the committee.

A conversational debate followed, which resulted in Cox and Eldridge not being excused.

The House went into a committee on the tariff bill, and resumed the consideration of that paragraph taxing women's and children's dress goods, which, on motion of Schenck, was amended by inserting "silk not being a component material thereof, of chief value." The succeeding paragraph, relating to clothing, wearing apparel of every description, and balmoral and other skirts, was similarly amended. The paragraph taxing carpets was reached, when Brooks moved to strike out the paragraph. He had read from the clerk's desk an editorial from the Chicago Tribune, which he said had more influence with public opinion than forty members of Congress. Brooks declared that the paragraph voted millions into the hands of a very few in the Middle and New England States.

Myers opposed the amendment and stated that there were in his district seventy-five people engaged in carpet manufacturing on the policy of free trade. The World's special says Schenck explained that the paragraph simply re-enacted the present law except as regards Brussels carpets, which would be brought down from forty-four to twenty-eight cents and the cheaper kinds of carpet from twenty-five to twelve cents. Brooks' amendment was rejected. The paragraph passed without any amendment except to insert "Brussels carpet at twenty-eight cents per yard and forty-five per cent advance." Several other paragraphs passed without amendment. The committee rose, having gone through over three pages of the bill.

Butler from Massachusetts, asked leave to introduce a joint resolution for the admission of the Republic of St. Domingo. Brooks objected.

A resolution giving the use of the hall for the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment, on motion of Kelsey, was rejected without division and the committee of arrangements appointed was discharged. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON.

Dr. Hayes, the Explorer, before a Committee.

WASHINGTON.—Dr. Hayes was before the House committee on appropriations to-day and gave his views as to the propriety of fitting out an expedition to the Arctic regions at Government expense. He explained its practicability, and showed the advantage which would result to science through explorations in the open the Polar Sea, which Dr. Kane and himself had reached. He would found a colony at Smith's Sound, and in the spring cross the ice-belt to Grinnell, where he would establish a station with supplies, thence, with boats, he would push out towards the Pole. He did not believe in the existence of land at the North Pole, but was satisfied an open sea would be found. He expressly stated that he did not appear before the committee on his personal behalf; but by the invitation and request of the interested in science and progress. He took the broad ground that whatever was done by the Government, should be done with a view of undoubted success.

NEW YORK.

Trial of Perry commenced. Excite bill defective.—One million new fifty cent notes.—Sherman opposed to sending troops to Tennessee.—Assistance to emigrants.—Will prosecute the Erie company.—Revels' speech at Anti-Slavery meeting.—Collided.—Died.—Buildings fell, serious results.

NEW YORK, 12.—The third trial of C. Perry, for the murder of Thos. Hays, a watchman, in December last, commenced yesterday. After being shot, Hays exclaimed, "I'm shot; Ed. Perry shot me." Notwithstanding this, the jury disagreed on the trial. Spencer and Bergen asked for a postponement on the ground of the former being engaged on the McFarland trial; but the court, Judge Barnard presiding, refused to grant a delay and the trial will be proceeded with.

Commissioners appointed under the new excise bill, for New York, complained that, among other defects of the bill, it gives them no power to appoint a clerk or to hire counsel. They will therefore ask for additional legislation.

Geo. B. McCarty, chief of the bureau of engraving and printing, has been in MAINE.

School building burned.

KENNEBEC.—The academy buildings, occupied as high and grammar schools, were burned last night.

FOREIGN NEWS.

WEST INDIES.

HAVANA.—A telegram from Captain General de Rodas, dated Puerto Principe, and published to-day, states that two columns of Spanish troops had returned without meeting the enemy. Koreans were then provisioned for two months and sent to occupy Guanaco and Mangaza. Two men and one woman, spies were caught. The men were executed but the woman was pardoned. A great amount of important correspondence was captured and much of the property of the rebels destroyed. The insurgents were in advance and many surrendered voluntarily. They report that Enrique, Agramonta, Francisco, Castillo, Gaspar Betavand, Diego Agram and an American named Maquet were the chief leaders of the insurgents and some of them had embarked and fled from the country, after having fought among themselves. Some of the insurgents had issued orders to punish with death whoever accepts De Rodas' proclamation. Cespedes intends to leave the country, but he will be actively pursued. Anarchy and desertion prevail everywhere among the rebels. Some have raised the standard of revolt against Agramonta. Among their tyrannies yesterday the leaders of this revolt assassinated fourteen of their own men for the purpose of robbery. This news, which is regarded as official, has caused great rejoicing here.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Pope and infallibility.—Foreign Bishops not to be present.—Commoners want the ballot.—Colliery accident.—Seven men suffocated.

LONDON.—The memorial diplomatic is issued. It is the intention of the Ecumenical Council to adopt the dogma of infallibility by acclamation on Monday, and it is said that the representatives of foreign powers at Rome have resolved not to be present at the session on that day.

The Scotsman says Gladstone has received a letter signed by two hundred members of the House of Commons urging the adoption of the ballot.

EDINBURGH.—The workmen of both shafts of the Bathgate colliery took fire to-day while the miners were at work; seven men were suffocated and forty-nine rescued.
