Ogden City Politics — Quiet but Effective Work in Home Campaign.

Football Battles—Funeral of Mrs. Hudson—Jail Break—Ogden Locals.

Another afternoon the police arrested John C. Johnson, a man old enough to know better, whom he found in the street drunk, when he came on the closing of a fight between Mrs. Johnson and a woman by the name of Mrs. Ann Anderson. The object between the two was a boarding house in Southwick-ville, on the west side of Washington, at 25th street, and while a number of persons had collected to the scene of the fight, no one appeared on the part of the police force to take charge of the prisoners, and after a short time they were released.

Police Judge Bailey has been very busy during the past week with cases of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and the docket is now pretty well cleared up.

Ogden is not to be behind in the matter of politics, and the campaign which is now drawing to a close has been a very interesting one. The Democrats have had a rousing time, and the Republicans have been quiet but effective. The Democrats have had a number of meetings, and the Republicans have had one, which was held in the Opera House on Saturday evening, and was addressed by Hon. Joseph L. Rawlins, Hon. Arthur Brown and Hon. Thomas Kearns. The meeting was a very large one, and was enthusiastic throughout. The Democrats have had a number of prominent speakers, among whom were Hon. Joseph L. Rawlins, Hon. Arthur Brown, Hon. Thomas Kearns, Hon. Frank J. Cannon, Hon. Joseph E. Caine, Hon. Joseph Bullock, Hon. Joseph Lafferty, Hon. Joseph Nicholas and Hon. Joseph Hyrum Smith.
