

Salt Lake Lithographic Company's, are in their opinion of equal merit, and therefore suggest that the money award of $20 and the gold medal of $10 be equally divided between the two competitors.

Photographic Display—The award of $20 to be given for the display of C. R. Savage; but, considering the excellence of the exhibit of Sainsbury & Johnson, the committee suggest that they be given a gold medal inscribed for "meritorious display."

A. Lambourne's Exhibit—The awarding committee (Mr. Lambourne outside) decide that inasmuch as there was not an exhibit of oil paintings by any one person justifying the award of the $50 prize, that this prize be not awarded. The committee, however, recognizing the excellence of Mr. Lambourne's exhibit of art works, award to him a special premium of $50.

Three excellent paintings, viz., "Yosemite Valley," "Black Canyon of the Colorado" and "Pastoral Scene in Utah," all by Prof. E. Eisele, deserve special commendation, though not entered in competition, as the artist was a non-resident of Utah.

In the butter test, the cream was separated by the De Laval separator, and from the amount of supposed cream more butter should have been placed to the credit of Latank, R. T. Burton's entry. We are of opinion there must have been an error in separating, as care was exercised equally in all entries.
