FIFTY-FOURTH YEAR.

Calvin Cobb Of Idaho Testifies Before THE Senate Committee

ROSE AFFIRMS HE WILL DIE GAME.

Wife Murderer as Callous as He Was on the Day He Did The Deed.

"I FEEL FINE AND SLEPT WELL"

He Says He Has Nothing to Be Sorry For in Regard to the Tragedy.

THREE SPECTATORS ARE INVITED.

He Has Personally Asked a Trio to Be Present at the Execution Tomorrow Morning.

Seated in his cell on murderer's row, at the state prison, in the presence of Warden Pratt, Guards Pugsley, Hilton, Urs and Johnson, and four representatives of the daily press, Franklin Pierce Rose, the self-confessed murderer who will be executed tomorrow morning at the prison shortly after 10 o'clock, made his farewell statement this morning.

ROSE EXHIBITS NERVE.

"I have no particular statement to make, but I am willing to talk to you if you want me," he was asked.

ANXIOUS TO DIE.

"Are you going to feel the same tomorrow?"

DENIES HE IS WEAKENING.

"There was a piece in 'a morning paper' that I was weakening," exclaimed Rose indignantly.

HIS IDEA OF A SQUARE DEAL.

"Do you want a square deal?"

Wife Murderer as Callous as He Was on the Day He Did The Deed.

"That is a hard question. I will have the same chance to meet her that any man will have to meet his wife. If there is any such thing as a meeting, I know nothing about it. I will solve that question tomorrow."

SOLVED TOMORROW.

"Rose, do you believe in any life after death?"

CLAIMS HE FED THE BABY.

As the reporters prepared to go, Rose said:

CHERRIES FOR BREAKFAST.

Warden Pratt asked the man what he wanted to eat tomorrow morning.

WRITES TO MOTHER.

Sends Her His Love and Says He Is Not Afraid to Die.

Rose spent his last day on earth talking to his death watch and writing letters. The last letter he wrote was to his mother. He asked Warden Pratt to permit the newspapers to have a copy of the missive. The full text of the letter follows:

CORONER'S INQUEST.

Jury Says Mrs. Dixon Came to Her Death by Her Own Hand.

Ogden, April 21.—A coroner's inquest over the remains of Mrs. Mary I. Dixon who committed suicide last night, was held this morning before Judge Howell and the following jury: John M. Hanson, E. A. Stratford and James Carver, who brought in a verdict that deceased died of carbolic acid poisoning, administered by her own hand.

ALL OVER SHAKING HIS HAND.

Captain Wells Jumped on Secy. Haywood for Doing It, Was Knocked Down, and Haywood Bayoneted.

Denver, April 21.—When the train arrived this morning bearing President Moyer and his guard there were a number of people at the depot to meet them, including Secy. Haywood of the Western Federation of Miners.

WAR OFFICE IS FLOODED WITH APPLICATIONS FROM ALL CLASSES TO GO TO THE FRONT.

Tokio, April 21.—4 p. m.—The war office here is flooded with thousands of applications of Japanese of all ages and every condition of life for permission to go to the front and fight.

Russians Capture Japanese Officers.

Were Disguised as Lamas—They will be Tried by Court Martial and Dealt with Accordingly—Viceroy Alexieff Issues an Order Declaring Martial Law in Certain Districts—No Signs of the Japs at Port Arthur.

Tien Tsin, April 21.—The two Japanese officers captured recently disguised as lamas with 350 pounds of gun cotton in their possession, by the Russian authorities at Harbin, and charged with attempting to destroy the Nonni bridge, have been conveyed to Port Arthur for examination as to how they procured Chinese passports. They will afterwards be dealt with according to martial law.

Newchwang, April 21.—Viceroy Alexieff has issued an important order declaring the Yin Kow railroad station and the native village adjoining it to be within the region under martial law. The station is opposite Newchwang and it is a terminus of the Pekin-Shan Hai Kwan railroad and telegraph system. The order also establishes a censorship over all telegrams, the scrutiny of papers and inspection of baggage. It will go into effect tomorrow.

Port Arthur, April 21.—All quiet here since April 15. There are no signs of the enemy's transports off the coast of the peninsula.

Heaviest Spring Storm In Several Years.

Thousands of Trees Bend and Break Beneath the Weight of Over a Foot of Snow In This City—Great Damage to Sheep and Fruit Interests Feared—Widespread Over the State.

One of the heaviest spring storms in years is the one that struck the city and state last night and early this morning. In this city, where seven inches of snow fell, thousands of trees were broken and stripped of their tender foliage by the great weight of the beautiful. The damage in this regard will reach thousands of dollars, but there is no way in which the loss can be accurately computed. The same is true throughout Salt Lake and several other counties.

It is certain that there will be a less in fruit. Fruit trees were in bud or blossom quite generally and how extensive the damage will be in this line depends largely on the manner in which the storm clears away. If the leaves of the trees become dry before night when frost may come, or if the night itself should be cloudy and the weather thus less cold, the loss will be reduced to a minimum. Otherwise it may be enormous.

There are other interests aside from those of fruit that will suffer largely, it is feared, and one is among the sheepmen. Shearing is now well under way and the animals that have been shorn are likely to die in great numbers unless the weather clears up immediately. And even then there are lines to be shorn in the mountains. Of course shearing will be interrupted all over the state as no flockmaster will be rash enough to shear his sheep in this kind of weather.

Many wires were down in this city and the street car and light and telephone companies are having a hard time of it. Telephone communication with Logan, Tooele and some other points was impossible on account of the wires being down. And Richfield was the farthest point south with which communication could be had. At Mant, there was six inches of snow, at Park City eight inches fell, and that was greatly aided by the day. Heber City had six inches; Provo seven inches; Salt Lake over a foot and Ogden but two inches.

FIERCE FIGHT WITH SOLDIERS.

Riot Was Almost Precipitated When C. H. Moyer Arrived In Denver City.

Denver, April 21.—Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, will appear before the supreme court this afternoon at 2 o'clock for the hearing on habeas corpus proceedings. It is expected that the proceedings of this afternoon will be brief. The first matter to come up is the filing of the answer and return to the writ by Adl. Gen. Bell and Capt. Bulkeley Wells through their attorneys, H. J. Hersey and John W. Waldron. The attorneys for Mr. Moyer will then decide what to do with the answer, whether to file a motion to quash it or ask leave to reply. The supreme court will make an order as to the time for filing the briefs, and will fix a date for the presenting of oral arguments. This it is believed, will cover the entire program for the afternoon, unless something very unexpected should develop.
