ROME, 5.—There is an authoritative announcement that Signor Blonco has been appointed to succeed the Chevalier Corti at Washington.

DUBLIN, 5.—The closing festivities in honor of the Americans took place to-day. This morning the party, accompanied by Maj. Leech and the members of the Lord Mayor's family and other distinguished guests from Dublin, made an excursion through Wicklow and the Hortes. At Power's Court waterfall a banquet was given in a large tent erected for the affair. Alderman Manning presided, and proposed the toast—"To our American visitors." General Dakin responded, thanking the Irish people for the welcome everywhere extended to his companions and himself, and concluded by wishing the Irish team victory everywhere except over the Americans. Alderman Manning and Major Leech were each presented with a silver flask in the name of the American team, and as they were presented three cheers and a "tiger" were given. The team will have an official reception at Belfast to-morrow, and a ball will be given in their honor in the evening. On Wednesday afternoon the American team will compete at Clondeborke, in a match with short rifles, each man firing 15 shots at a range of 1,000 yards. The prize is a silver cup, presented by the Mayor and citizens of Belfast.

LONDON, 6.—The morning papers say that the report in Paris yesterday, that the French ambassador in Berlin had been recalled, had the effect of flattening the Bourse.

Parker, Allen and Raleigh, prominent Congregational ministers here, have signed a declaration which is open for signatures till Friday, to the effect that having watched the progress of the Beecher-Tilton trial, they thank God they can express judgment and feeling entirely favorable to Beecher's Christian conduct.

At the banquet in the Crystal Palace last night, Schenck, in proposing the health of President Grant, dwelt on the pride and attachment the Americans had for their country. He said they were loyal because the constitution and government are of their own choice, and they were loyal to the executive for the same reason. He alluded to the wonderful material progress of the United States, and said that both England and America had derived benefit from the declaration of independence. Friendly feelings are now the rule between the people of the two countries. M. T. Owens referred to the late civil war, and said that the Queen never turned against America in the day of trouble.

Among those at the American banquet last night were the son of President Grant, Sir Frederick Perkins, and Henry Richard, a member of Parliament. The Standard says that none but an American would venture on such a display of bad taste as the banquet, and none but the English would have permitted it. It is hardly decent for any loyal Englishman to participate in the celebration of English disasters. The American insurrection was about the most unprovoked rebellion in history in present times. Forbearance and conciliation on the English side are returned by the Americans with insult and abuse, which are only encountered by cringing and flattery, and this Dean Stanley calls reconciliation and peace-making. Among the Americans there are but few, not actually participating in the general system of public plunder in their country, who would not joyfully exchange their institutions for the order, honesty and loyalty of this empire, from which a century ago they made their insane revolt.

Notice to the Public!

THREE YEARS' EXPERIENCE HAS TAUGHT US THAT WE CANNOT DEAL IN TWO different makes of wagons with satisfaction to the manufacturers, ourselves and the public. Therefore, we shall hereafter only buy and sell the FISH BROTHERS WAGONS.

They have been so steadily and deservedly growing in favor, that we find it next to impossible to sell any other wagon. Ask any person who has bought one for the last two years, and he will tell you he has never had a tire or spoke loose, or a wheel broken or out of repair. He will tell you that the Fish Brothers Wagons run the easiest, and are the best in all respects. The balance of our stock of Mitchell Wagons on hand we offer for sale at cost. We thank the public for its generous patronage in the past, and shall try to deserve your kind favors in the future. We know from the letters written us, and the thousands of words of commendation received from purchasers, that in offering you the FISH BROTHERS WAGON we offer you

The Best Wagon on Wheels!

NOTICE TO AGENTS.

We sell no wagons on commission. Fish Brothers' Wagons don't need to go round the country begging for purchasers. We can sell outright all the wagons the manufacturers can furnish us and supply their other demands, and when a wagon leaves our yard, it is sold.

Yours very respectfully,

JOHN W. LOWELL & CO.

Salt Lake City, March 4th 1875.
