BREVITIES.

A coffin manufacturer has this on his business card, "If you try our coffins once, you will never use any others."

"Had you, sir," said Henry Erskine to a dilatory carpenter, "been there to build the ark, we should not have had the flood yet."

An English writer in speaking of Iceland says: "There is little crime in an island where there is scarcely anything to steal."

"Metaphysics drove your father to his grave. Poor man he drank whisky to keep other people from getting drunk on it."

A patron of a poor hotel in the country said that everything he obtained there was cold but the water, and everything was sour but the pickles.

"If I save ten cents a day from my drinks," ruminated old Rednose, it will be $36 50 a year, and in fifty years it will be $1,825, and then I can marry Mary. Dear Mary!"

They have in Milwaukee just now what they call "the Taylor scandal." But as there is no woman mixed up in it, of course it is unworthy the attention of any Christian community.

Because poor Mr. Williams, of Topeka, Kan., wouldn't put on a mourning band on the occasion of his wife's death, his officious neighbors dragged him through a pond and shaved his head.

A Bethel (Co.) notice requests the voters "to attend a school meeting for the purpose of electing officers for the insuing year, &c., &c.," and is signed by "—— ——, Committy mann."

To extract ink from cotton, silk and woolen goods, saturate the spot with spirits of turpentine and let it remain for several hours; then rub it between the hands. It will crumble away without injuring either the color or the texture of the article.—Ex.

This advertisement is published in the Fort Collins (Col.) Sentinel: "Wanted, about fifty unmarried ladies, between the ages of eighteen and forty, sound of limb, wind and bustle, by fifty axcrious bachelors and widowers of this city. Husbands and homes are guaranteed. No crusaders need apply."

The characteristic of the umbrella is its power of changing shapes. You can have a bran new silk with an ivory or rosewood handle at any public gathering; within three hours it will turn itself into a light blue or a faded brown cotton somewhat less in size than a circus tent, with a handle like a telegraph pole and five fractional ribs.

At a meeting in London to receive a report from the missionaries sent to discover the tribes of Israel, Lord H—was asked to take the chair. "I take," he replied, "a great interest in your researches, gentlemen. The fact is, I have borrowed money from all the Jews now known, and if you can find a new set I shall feel very much obliged."

The Jews of Moldavia and the Ukraine prepare from honey a sort of sugar, which is solid and as white as snow, which they send to the distilleries at Dantzic. They expose the honey to frost for three weeks, where neither sun nor snow can reach it, and in a vessel which is a bad conductor of caloric, by which process the honey becomes clear and hard, like sugar.

Do the people of Colorado know that for twelve entire days, during the present month, the blue vault of Heaven that overhangs the boundaries of Colorado has not been flecked or dimmed by a single cloud. Can Italy say as much?—Denver Tribune.

What if it can't? Who wants to see the glaring, blazing, red hot sun all the day long every day? Clouds are welcome any hot day.

A dashing youth went up to an elderly 6th Avenue news-dealer and claimed acquaintance. "You don't know me?" asked the young man, emphasizing the word me. "Why, I am James, the son of Mr. Johnson. Father took papers of you years before he died, and I have ever since; but we're moved up town. By the way, I believe I owe you a dollar on the last quarter." The old gentleman's pulse quickened, he adjusted his spectacles, took another look at the youth, and remembered. His youthful debtor produced a ten-dollar bank note, the debt was settled and they bade each other a courteous adieu. The note was counterfeit.—N. Y. Sun.
