He could hardly work, but never a word did he say to those about him of the foyous moments he was to realize Saturday morning. Meantime, a delivery boy bad ap-peared at the Doe home. This was in the third act, showing an interior view of the Doe domicile. The delivery boy does not appear on the stage, a stage-hand ringing the property door bell and handing a property box through the half-opened portal to Mrs. Doe. She noted the name on the box, but did not dare open il. So she took it in and iald it on the big chair in the sitting room to await the coming of the master of the home on the 6 o'clock car. car. John Doe arrives! Toon his arrival he brought with him the same smile he wore when he first read the invitation, or. It least one just like the one he wore then. He kissed his wife with the same vim he used to indulge in when he was on his honeymoon and straightway betook himself into the sitting room and thence to the bedroom, not pausing long enough in any one spot to let the good wife get in a word edgewise. Dashing his office coat and vest off and jumping into his new swallowtall end waistooat to match, with the stated pink shirt showing in vast ex-pane through the new vest. "Well, I guess we will go to the breakfast. Me and Taft will both be there," he said proudly as he polsed gracefully on the threshold of the din-ing room, where the good wife was sated persuing McCall's Bazaar. In an effort to find a pattern for a new skirt to go with the brown waist which did vailant service last fall. formal morning breaktast and so she was prepared to give Doe a little infor-mation on the subject. "But, John dear, you shouldn't wear evening clothes in the morning Rich-ard says that the only men who wear evening clothes in the morning are those who have unduly prolonged the night and show up at three moons on the front porch with a portion of their parcel left. And, besides, if you have all those new clothes, I gness I will have to do with my old skirt and make last year's hat over." This was suid with that faraway, dis-interested, wisiful look a woman knows how and when to wear. John's face was a pathetic slight to see. And then the curtain goes down for the fourth act, which is the next morn-ing with the same stage as in the first act. John and Mary are sayin indulg-ing in the festive ham and eggs and coffee. CUTICURA CURED HIM -NEVER TROUBLED SINCE "My little granusen wnen a year old had eczema all over his whole body and head. It lasted hearly three years. He had big sores on his head and the mat-ter would run from them. He suffered from the itching and burning and would scratch until be would bleed. He was a perfect sight. We tried every kind of salve and soap but they did no good. After spending hundreds of dollars, and naving several doctors, which did him no good, we saw the Cuticura Remedies ad-vertised and we got some to see if they would help him. We used the Cuticura Soap to wash him with and then applied the Cuticura Gintment. They cured him nicely. He is now five and has pever been bothered with it since.
