AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—A new play along problem lines and a big play, in spite of its hideousness, is "The Clansman," which was presented before an overwhein ing audience at the theater last night. Ont in the west, where we have no negro problem, or if we have, where it is yet in its infancy, the play can-not be expected to make the record that it has elsewhere, especially in the south, where it literally swpt all bloce it. It is boldly announced by its au-thor, Mr. Dixon, for whom it made a fortune in its form as a novel, that it is "an answer to Uncle Tom's Cable." If it is not an answer, certainly ft is the antithesis to that story and it deals with some subjects, and, hints at others, which ought to bave neither place in print or on the stage. The story is that of the blocy beneath the rule of "carpet baggers," and bitterer than all, to see themseives out-voted by their former slaves. This condition, the author tells us, gave rise to the imagination, after all we have rad of the dolags of that hand, to be asked to accept a leader of it as the hero. Still, the sufferings of himself and his people are so well depicted that it is possible not to sympathice with the impossible not to sympathice with Theater-A new play along problem it is impossible not to sympathize with them, and out of these situations the author has evolved a thriling play. It is becautifully staged, with pictur-esque southern effects, and with the pretty costumes belonging to the period Just after the war. It is full of "thrills," and even while some of the darkey comedy episodes are long drawn out, the charm of the sketches is unconiable. Is underliable. The big cast of people is made up of the good, the indifferent, and the rat, distributed about in equal proportions. The eredit for the best work of the night falls to Mr. Wilcon as the equhight falls to Mr. Wilcon as the edu-cated mulatto, elevated to the position of lieutenant governor, to Mr. Ritchie as the "Clausman," and Mr. Maxwell as the old fashioned negro. The two frightened darkey soldlers gave a clever sketch, and the ladies were acceptable without being brilliant, the negress of Maude Durand being best. The general effect would have been greatly improv-ed by strengthening some of the minor parts. The bill runs out the week, and no doubt will maintain its prodigious box doubt with the office record.

Orpheum-The capital bill being presented this week is in its closing nights. The usual matince will be givnights. The en tomorrow.

Grand—"A Millionaire Tramp" opened a half week engagement at the Grand last evening and was thorough-ly enjoyed by an audience that filled the house. The play is about evenly di-vided between the pathetic and the hu-morous and is one of the most inter-esting of its kind that has visited this house in a long time. The company is considerably above the average, the work of Duke Volle and Lorenzo Mus-zar being especially creditable. The Softwork of Duke volue and Lorenzo Mus-zar being especially creditable. The former took the part of J. Pierpont, the multionaire tramp, while Mr. Muszar had the role of Dr. John Staley, physi-clan and all around villain. James C. Wright, comedian, introduced a number of intrasting spacialities.

The next bill at the Grand will be "The Pride of New York," an aggrega-tion of singers, dancers and perform-ing menagerie in general.

Lyric—Tonight affords the last change to s20 the excellent program provided by the cameraphone. A com-plete change goes on tomorrow after-

DESTITUTE FAMILY. Mrs. A. F. Graham and her two little children, living at 649 south Eighth East street, are in a destitute condition and for several days have been re-celving assistance from the Salvation Army. About a week ago, it is alleged, the husband deserted his wife and chil-dren and has not been heard of since. The family was without fuel or food and when their condition was reported to the Salvation Army. Ensign Baldwin at once made an investigation and gave what relief he could. He says the army officials will gladly call for food and clothing if any clizen desires to assist the unfortunate woman and her children, and will teleprone the head-quarters to that effect. ion and for several days have been re-
