The Orpheus club will hold an important meeting this evening, in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, when programs and plans for the coming season will be talked over. It is proposed to have the club visit Denver and sing there some time this winter.

Mrs. Sarah McDonald of Alpine was taken violently ill yesterday at the afternoon meeting of the Relief society, and was removed to a drug store, where Dr. Wilcox worked over her for nearly an hour. She was then returned to her home and taken away by her friends.

Ferdinand Wilschke, one of the oldest miners in Utah, died at St. Mark's hospital yesterday afternoon, from appendicitis at the age of 64. He was a native of Germany and came to this country in 1871. He leaves a wife and nine children. The funeral was held this afternoon.

Yom Kippur, the festival of the Jewish new year, ended with sunset last evening. The services at the Congregation Montefiore in this city were especially interesting, as the order of service and the hymns were in Hebrew. The service was the same as obtained at the ancient Jewish festival.

A. J. Gustin of Kearney, Neb., father of Mrs. Joel L. Priest and Frank J. Gustin of this city, died last evening at Lincoln, Neb., from heart troubles. Mrs. Priest and her brother left this morning to attend the funeral. The deceased was known to many business men in this city.

The lowering in the price of street car tickets has given an immense stimulus to the sale of the same, and the office issuing them is kept busy. There are indications that were the price reduced further, the business in street car tickets would be even more brisk.

Workmen are busy erecting in front of the old First Methodist church building on Third South street, preparatory to erecting the business structure which will fill out the front flush with the sidewalk. The price of the church edifice will be utilized as far as possible. Except in the few places where the walls are cracked, they are remarkably firm and solid.

Mr. Edgell has stated that he thinks the price of wool has not yet reached its climax, and that speculators in the great market centers have as much to do with the rise in price as the war in the Orient and the failure of the Australian supply.

A traveling drug man remarks that Salt Lake takes more than its share of drugs and druggists' sundries than in any city outside of New York and Chicago. Salt Lake drug men, he says, have the drug business down to a fine point and are willing to sell tooth brushes and the like at a price that does not invite department store competition, as is the case in many other towns where the drug men cannot apparently adapt themselves to the new order of things.

A Daredevil Ride
often ends in a sad accident. To keep accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Incapacitated consumption is cured by Foley's Honey and Tar, but we do not hold out false hopes to consumptives by claiming that it will cure this dread disease in the advanced stages; but if the lungs are not too far gone Foley's Honey and Tar will give comfort and relief. Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. guarantees them at 50c.
