SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 29.—After the introduction of bills and petitions, one of the latter being a petition General Nelson A. Miles, that $5,000 be appropriated for the St. Louis may be given to two German girls captured and sold several months by the Indians, the Senate resumed the consideration of the bill for the restoration of the Secretary of the Interior to deposit in the U. S. Treasury all sums now held by him, or which he may hereafter receive, as trustee of the various Indian tribes, on account of the reimbursement of U. S. bonds, or other stocks, and securities belonging to the Indian Trust Fund. The bill also provides that the president shall pay 5 per cent. per annum interest on all sums so deposited; passed.

Mitchell presented a petition of citizens of Oregon, asking that the old Fort in Oregon may be turned over for use as an asylum, referred to the committee on military affairs. Also a petition for pensions for Mexican veterans; referred to the committee on pensions.

Senator Foster moved that the five-minute rule be enforced during the debate on the bill; adopted.

Wallace, of Pa., spoke in opposition to the restoration of the appropriations cut down by the House.

The Senate then proceeded to consider the amendments proposed by the committee on appropriations, all of which were agreed to.
The various amendments were explained as follows: That the pay of extending laws only, creating no consultants and increasing no salaries, only restoring what the House had appropriated.

The bill was then passed on a yeas and nays vote, yeas 55, nays 17.

On motion of Morton the resolution for the appointment of a committee to investigate the alleged frauds in the recent elections of Mississippi was taken up and made the unfinished business.

The Senate went into executive session, and at 4:30 adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 29.—Randall, chairman of the committee on appropriations, introduced a bill to authorize the restoration of the appropriations cut down by the House.

The various amendments were ex-
sultants and increasing no salaries,

The next amendment was the one offered by Hewitt, repealing sections 1 and 2 of the resumption act, and directing the sale of silver bullion at the market price in the Treasury, but allowing the issue of the silver coin now on hand.

Randall opposed the amendment, and it was rejected.

Numerous other amendments were offered, but all were rejected.
The House took a recess till 7:30, the evening session being for the consideration of legislative bills.

Evening Session.

At the evening session, Cox in the chair, the bill for the equalization of bounties was made a special order for next Wednesday; the House then went into committee of the whole on the legislative appropriation bill, the question being on the several amendments to the item of the salary of senators. The first vote was on the amendment of Douglas, of Va., reducing the salary of senators to $5,000; rejected.

The next vote was on the amendment of O'Brien, to increase the salary to $5,000; rejected, yeas 55, nays 100. The item was then passed as reported in the bill, at $4,500.

Various propositions were made in regard to the retirement of moving to abolish it altogether, the course of the discussion on mileage, a question in which many of the members were interested. The attention to the provision on the statute book which has been allowed to become a dead letter, requiring the members to report to the secretary of the House the day of their absence from the regular sessions of the House, and the members of the House, and the member, Richard Schickel, elected to fill a vacancy, who for less than three months services had received nearly $4,000. He moved an amendment providing that the pay of any member so elected to fill a vacancy shall only begin from the date of his election.

All the amendments to the millage item were rejected, including Foster's, on which the vote was 73 to 110.

The next paragraph was one appropriating a hundred thousand dollars for the various officers, clerks, etc., of the Senate.

An amendment offered by Robbins, to give a permanent position to the messenger in the Senate, to a Union soldier who had lost both legs at Gettysburg, was made the subject of debate, in which there was more effort at comedy than anything else. The paragraph disposing of the paragraph the House adjourned.
