

TEMESCAL CANYON MURDER MYSTERY

Anton Besold, Charged With Killing His Wife, Arrested In Washington.

IT IS A CELEBRATED CASE.

Arrested in a Bavarian by Birth and Conducted a Meat Market in Los Angeles.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Anton Orter Besold was arrested here today at the request of the California authorities charged with murder committed in Los Angeles. He agreed to return to California without requisition papers.

Los Angeles, Sept. 20.—Telegraphic news was received by Sheriff White from the police authorities at Washington, D. C., today of the arrest there of Anton Besold, indicted by the grand jury of Los Angeles county for the murder of his wife, Claudine Besold, whose body was found in Temescal canyon, near Santa Monica, more than six weeks ago. Besold was employed as a butcher at Santa Monica before his disappearance early in the summer, and the case furnished one of the famous murder mysteries of the western coast.

According to the sheriff's advice, Besold was arrested while calling for mail at the Washington postoffice under an assumed name. Not until today was it publicly known that the day was on the track of Besold, who was identified as Mrs. Besold. The body was found in the canyon for several weeks before it was discovered. It now appears that the sheriff's office quietly worked up the case, satisfied itself of the identity of the body, secured an indictment from the grand jury and arrested Besold's movements through the state. He was in Chicago for some time but recently left there. He was taken to Washington where he was held in custody today. While Mrs. Besold, who is a Bavarian, is a part of age, conducted a market. His wife was an American woman 20 years old. Deputy Sheriff Gilbert Jones tonight for Sacramento for requisition papers, and will then proceed in force to Washington to bring back the alleged murderer.

NEGRO CONVICT EXECUTED. Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—Butler Stiles, 40 years old, who killed Guard H. Steward, in an attempt to escape from the Ohio penitentiary Dec. 31, 1904, was electrocuted in the prison at 10 minutes past midnight.

FUNNY OF CHAMBERLAIN. New York, Sept. 21.—Chamberlains, of which there was a short crop last year, promise to be plentiful this season. Wholesale prices are now $5.50 to $6 for 100 quarts, as against $28 in April for the lot of the 1905 crop.

ESTHER MITCHELL AND MRS. CREFFIELD

Commission Appointed to Inquire Into Their Case Holds They Are Insane.

IRRESPONSIBLE CRIMINALLY.

Report Says They Belong to a Class Of Lunatics Dangerous to be At Large.

Seattle, Sept. 20.—The commission named by Judge Prater of the superior court to inquire into the alleged insanity of Esther Mitchell and Mrs. Creffield, charged with the murder of George Mitchell, today reported through Dr. Kenneth Turner, chairman of the board, that as a result of its labors the commission is unanimously of the opinion that the subjects of this investigation were at the time of the commission of the crime charged to them, and are now, suffering from a form of insanity commonly classified as paranoia, which has its origin in structural defects of the nervous system. Further, that because of this disease they were at the time of the commission of the crime charged possessed of such a deranged mentality as to make them unable to distinguish between right and wrong, and therefore irresponsible criminally. Further, that these individuals belong to a class of lunatics dangerous to be at large, who persistently follow their morbid inclinations, regardless of law or ethics, and should be placed under restraint in an institution for the proper treatment of such cases.

Separate reports were made in each of the cases, but they are exactly the same, with the exception of the names inserted. The reports were not signed, but the attorneys stipulated in open court that they were to be considered so. After the reports had been read the prosecuting attorney declared he was not satisfied with it, and in the name of the state would oppose it in every way, and first of all would take an appeal. Judge Prater stated that tomorrow morning he will sign the commitment of both women, to be sent to the state asylum until such time as the attorney's office can take the matter up. He declared that the only way an appeal can be taken, in his judgment, is to secure a writ from the supreme court, forcing the lower court to refrain from sending the women to Oregon until the matter can be decided. Following this statement, Atty. Clark, representing Esther Mitchell, asked the court to strike the case against the young woman from the trial calendar, as he held the appeal could not be perfected by Sept. 24, the time set for the hearing of the case. This was objected to by the prosecutor, who declared that if the appeal is not perfected the case can be heard. The entire matter was laid over until tomorrow morning, when rulings will be made on the questions submitted and the orders and commitments will be signed.

When the result of the examination and the findings of the board was told to Mrs. Creffield by her father, O. V. Hurt, the woman said: "I am glad for your sake." Esther Mitchell had nothing to say.

DEMOCRATS OPPOSED TO INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE.

New York, Sept. 20.—An address signed by the "allied" Democratic organizations of New York to Democratic delegates and voters of New York state, calling for a straight Democratic ticket and platform at the state convention at Buffalo in flat opposition to the Independence league, and endorsing Congressman William Sulzer for the nomination, was issued to the newspapers today.

The address bears the signatures of the following Democratic organizations comprising the allied clubs: The National Democratic club of the city of New York; the Jefferson league, representing the committee of citizens; the American Anti-Trust league; the Bryan Democratic league; and the Federation of Workmen of the state of New York.

They are attested by William P. Mitchell, chairman, and Henry B. Martin, secretary. William P. Mitchell, who has been in charge of the Sulzer campaign headquarters at the Victoria hotel, was seen tonight at the National Democratic club. He stated that the address was fully authorized by the organizations whose names are attached, and that the effect of issuing such an address had been under consideration for several days at meetings of delegates from the various organizations. The most significant signature is that of the National Democratic club, of which Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and Congressman Sullivan are prominent members.

The heading of the address is as follows: "Sulzer and Adam—Democracy and Victory—an appeal by the allied Democratic clubs, societies, leagues and organizations of the state of New York to the delegates to the Buffalo Democratic convention and to the Democratic electors of the state of New York."

The address calls upon Democrats throughout the state to save the party from "the foes of Democracy who seek only its disruption and plot only its betrayal."

The address says in part: "We appeal to you to gather at Buffalo and bring all influence possible to bear upon the delegates to that convention to see to it that an old-fashioned Democratic platform is written and adopted; a platform that will mean just what it says and will say just what it means, and that will define the issues in this campaign."

"We appeal to the loyal Democrats of this state to use all their efforts and influence to the end that the delegates to the Buffalo state convention shall nominate a straight Democratic ticket composed of men who are now Democrats, who always have been Democrats and who always will be Democrats."

"Let those who differ with us and who belong to other parties stand for their platform and with their organizations and go their several ways; and let the sovereign people of this state decide between us and them by their votes on election day."

The address concludes with an uncompromising indorsement of Congressman William Sulzer as the man best fitted and most likely to carry the state against all parties.

MORE FREEDOM FOR THE RUSSIANS

Laws to be Promulgated Practically Removing All Disabilities On Dissident Faiths.

THEY WILL RECEIVE SANCTION

If Practices Are Not Criminal or Immoral—Rights of the Jews To be Enlarged.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 20.—The Associated Press has been informed by a member of the cabinet that within a few days laws of religious freedom, removing practically every restriction and disability under which the dissident faiths in Russia have labored, will be promulgated. The first, including measures for the distribution of land, already has been published.

The new laws are in effect an amplification and confirmation of the emperor's ukase of April 4, 1905, which although it establishes a large measure of toleration and enables thousands of dissenters to leave the orthodox church and enroll themselves under the faiths of their choice, was not deemed fully effective. This was partly owing to the failure of the elaborate supplementary legislation needed, but chiefly to the arbitrary interpretation of the emperor's ukase by the principal authorities who construed it as they saw fit. In some cases the workings of the ukase were almost entirely nullified.

Under the new laws, which will be published while no parliament is sitting, the various sects unless they indulge in criminal or immoral practices, may receive upon application the sanction of the government. This will confer upon their clergy practically the same status as is now enjoyed by orthodox priests. They will have equal rights with the orthodox church in the matter of erecting school and church buildings and the receiving of proselytes. "In fact," an orthodox priest said to the Associated Press, "they will be more free than the orthodox church, which in the state church, and subject to a mass of state regulations."

The cabinet will next take up the project of a law enlarging the rights of Jews, which has just been elaborated by a commission.

This measure has been somewhat restricted, the administration believing that full equality, in the present state of public opinion in Russia, can and should be given only by parliament.

The administration after several months' administration, has determined against granting compensation for the foreign property destroyed during the Moscow revolt. The claims arising from this cause amounting to $25,000. The deputation of Jews that visited Moscow and referred to the predictions of an anti-Jewish attack at Warsaw, which are being circulated in the Russian and foreign press, was informed by the premier that according to reports from Gen. Skalon there was not the slightest reason to expect a Jewish riot. Nevertheless he ordered that all necessary measures be taken to prevent an outbreak. The premier expressed the hope and said he was confident that Siedle would end the history of anti-Jewish disorders. While refusing, in the absence of complete information, to discuss the doings of the soldiers, the premier said he had no desire to shield them. Their exhausted condition, he continued, coupled with nervousness resulting from frequent attacks on patrols, was accountable for breaches of discipline.

FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT.

Charlotte Schmidlapp Killed in Schwab's Machine.

Cincinnati, Sept. 20.—In the wreck of Charles Schwab's automobile at St. Martin de Croix, France, J. G. Schmidlapp, president of the United Savings & Trust company of this city, was injured and his daughter Charlotte killed, according to a cablegram received here today. Mr. Schmidlapp, who is widely known in financial circles throughout the country, was touring France with his daughter and Mrs. Lee Ault in an automobile belonging to Charles M. Schwab, former president of the United States Steel company.

Seven years ago Mr. Schmidlapp's wife and another daughter were killed in a railway wreck in this country. His health has not been good for some months, and he has been touring Europe in the hope of regaining his strength.

NEW TREATY WITH SAN DOMINGO PROBABLE.

Washington, Sept. 20.—A new treaty with Santo Domingo probably will be negotiated. By the proposed agreement the feature of the treaty previously negotiated which failed of ratification by the United States senate very likely will be eliminated. By the terms of the proposed convention the United States will not act as fiscal agent of Santo Domingo in full capacity; that is, it will not act as paymaster of Santo Domingo in the liquidation of that country's indebtedness. The plan suggested by Frederico Velasquez, minister of foreign affairs and commerce of Santo Domingo, was with the approval of the officials of the state department. Out of this will grow the negotiations for the new treaty. Under the proposed convention the United States will continue to collect the customs revenues of the island republic and out of these revenues create a sinking fund for the liquidation of the foreign indebtedness of Santo Domingo. By the convention Santo Domingo will obligate itself to this country to use a specified proportion of the customs receipts for the payment of its indebtedness, but the United States will not act as paymaster. It is believed at the state department that the elimination of one or two of the features in the former treaty to which the senate objected will result in the ratification of the proposed convention when it is submitted to the senate.

MUTUAL LIFE MATTERS.

New York, Sept. 20.—Albert S. Bard, counsel for the "selected fusion ticket" of the Mutual Life Insurance company, made public a letter tonight which he sent to President Peabody of the company in reply to a letter in which Mr. Peabody said that until he knew more about who was back of the "fusion ticket" and its purposes, he could not consent to serve as a candidate on it. Mr. Bard's reply, in part, follows: "As to the character and personality of the movers in the matter, I emphatically assure you that this ticket was not originated for the purpose of aiding in the election of either of the other tickets. It is not a 'trick ticket,' but an earnest effort to accomplish the best for the company. The persons behind the ticket represent managers, agents and policyholders of the Mutual Life Insurance company, but it would be premature to announce at the present time the names of the individuals supporting the movement, even for your purposes, and I am not at liberty to do so. You can see that to do this at the present time would be to give the McCurdy element in the board of trustees who are in the position of employers of the managers and agents and in control of the machinery of the company itself, an unfair advantage solely by reason of their power and without respect to the merits of the issue."

CASHIER VAN AUKEER ESCAPES.

Portland, Or., Sept. 20.—A special to the Oregonian from Rainier, Or., states that C. S. Van Auker, cashier of the Rainier State bank, which was looted Sept. 3, tonight made his escape from Sheriff White, who had him in custody. Shortly before the Portland train was due Van Auker left the sheriff for a moment on the pretense of paying a bill. He concealed himself until the train was leaving, when he boarded it. A telegraphic warrant was sent to Portland to apprehend Van Auker when he arrives there.

JUDGE LINDSEY FOR GOVERNOR.

Denver, Sept. 20.—Judge Ben R. Lindsey was nominated tonight for governor of Colorado at a convention of Independents made up of Republicans, Democrats and others. The matter of nominating an entire ticket was left to a committee to be appointed by the chairman of the convention, N. S. Gandy of Colorado Springs.

Change of LIFE

This perfectly natural change in a woman's life is too often accompanied by painful, distressing symptoms due to female troubles and slight irregularities in her delicate organism.

The woman who passes this change without the development of tumors, cancers, or chronic invalidism enters a new field of happiness and usefulness in the domestic circle and in social activity. Her physical system should receive the necessary assistance at this critical period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

is exactly suited to woman's needs at this time. It strengthens and cures all derangements of the female organism, it overcomes the hot flashes and dizzy fainting spells, and all other distressing symptoms.

I Was in Bed for Three Weeks

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered a great deal during Change of Life. For eleven weeks I had hemorrhages and it made me so weak I was in bed for three weeks. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, although it was against my doctor's will and I had to hide it. I took it regularly until I had taken five bottles, and it brought me out all right, a perfectly strong, well woman. Any one can tell how healthy I am by looking at my picture, and any one can write to me or my daughter about our wonderful cures.

Mrs. F. M. MUSHKUM, East Chicago, Ind.

The whole secret of safety at this time of life is through preparation before the change begins. Fortify the system with a course of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This wonderful medicine has carried thousands of women through this danger period.

No such helpful advice to women who are sick can be had anywhere as will be received free by addressing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.
