

DENVER THE PLACE.

The Colorado People Secure the Next Grand Biennial.

TWO PROTESTS ARE ENTERED.

Salt Lake Amateurs Win the Grand Cash Prize—Denver Comes in for Second Place—A Great Audience.

The Cambrian society this morning met and decided on Denver as the place where the next Biennial shall be held. C. F. Davis was elected assistant secretary from Idaho. His residence is Boise.

The by-laws were unduly referred to a committee, which will report at a special meeting to be held April 6, 1887, at which incorporation will also be considered.

The letters from Denver applying for the next session of the Biennial, were read and Denver's claims very ably presented by Hrs. Lloyd Jones and others. Montana's interests were presented by J. M. Loyden. T. L. Moore, and H. L. Lewis. But Denver was chosen.

The program, time, arrangement and number of prizes, the selections to be rendered, were all left to the Denver committee. The committee on arrangements and expenses, the committee on the selection of the following officers: Meeker, Elmer, Morris, John James, Harry L. Evans, W. N. Williams and D. L. Davis.

President Evans' stepmother was given a vote of thanks for her services in the management of the Biennial, while Secretary James was voted a small sum in appreciation of his services in that office.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the executive committee to prepare a design for an insignia for the society.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

TWO PROBLEMS FILLED.

One from the State Band, the Other from the Left Chair.

Secretary James has received a letter from the Buell band protesting against the awarding of the medal in the Divisional band. The band, which the Buell band desired, and who affirm, are that the Dentahill was not a military band, and that the membership was made up of borrowed players. They ask that the medal be withheld for the purpose of future competition. They may or may not, however, do this.

The Dentahill band has answered the protest, denying all the allegations, stating facts and leaving the matter to the裁决 of their chief.

Another protest was received from the conductor of the Left chair, averring that the Major choir was selected from the entire country, and considers that it is an injustice to his choir. Both protests were referred to the local judicaries, committee for the most expeditious action.

TONIGHT'S CONCERT.

The Program includes winners of prizes in the Biennial.

The program for the great concert this evening will include a solo, "Watching," by Mr. Webster; the "Bleeding Love Song," by James Jones; Arthur L. Thrasher; "Aria of Ecstasy," by the Tenor, Charles Pike; Charles Pike, in a soprano, and the two successful ladies' ensembles, the renowned Denver band, the Orpheus male chorus, Miss Cooper and other favorites.

THE GREAT CHORAL CONTEST.

Salt Lake Amateurs' Chorus has the First Prize of $200—Denver Gets the Second.

It was unanimous through that Ias-Gov. Arthur L. Thrasher as he called to order the third session of the Biennial, last night. The great St. George Hall was filled to its capacity, an estimate placing the number present at 12,000 persons.

Seated on the stand were Governor West, ex-Governor Thomas, Gov. O.

Brewster, Walter J. Lewis, C. J. Thomas, W. N. Williams, Elmer Morris, and others.

It was voted that the number of the badge in the building not be increased by two, making four of the favorite instruments of the World pipe.

"The Star Spangled Banner," as an opening number, was rendered by Mr. Watson, of Berwyn, Pennsylvania, the vast audience joining in the shout. The right and the music were soul-stirring.

GOVERNOR WEST.

Governor West was introduced by ex-Governor Thomas, as the chairman of the session. He said the only he was called upon to speak was to advise the members of the Board of Education at their next meeting.

The good state of the Biennial shall be held in this city as the place to which it had this grand musical festival was very apparent. Just as an adjournment to propose and present such a feast as successfully carried out.

When in all the world could be found a more suitable occasion, and where is the place more congenial, than the one we have. All details were attended to and all conditions favorable. The adjudicators were especially commended for their work and the artistic execution which they did.
