

HOKE SMITH ON CAMPAIGN ISSUES

Says Mr. Roosevelt's Speech of Acceptance Was Conservative. His Letter Was Not.

TOUCHED ON THE RACE ISSUE.

Attitude of Republican Party and its Candidate Threatens Peace of a Section of the Union.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 3.—Hoke Smith of Georgia, secretary of the interior in Cleveland's second cabinet, spoke on the issues of the campaign here tonight, his audience entirely filling the academy of music. Mr. Smith, who is a native of this state, was enthusiastically received.

Mr. Smith said that the record of the Democratic party was not one of opposition, but of construction, and declared that a thorough study of our country's history need bring no fear to Democrats. He continued:

"The speech of Mr. Roosevelt accepting the nomination for president was conservative. It might almost have come from Judge Parker. The letter of acceptance was more like the rough rider. In the first instance he followed his policy of 'speak easy.' In the second instance he was carrying the 'big stick.'"

In his letter of acceptance Mr. Roosevelt sets the pace for Republican impudence in the shape of self-praise and self-assertion, claiming everything for himself and party, charging anything against his opponents which his fancy suggests.

He attacks the Democratic attitude with reference to the gold standard. He charges that the course of our party to the gold standard has been one of expediency, and he refers to the silence of our platform on this subject. He was forgetful in this of his own declaration in 1896 when, speaking of the Republican platform about to be adopted, he declared:

"Refusal to be free silver means that the party is resolutely against it, and the party must rest content with this state of affairs and spare the minority humiliation by refraining from denouncing in so many words the free coinage of silver."

"He ignores the fact that only a few years ago the leaders of both parties, with a few exceptions, favored the free coinage of silver. The maintenance of the gold standard should not be given as a credit to the Republicans. It belongs to the administration of Grover Cleveland."

Mr. Smith said that the Democratic party proposed to stop the reckless extravagance of the present administration; proposed a genuine effort to accomplish reciprocity with Canada and with other countries where practicable; to reform the tariff by a conservative modification of the Dingley bill and to give the Philippine islands the same treatment accorded Cuba.

Continuing, Mr. Smith said: "The attitude of the Republican party and its candidate for president threatens the peace and tranquillity of a great section of the Union, the section known as the south. This section was already confronted with a serious problem, the presence of $900,000 negroes, the large majority of whom need education in their daily walks of life from their white neighbors. The daily aid is required on account of the superior qualities of the white race. Any effort to force quality will necessarily injure the negroes as well as disorganize the nation and obstruct agricultural and commercial growth of the south must take place."

"The harm already accomplished by Roosevelt and the Republicans is serious. The south is contributing a full part of the commercial growth of the country. A blow against one section injures all sections. We should respectfully ask those interested in southern investments to reflect upon this before they give approval to the present course of the Republican party and its candidate for president."

MR. BRYAN SPEAKS.

Omaha, Oct. 3.—William J. Bryan today began a week's speechmaking tour of Nebraska, his first address being made at Gretna, which is in the second congressional district. Mr. Bryan arrived at Gretna early in the day and was given an enthusiastic reception. He passed the Bryan flag pole, raised in his honor when in 1890 he made his initial address as a candidate for Congress.

Mr. Bryan's address had to do almost entirely with state issues, and the speaker made a strong appeal for the re-election of Congressman Hitchcock. Mr. Bryan and his party took an afternoon train for South Omaha, where a mass meeting was held tonight. He was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience, a great majority of them packing house employees. Mr. Bryan briefly referred to the state campaign, alluded to Congressman Hitchcock and appealed for the support specially of the fusion legislative ticket, which, he said, was important because Pale, thin, nervous, depressed, weak, tired out?

Ask your doctor about taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for this bad condition of your blood. If he says, "All right," then take it. If not, then don't take it. We feel perfectly safe, for we know what doctors say about this family medicine.

The coming legislature would elect a United States senator. Coming to national question, Mr. Bryan said: "I need not tell you that I was delighted with the nomination at St. Louis. I opposed the nomination of Parker because he did not stand for what we had been fighting for in Nebraska for eight years. I stand today for every doctrine I have advocated. I have not recanted and have not withdrawn from where I stood. I have not changed my position. I believe these things when I stood before you as a candidate, and I believe in them today."

"We got a good platform. The platform at St. Louis is bad only where it omits to state the party's position on two questions—the money question and the income tax."

Mr. Bryan gave reasons for not getting out of the Democratic party, saying that he thought he could bring about the reforms he advocated better by staying in it. He said he agreed with the populists on many questions and with the Socialists on others, such as municipal ownership of public utilities, state ownership of railroads and postal savings banks.

The size of the standing army he declared an issue and a menace to the peace of the laboring men. The Republican party is entirely hostile to the laboring man, according to Mr. Bryan, who announced that the laboring man is not satisfied. Anyone who was satisfied with the present condition should vote the Republican ticket, the speaker said.

BURIED ALIVE.

Six Men in a Mine Near Cartersville, Ga.

Cartersville, Ga., Oct. 3.—Six men have been buried alive in a mine near this place. The dead are R. P. Morgan, owner of the mine, and a prominent business man, and five employees.

OPPOSED TO FOOTBALL.

Prest. Benton of Miami Condemns It as Too Hazardous.

Hamilton, O., Oct. 3.—President Guy Potter Benton of Miami university, in a speech to the college students today, expressed strong opposition to football. "I recognize the fact," he said, "that one college could not act alone. It would be dubbed a 'sissy' institution. I would like to see the presidents of all the colleges get together and abolish the football business."

"I favor athletics and want the boys to have a good time, but football is too hazardous to be justifiable college sport."

President Benton's remarks, it is said, were prompted by the injury of several Miami players at Columbus Saturday.

WOMAN SHOTS A MAN.

Ida Reynolds Claims John King Threatened Her With a Knife.

Portland, Or., Oct. 3.—Ida Reynolds shot and probably fatally wounded John King this afternoon in her room. The man is claimed, threatened the woman with a knife, and she fired three shots into his body in self-defense. King was removed to a hospital, where he will probably die. The Reynolds woman and a man named Swift, who was in the room when the shooting occurred, were arrested.

More Victims of Trolley Accident.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Three more names have been added to the list of people who were injured in the street-car disaster that took place yesterday at Eighth avenue and Clement street, the conductor being unable to control his crowded car, owing, as he claims, to defective brakes. Those who lost their lives were Frederick Fendson and Harry Curran. Fourteen persons are suffering from injuries, but no further death are expected. The injured, who were not included in the lists made up last night, were Mrs. Laura J. McKenzie, her daughter, Beatrice McKenzie, and Jack Kelsey.

The Hague Convention.

London, Oct. 3.—Sir Thomas Barclay, who has been prominently identified with the movement for establishing amity between nations, informed the Associated Press today that the German government had under consideration the calling of another conference to extend the scope of The Hague convention prior to President Roosevelt's announcement of his desire to take action in that direction.

Gerónimo is Homesick.

St. Louis, Oct. 3.—Gerónimo, the Apache chief, departed for his home at Fort Hill, Oklahoma City. Gerónimo has been at the world's fair city since June, and recently asked permission of Sgt. McGowan of the Indian school to return home, saying that he was homesick.

Found Dead in Bed.

Portland, Oct. 3.—A special to the Oregonian from Oregon City, says: George Hosteler, a German farmer residing at Needy, this county, was found dead this afternoon in his elder mill. While working in the mill, the hopper became detached from the roof, and in falling struck Hosteler, and crushed him to death. No one witnessed the accident and the body was not discovered until life was extinct.

Delighted With United States.

New York, Oct. 4.—Gustav Francotte, Belgian minister of commerce and industry, will sail today for home after a six weeks' tour of America. He traveled west to San Francisco and expressed delight over everything he had seen.

"This is my first visit to America and I am very glad I came."

"The exposition in St. Louis is wonderful. We are getting up an expedition of our own for next year at Liege to commemorate the seventy-fifth anniversary of the establishment of the independence of the Belgians."

Vladivostok is Quiet.

Vladivostok, Oct. 4.—The town is quiet and many families which fled to the interior earlier in the season are returning.

It is an excellent fishing season but there is a considerable scarcity of salt. Navigation on the Amur will close this week.

GENERAL HEALTH OF ARMY IMPROVED

In 1003 Admissions to Hospital Per Thousand Were 1,451.13 Against 1,610.51

TROOPS IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Losses from Death and Invalided Home Amounted to 70.07 Per Thousand.

Washington, Oct. 3.—In his annual report Surgeon-General H. M. O'Reilly shows that the general health of the army has improved. During the past year the admission per thousand had been 1451.13, against 1610.51 in the preceding year. This marks a gradual improvement in the condition of the troops which has been noted since sanitary matters have been given increased attention, notwithstanding a large proportion of the troops have been on practically no service in the Philippines since 1898.

From an average strength of 19,022 American troops in the Philippines, 1,074 were invalided home, a rate of 56.41 per thousand. There were 211 deaths among the troops in the Philippines, so that the losses have totalled invaliding amounted to 70.07 per thousand. Contrary to what might be expected, in view of the general belief in the prevalence and severity of malarial fever in the Philippines, it was found necessary to send only 38 such cases home. Nearly all of this number subsequently returned to duty, none dying.

The Filipino soldiers were singularly fortunate in the matter of injuries, having a rate of only 87.29 per thousand, but their mortality rate of 3.34 is almost as large as the combined death rates of white and colored troops from external causes. The Filipinos showed the highest rate of admission for disease, and they also led the disease death rate, with 18.17 per thousand, compared with 6 per thousand for white and 9.42 for colored. Malarial fevers again caused considerably higher rates of sickness and death among Filipinos than among the white and colored Americans.

There were 165 cases of Asiatic cholera, with 68 deaths among the white troops and 4 cases and 23 deaths among the Filipinos. The colored troops were entirely free from this malady. Beriberi was confined almost entirely to Filipinos. These soldiers again demonstrated their freedom from drunkenness, as only three hospital cases from that cause were recorded.

The surgeon-general believes that it is possible to cure leprosy. At any rate, he definitely favors the practice followed the treatment of the leper soldier now held in isolation at one of the southern army posts. Nodules and swellings on the body have become either greatly reduced or have disappeared entirely. Free use is made of the Roosevelt ray in treating this case, and the man is now permitted to wander about the island at his will, provided he does not enter any building save his own or approach any one nearer than eight feet.

Fraudulent Citizenship.

New York, Oct. 4.—Prosecution of men holding alleged fraudulent citizenship papers is to be pushed by the federal authorities throughout the east and all nationalities are to be covered. Bogus citizens have been found in great numbers among the Italians and the campaign has now spread to the Austrians. The first arrest among them was that of a saloonkeeper who had achieved fame by being elected president of the Irish Peddlers' association and had secured citizenship papers, all, it is alleged, in the course of only three years and eight months' residence in America.

Lieut. Rancourt Arrested.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 3.—Lieut. Louis Rancourt, U. S. A., was arrested here this morning on telegraphic instructions from Vancouver barracks. Rancourt was quartermaster at Fort Wright, this city, and obtained a three months' leave of absence in July. He was slow in making his reports to the government, and army officers here believe that his troubles arose from that.

PROTECTED HERSELF.

Ruth Osborne Fired Three Bullets into John Thim.

Portland, Or., Oct. 3.—In protecting herself from the murderous attack of an infuriated and jealousy-crazed man, Ruth Osborne today fired three shots into the body of John Thim, causing wounds from which it is feared the injured man will die. The shooting occurred in a lodging house on Third

Every Throb

Of My Heart Was Plainly Felt, and Sometimes Very Painful.

If your pulse is too strong, and your heart throbs so that you can feel the force of the heart-beat against your chest, your heart is weak and needs attention.

This is usually caused by long continued palpitation, over-work, excessive exercise, heart strain, and the condition indicates serious heart trouble. You should act at once.

The very best thing to do is to take Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, a remedy that will strengthen the nerves and muscles of the heart, and restore them to their normal condition.

If you neglect to do this, disastrous consequences will surely follow. You will have smothering pains, pain in the heart, faintness, the valves of the heart will become leaky, and the heart left in a death struggle.

"My heart bothered me so that I could feel every pulsation. Could only sleep on my left side. Doctors told me that I had one-fifth enlargement of the heart. I had all the usual symptoms of heart trouble. I took about 15 or 20 bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and am completely cured. I have had no symptoms of heart disease for two years, and my heart is strong and healthy."

Three months ago she met Thim, who it is alleged, became infatuated with her. Mrs. Osborne promised to marry him, but according to her statement broke the engagement when Thim began drinking and started to abuse her. For the past week the two have been having trouble daily, which grew to be so annoying that the landlord of the lodging house ordered Thim to stay away from the place.

LHASA EXPEDITION.

It is Said to be Undergoing Great Hardships.

London, Oct. 4.—Dispatches from the Lhasa expedition state that the Chinese ambassador signed the Anglo-Tibetan treaty, but having received the necessary permission from the Chinese government. The expedition, these dispatches say, is undergoing great hardships in its march towards India.

ROSWELL, N. M.

Is a Scene of Desolation Owing To Floods.

Roswell, N. M., Oct. 4.—Roswell is a scene of desolation. The flood that started Thursday night has receded. The damage will be over $100,000. For days it was impossible to get in telegraphic communication with outside points. The electric light plant was flooded and the city was in darkness. Water was three feet deep in the main part of the city and ran in streams through residences and business houses. The railroad bridge was lost. Roswell opera house and about its business and residence houses collapsed. The dyke that was erected by the city was washed out.

There have been no trains either north or south since Thursday. The considerable bridge across the Pecos river have been washed away.

CO-OPERATION THE GREATEST NEED

A correspondent of the Toronto Sun expressed his belief that if Ontario farmers were to hold their own in the race, they must reduce the cost of farm operations by making greater use of labor-saving machinery; to which the editor adds:

Considerable progress has been made in this direction already. The wide harrow worked by a three-horse team and the hay loader are notable additions to the list of labor-saving machines previously in use. But there is one implement in which we have made little or no progress in the last half century. This is the plow. An ordinary plow should be as much out of place today as would a scythe in the hay field. Electrical or steam power ought ere this to have worked as great a revolution in breaking up the land as the removal of the crops.

This, however, will come in time, and before long, too. There will be other improvements as well, and with these improvements will arise an imperative need—co-operation. Labor-saving machinery is costly machinery. It costs a lot in buying and a good deal in store room and repairs; and still, on the average farm, the period of use is confined to a few days in each year. Even at present, individual ownership is an absurdity; it will become a greater absurdity as the march of improvement increases the number of improved implements.

Co-operation on the part of small groups of farmers in the ownership of farm machinery is even now one of the greatest needs of the day. There are nearly 150,000 men in Ontario occupying farms of 50 to 200 acres each. Figure out for yourself the reduction in expenses that might be effected by the application of the principle of co-operation to the use by these farmers of binders alone.—Country Gentleman.

AN AGED SPECULATOR.

Five days a week Edward B. Wesley goes to Wall street. For a man who has lived 93 years he is wonderfully sturdy. He is a millionaire many times over, but, although he is the oldest speculator in Wall street, if not in the world, he never has been a member of the Stock Exchange. The whirl, the roar and the rush of the "board" bother him. He loves to play his part in the great strife from outside the lines. With the tape in his hand he sits in his favorite chair in a commission house at 7 Wall street, and there feels the pulse of the market and gives his orders to buy or sell.

The old man is proud of the fact that he has been a speculator all his life, and he confidently predicts he will live to be 100, and that he will be in the speculative harness then. He has no thought of retiring. Old and feeble as is Russell Sage, Mr. Wesley is older and has been in Wall street 55 years longer.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.
