OPPOSE SMELTER AT HOT SPRINGS

Agriculturists Want the Industry Placed Where Smoke Will Not Injure Crops.

SCOWCROFT COMPANY MOVING

Into Commodious New Warehouse—Mrs. Laughney Sues for Alimony—Death of Mrs. J. C. Orem.

Ogden, Feb. 7.—What effect the stand taken by a large number of farmers of Weber county and Boxelder county, in opposing the erection of a large smelter on the site of the present Utah Smelting company's plant is very uncertain. Already several largely attended meetings of the farmers interested have been held, and the situation discussed, the general sentiment being against the smelter being located on the site proposed. The farmers state that they have no desire of being understood as absolutely against the proposition, quite the opposite. They are heartily in sympathy with Weber county having an independent smelter, but are against it being erected on the present smelter site, as it is within a half mile of some of their farms and the fumes would be damaging to their crops. They are of the opinion that there are plenty of other sites that can be secured even at less cost than the present location. On Wednesday evening a meeting was held at North Ogden, which was attended by about 40 agriculturists who are against the present location. Tonight a mass meeting is to be held at Plain City, where the ideas of the opposing forces will be explained to the residents of that district. An effort is to be made to get a majority of the farmers within a radius of four or five miles to sign a protest against the movement unless the smelter owners will guarantee to buy their land if damaged, at a reasonable price. The Weber club committee on railroads and a committee of the smelter promoters will today visit Salt Lake and hold a conference with the railroad magnates to secure, if possible, for Ogden the same rate on all kinds of ore as is given to Salt Lake City. If this concession can be obtained from the railroads the smelter is almost assured for Weber county this year.

MOVE TO NEW WAREHOUSE.

In a few days John Scowcroft & Sons company will be in its immense new warehouse. The task of moving the large stock was commenced yesterday and will be continued until the old building is emptied. The new structure is directly opposite the old one on the corner of Wall avenue and Twenty-third street. It is one of the most modern warehouses in the west, having four stories with a full basement and is 40 feet on Twenty-third street and 130 feet on Wall avenue, and was built at a heavy cost. The offices will be on the ground floor, and the top story will be reserved for manufacturing purposes. For several weeks the new goods arriving from the eastern and western markets have been unloaded into the new warehouse, thus saving handling it twice. The grocery department is practically closed out.

SUES FOR ALIMONY.

Mrs. Emma Laughney, who was divorced from Thomas Laughney Feb. 2, 1902, has filed an affidavit in the district court setting forth that the defendant has not paid any alimony for months as the decree set forth he should do, and that there is now due her $678 alimony. She asks that the defendant be cited into court to show cause why he should not be fined for contempt of court in failing to pay the alimony and that he be required to pay the amount due.

SUIT FOR LOST FREIGHT.

Suit has been commenced in the district court by C. F. Abercrombie against the Southern Pacific to recover $1,900. He alleges that last February a trunk which contained insurance papers and goods valued at $1,900 was lost between the shipping point Cabre, Nev., and Ogden, and cannot be found.

DEATH OF MRS. J. C. OREM.

Sergeant Toul has received a message from Omaha, informing him of the death at that city of his sister, Mrs. J. C. Orem. She left Ogden in December to visit her daughters. While on route she contracted pneumonia, which finally terminated in her death.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WAGNER.

Funeral services over the remains of

Mrs. Margaret Wagner, wife of William Wagner, who died Wednesday night at the hospital, will be held Saturday at 3 o'clock, at the Third ward meetinghouse. Burial will be made in the Ogden city cemetery.

STEGUR-BAKER NUPTIALS.

A marriage license was granted by the county clerk to Henry L. Baker, and Miss Augusta Stegur, both of Hooper.

BEAVER.

LECTURES BY B. H. ROBERTS.

John Erickson Convicted of Assault—Measles and Pneumonia Prevalent. Special Correspondence.

Beaver City, Feb. 5.—The Hon. B. H. Roberts delivered a lecture at the Beaver branch B. Y. A., on Saturday and Sunday evening last on the subject of the "Atonement," and on Saturday afternoon he addressed the saints in this city on the subject of "Education Among the Latter-day Saints."

DISTRICT COURT.

After a week's trial in the district court, John Erickson, who was accused of beating and kicking John Ryan last May, from the effects of which assault he died, was found guilty of battery by the jury, and an appeal will be taken. Erickson is out on his bond.

No other special business except a few probate cases and one divorce was attended to, and court adjourned this morning.

Measles is quite common here now, and some few cases of pneumonia of a light form.

PEOA.

PROMINENT CITIZENS DEAD.

Oscar F. Lyons and John A. Marchant Summoned by Reaper. Special Correspondence.

Peoa, Summit Co., Feb. 5.—Ex-postmaster Oscar F. Lyons, a prominent and highly respected resident of this town, died at his residence here Jan. 31, aged 67. Mr. Lyons was for more than 25 years the postmaster of Peoa, and took an active and prominent part in every movement for the building up of the country. He was born Dec. 25, 1840, in Nauvoo, Ill., and came to Utah in 1850 with his parents, Caleb W. and Sarah Bigler Lyons, his mother being a sister of Mrs. Bathsheba W. Smith. Mr. Lyons, with other printers, started the first newspaper south of Salt Lake City in 1875, when they began the publication of the Provo Times, of which Mr. Lyons was editor for three years. In 1876 he moved to Peoa and taught school for many years. In 1879 he married Miss Maria Louise Marchant, daughter of Abraham Marchant, and they had 11 children born to them. He was prosecuting attorney of Summit county for two terms and was active in the public life of the county. He was also active and prominent in Church matters, for nine years he acted as assistant superintendent of the stake-Sunday schools, clerk of the Twenty-second ward for twenty, and clerk of the ward for 20 years.

DEATH OF J. A. MARCHANT.

John A. Marchant, one of the leading merchants and stockmen of Sumner county, died at his home in Peoa, Dec. 7. Deceased was born May 7, 1848, in Bath, England, and emigrated to Utah with his father, Abraham Marchant, in 1853, coming to Peoa in 1861, and has been prominent in the business life of the town ever since, winning the esteem of many friends by his upright life, being prominent in Church and public affairs. He was married March 30, 1875, to Miss Hannah Maria Russell, who died in 1882, leaving a family of six children. Mr. Marchant was married a second time to Miss Jane A. Maxwell, by whom he had seven children. There have been many cases of pneumonia here this winter, and several are yet suffering from it. Justin Wright, a boy of 15, died at his home here Jan. 12, of peritonitis.

EPHRAIM.

DEATH OF HENRY GREEN.

Reorganization of Sunday School and Primary—Visit of Pres. Lund. Special Correspondence.

Ephraim, Sanpete Co., Feb. 5.—The funeral services were held today over the remains of Henry Green, an old resident of this place, who fell a victim of pneumonia. Deceased would have been 68 years of age next month. He filled a foreign mission in 1882. He leaves a wife and five children, being preceded by his son Joseph, by about a month. His son Will is now quite ill with the same disease, of which the two others were victims, namely pneumonia. There is a great deal of sickness in the community at present, consisting chiefly of pneumonia, measles, and chickenpox.

The South Sanpete stake Sunday school has been reorganized. Erastus Sorenson is superintendent with G. A. Iverson and Conrad Stutznegar assistants.

The Primary association of the north ward has been organized with the following officers: Ida Peterson Beal, president, Sarah Hanson and Maggie Willardson counselors.

The people were favored with a visit from Pres. A. H. Lund and Elder Orson F. Whitney, who gave excellent and interesting lectures in the Academy assembly hall.

Friday night the Young Men's association of the North ward will give a dance, to raise funds for the organization.

ORANGEVILLE.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Old Folks Honored—Changes in Local Sunday School. Special Correspondence.

Orangeville, Emery Co., Feb. 3.—A Sunday school convention was held here on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 1 and 2, of the Sunday schools of Emery stake. All of the schools were represented, except three. After the opening exercises on both days, the several departments went to separate apartments and were instructed by able teachers in their special work. It is said to have been the best represented convention of the kind ever held in the stake, and much interest was manifested by the Sunday school workers and by Supt. D. C. Woodward, and assistants. The new outlines for parents' classes were presented.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REORGANIZED.

The Orangeville Sunday school was reorganized. The two assistants in the superintendency, John Oliphant and John Taylor, having been transferred to the evening class, Supt. J. F. Killian resigned. These brethren were honorably released, with a vote of thanks. Elder John S. Paris was sustained as superintendent with Elders Ole W. Sigurd and Samuel W. Snow as his assistants.

CANVASSING FOR CREAMERY.

The new board of directors of the Twin City Creamery, have been canvassing among the milk producers to try and secure milk enough to justify the starting up the creamery again. When it shut down some time ago, it is said to have made about $5,500 worth of butter with a year's run, and which had a ready sale in the county, and in coal camps in Carbon county.

OLD FOLKS HONORED.

On Jan. 23 the Relief society and Y. L. M. I. A. of Orangeville, entertained royally the old folks of the ward. Carriages, with courteous drivers conveyed the aged and infirm to the infirm and widows as could go to the hall, about 2 p. m. There was hand shaking and social chat for about an hour when all were called by the church in an interesting program of speeches, songs, anecdotes, step dancing, etc., was given, with a dance in the evening for the younger people.

SNOWFLAKE, ARIZ.

STAKE ACADEMY GALA DAY.

Boys Improve the Grounds and Girls Provide Grand Feast. Special Correspondence.

Snowflake, Ariz., Feb. 1.—This stake academy, which is located here and is under the supervision of Prof. L. F. Moench, with an able corps of teachers to assist him. The enrollment this year, 132, is almost double that of any previous year, and among the students is a large number of those who are in a constant program of education, surpassing that of any previous year.

Supt. Horace H. Cummings was here recently and through his genial spirit and influence encouraged the students in their work. His addresses were very much appreciated.

Among the many good things he suggested was the improvement of the sidewalks and approaches to the academy. The suggestion was at once taken up and Monday, Jan. 26, was designated as the day for improving the walks. The boys agreed to furnish the teams, tools and men, and the girls agreed to furnish a grand picnic when the work was done. The task was carried out with a vim. The whole town seemed to be affected by it and the streets literally swarmed with teams, men and shovels. It is estimated that fully 300 loads of gravel were hauled in front of the academy and on the leading sidewalks before 1 o'clock. Supt. Cummings, Prof. Moench, Peterson and Mortenson all appeared in jumpers with shovels, rakes and hoes. One o'clock witnessed a grand procession to the academy. The girls, as they always do, had done their part, and had prepared a feast worthy of the occasion, and were accorded rousing cheers for their splendid efforts, as the tables were loaded with good things.

The afternoon was spent in games, and in the evening the gala play was concluded with a grand ball at Willis hall.

The Desert News comes regularly and is always a welcome visitor to the library table of the academy.

CARDSTON, CANADA.

SERIOUS PRAIRIE FIRE.

Phenomenally Mild Weather Ends in Snow Storm—Fat Cattle Shipments. Special Correspondence.

Cardston, Alberta, Canada, Jan. 28.—An ample illustration of the finest weather enjoyed this winter by Albertans was a school party and regular May walk of the children and teachers on January 27. The grass was not green and the flowers were lacking, but for absence of snow and frost the year's pleasant sunshine partook more of May than January. This is a bad season though for prairie fires, one which started on the reservation near Fish Creek Sunday week cut beyond all control in three or four hours and because the grass was so heavy and dry the absence of any snow or ice made the most dangerous condition. Aided by a southwest wind blowing ten miles an hour, it only took short time to look like the whole reserve would be burned over. As it was, several Indian horses, numerous stacks of hay and some cattle and horses were consumed. It looked as though the fire burned itself out near Lethbridge, on Monday, so that it must at least have traveled over 50 miles.

The government favored the farmers once more by sending the "Grain Judging School" on a tour. The program was at Cardston on the 16th and 17th inst. but this has been such nice weather and the school did not have the attendance that otherwise would have been given. Mr. T. H. Woodford, a thrifty and successful farmer in this district, was one of the lecturers accompanying the train.

Funeral services were held in the assembly hall last week over the remains of Louis J. Shoemaker, 12-year-old son of Alonzo Shoemaker, who died of peritonitis at his home in Spring coulee. Last week Mammal Brothers of Milled shipped a train load of beef cattle right off the ranges for the foreign market, a record record for the best cattle country. Horses are also fat on the range.

January 28, the breath of winter came from the north yesterday and during last night left a blanket of snow to the depth of two or three inches over the country.
