

Mrs. E. Ronnemort will enterfain at a large party Monday evening, Sept-tember 23, in honor, of Miss Sigrid Ped-ersen, who will be married September 25.

1 1 1 Miss Estello Clinton entertained at dinner on Thursday, the table being decorated in red and white with a bowl of white sweet peas for a cen-terplece, surrounded by a red square formed of hows and loops of red rib-bon, while smilex extended to the cor-ners, and hows of red ribbon were at each place, and red shaded candelabra ill the table. Covers were taid for eight guests.

Mrs. I. A. Clayton was hostess at a large Kensinston on Thursday the rooms being beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and about 60 guests being present. She was assisted by Mrs. Selden Clawson and Mrs. Mur-ray C. Godbe.

Miss Jean Odell gave a lunchson on Tuesday for Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Squires, the table being prettily dec-orated in fail flowers and a number of intimate friends and relatives being This afternoon Mrs. Clayton enter-tained the members of the younger set at a similar affair, the decorations be-ing again in the sulumn tints and a large number being present.

Mr. George Barratt and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pyper were among those who entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Squires this wook. Mrs. W. D. Leenard was hostess at a eard party on Thursday, about 30 guests entertained on Thursday night in honor ing in red and white asters and about a dozen guests being entertained.

. . .

present.

GENERAL LEE'S DAUGHTER TO MARRY ARMY OFFICER.

The entire south is interested in the forthcoming marriage of Miss Virginia Lee, youngest daughter of the late General Fitzhugh Lee, to Licutenant John Carter Montgomery, Seventh cavalry, United States army, Miss Lee was born in the Executive Mansion at Richmond, Virginia, when her father was governor of that state and has two sisters, both of whom married into the Seventh cavalry. She is tall, possessed of the famed beauty of the Virginia Lees, is an excellent horsewoman and an accomplished conversationalist. She has, since her debut, been the belle in the capital of her native state.

Lieutenant Montgomery is also a Virginian of distinguished lineage and a very handsome officer. He was a leader in Richmond society before his appointment to the army and his subsequent service in the Philippines. The wedding will be celebrated this autumn.

being entertained. The hostess was assisted by her sister Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. R. H. Offleer. Mrs. W. F. James gave a bridge party on Thursday for Mrs Billings of Ohio, about 20 being present, and Discussion of Laurence Squires who leaves for Europe shortly on a mission. The rooms were artistically decorat-ed with asters and dhillas and about 40 guests were present. Refreshments were served and games played, Miss Lucite Young and Frank Foster being the prize winners.

Mrs. R. H. Omeer. Mrs. W. F. James gave a bridge party on Thursday for Mrs Billings of Ohio, about 20 being present, and prizes awarded Madame Pfoutz. Mrs. S. Nelden. Mrs. Robert Glendenning, Mrs. J. Jungk and Miss Sherman. Sun-flowers were used in decorating, the prize winners. The Gammi Phi Sorority of the Un-iversity gave a large Opheum party on Thursday afternoon.

the engagement o ftheir daughter Lucy to John Hazelman of Mill Creek. The wedding will take place Thursday, September 26.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Bernhlsel announce the engagement of their daughter, Vo-ra., to Emerson McDonald. The wed-ding will take place in the near fu-ture, fure, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mitchell announce the engagement of their daughter. Ir-ma, to David P. Lewis. The wedding will take place October 15.

Next Wednesday the marriage of Miss Hattle Whitney and Sidney G. Saville takes place, the ceremony to be encommized in the temple and a re-ception to be held in the evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. George D. Pyper.

Another interesting wedding of the same day will be that of Miss Sigrid Pederson and Mr. Bert Carl, the event to take place at the bride's home.

The marriage of Miss Chaire Pratt Eldredge and W. Scott Weller will take place next Wedner will the temple, Hugh M. Cannon to officiate. In the evening a reception will be given at 36 east Seventh South street, and the bride will be attended by Miss Pearl Weller and Phyllis Thatcher, while Mr. Lee Young will attend the groom. Thatcher, while Mr.

Next Saturday night the marriage of Miss Geniceve Ellerbeck and Dr Chauncey Mott Benedict will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Etta Ellerbeck, Rev. E. I. Goshen to perform the ceremony. After the mar-riage the bridat couple will be at home at 64 First street.

An elaborate home wedding of the week was that of Miss Louise Wey and Vaugha A. Paul, which took place on Wednesday night with Bishop Scan-lan officiating, the Musses Selma, Allee and Mary Wall being bridesmaids, Mr. Harry Goodwin, best roun, and Curtis Clawson and Morris Moon ushers. The costumes were beautiful, the rooms

California, where Miss Elizabeth will enter Pomona college,

Miss Elizabeth Niles will leave next uesday for Wellesley,

Mrs. F. P. Farrell is here from Park City and will spend some time with Mrs. F. J. Grant at her home, 164 Sixth

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McCorkell are back, after spending some months in the east.

Mrs. Fred J. Hill and two sons and her sister, Miss Paul, sailed from New York Saturday, September 14, on the Mesaha. They will so to London.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lynn and Miss Winnie will leave today for the James-town exposition and eastern cities for a

AN ELABORATE AFTERNOON CO STUME IN MAUVE CLOTH

The Eton coat is by no means banished from fashion's favor. It he seen all winter at various dressy functions, and in severest weather wearers will simply don a heavy outer coat or cape over the small Eton carriage wear. This costume is of fine broadcloth, the skirt hid in b pleats, which are braided half their depth with a heavy slik cord. The tle coat is on square lines, and is composed of cloth and filet net. heavy with a braided pattern of the slik cord which appears on the slo The sleeves are of the cloth, and also braided. There is a touch of brims embroidery or, satin outlining the vest, and forming the inner but a sleeve bands. The hat is a mushroom shape, pointed sharply in front, co ered with mauve velvet and wreathed with purple pansles.

John Hancock and his cousin, Miss Kate Allen, left the first of the week for schools in the east.

Dr. W. R. Tyndale left Monday even-ing for Glenwood Springs, Colo., to be gone two or three days.

Samuel Newhouse is expected home the first of next week from a trip abroad. K. A. K.

Miss Florence Holmes has returned from several weeks spent in Califor-nia.

Harold Stephens left Wednesday for Miss Elizabeth Niles, who has spent the summer here with her parents, re-turns the first of next week to Welles-ley.

Mrs. Marle Carter Henderson, for-merly of the Washington Post, who has spent the past few days in Salt Lake, has gone to Goldfield.

Mrs. J. J. Duke of Chicago arrived in the city from San Francisco, and is with her sister, Mrs. L. T. Pierce, at 223 Eighth East street.

Mrs. Sands has returned from Park City, where she has spent the past few weeks visiting friends.

Miss Katherine Purcell is back, after spending the past month or so in New York. 1.14.414 members of the Ogden taharnacle and a few invited guests, there present between 200 and 300 g The beautiful lawns around the were lluminated with electric i and the veranda of the residence decorated with the stars and shi President Shurtliff delibered President Shurtliff delivered on dress of welcome congratulating choir on its wonderful work on recent trip to California and ene aged continued efforts. Charles Ross responded. Songs were sun the choir, and an evening of pleasure was spent. An orcha discoursed sweet music throughour outlies recention. Induct society were served. antire reception. Dainty refreshing Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bet

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bett-zer, two of Ogden's early residents celebrated their golden wedding a their home 275 Twenty-ninth streat. Many of their friends gathered a the home to extend congratulations as their having reached the fiftieth an-niversary of their wedded life and is wish them many years of continued happiness. Mr. Beltzer has conduct of a small jeweiry business in Og den for many years. He is a veterar of the G. A. R. The ladies. Relic corps presented them with a heautifu piece of goldware. They, feective many other presents.

Miss Rose Drake of Weston and G. M. Hadley of West Weber were united in bonds of wedlock this week. Doctor and Mrs. Eugene H. Smith returned home this week from an ex-tended tour of the northwest. Jams Lochhead and wife

. . .

Miss Geneive Ellerbeck was guest of honor at a Kensington this afternoon given by Mrs. S. A. Whitney, the de-corations being in the fall flowers and being in the fall flowers and a number of mutual friends bei present to enjoy the pleasant affair. being

18

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was the reception given by the Salt Lake Teachers' association on Tuesday night at Cress Brook in hon-or of the new teachers, the lawn and house being brilliantly lit and dec-crated and a large number being pres-ant.

X & X

Miss Evelyn Thomas and Willard D. Foster were guests of honor at an elaborate dinner at the University club on Monday night, their hosts ba-leg A. L. and A. R. Thomas. Red sweet peas and red ribbons with red shad-ed candiabra were the decorations, and the place cards were especially pretty.

Covers were laid for the following

Covers were had for the following guests beside the guests of honor: Mr. and Mrs. samuel C. Park, Mr and Mrs. Elbridge Thomas, Mas Park, the Missee Annie and Kate Adams, Miss Frances Cowan, Miss Peal, Weller, Miss Jessia Martin, Messre, L. and A. R. Thomas, S. M. Foster, W. W. Little, C. R. Clibbe Carl Adress and John H. Glibbe, Carl Adams, and John N N N Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards have for their guests Liout and Mrs. Sam-nel Parker, who will spend two or three weeks with them previous to Sumflowers were used in the decor-ations at the crystal shower party giv-en by Mrs. F. A. Mitchell and Mrs. J. W. Spiker on Tuesday night, and about 20 guests were entertained.

The event of the entry of the e

the regular season which takes place on Oct. 1.

The Undine club met with Miss Enid

The Undine club met with Miss Enid Edmonds on Thursday night and the following officers were elected. Presi-dent, Jennie Nelson; vice president, Virginia Smith; secretary and treasurer. Lisle Bradford; editor, Enid Edmonds. After business of the club was transacted light refresh-ments were served. Next Thursday the club will meet with Miss Hazel Dorius.

Miss Miriam Brooks entertained in-formally this afternoon in honor of Miss Alile Godbe of Los Angeles who is her guest. The decorations were in asters of various hues and about 40 were present.

Mrs. S. A. Benedict and Mrs. C. B. Cowan entertained at dinner on Wed-nesday night in honor of Miss Geneive Ellerbeck and Dr. Chauncey Benedict whose marriage takes place next weak, the table being decorated in pink and white asters and covers laid for about a dozen.

. . . .

Miss Rawlins was hostess at an in-formal afternoon party today, the rooms being decorated in autumn leaves and about 24 entertained.

the

. . .

alling to the Philippines.

protty,

Mrs. Justus Jungk entertained this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Billings of Ohlo who is here visiting.

Miss Helen Hartley gives a card party tonight for Scott Lynn and Rob-ert Lee. . . .

Miss Ione Morison entertained a few friends at luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday.

Mrs. H. D. Niles ad Miss Beasle Niles entertained informally at dinner on Wednesday,

The stalls at the theater will be filled tonight with parties for the "Robin Hood" performance and a num-ber of suppers will follow:

Mrs. W. W. McCroa's card party on Wednesday was a decidedly protiy one, the red herrios and leaves used in decorating making the rooms a pic-ture. About 16 were entertained.

Mrs. G. M. Forbes entertained on Tuesday at "500" in honor of Mrs. Morris Forbes, the affair being the second of the series. The rooms were bright with sunflowers and autumn leaves and Mrs. C. E. McCullouch, Mrs. Russell Schulder and the Missos Partridge assisted the hostess. Eight tables were played and Miss Beth Critchlow was prize winner.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Pond antertain-ed at an elaborate dinner on Tues-day for Mr. and Mrs. George Bliss of Ann Arbor, Mich., covers being laid for a half dozen.

Six tables of bridge were played at the afternoon party given on Monday by Mrs. G. M. Forbes in honor of Mrs. Morris Forbes and the decorations were in sunflowers and autumo leaves. Mrs. C. E. McCullough assisted in entertaining. + * *

Miss Louise Wey and Vaughn Paul were guests of honor at a card party on Monday night given by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marnane and Miss Mo-Govern, the decorations being in green and white, with asters and smilax and about 25 being entertained.

REENTAL

Mr. and Mrs. Clude Studies were Mrs. Thomas Mrsioneaux will en-guests of honor at a dinner at the Ai-ta club on Monday, the decorations be-Country club. Tuesday.

A pleasant evening party of Thurs day was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lee in bonor of thir son Robert, and Scott Lynn who are to leave next week to re-enter the naval academy at Annapolis. The blue and gold of the navy was carried out in the decorations which consisted of a center plece of yellow marigolds and blue dahlas, while strteamers of gold and blue ribbon were hung from the chandeller to the four corners. The place cards were small flags. Besides the guests of honor were Prof. George A. Eaton, Captain Webb, W. W. Bar-ton, Francis Litchfield. Russel Sands and W. A. Lee.

ton, Francis Litchfield, Russel Sands and W. A. Lee. Perhaps the largest affair of Thurs-day was the tea party given by Mrs. W. H. Child for the ladks of the Pres-byterian church the decorations being in fall flowers and fruits and the fol-lowing ladies assisting. Miss Copley and her guest, Miss Rockwell, of St. Louis. Others who assisted Mrs. Child were her two alsters, the Misses Ran and Olive Battch, Mrs. E. V. Silver, Mrs. Hai Brown and Mrs. J. S. Manley.

Mrs. Jack Kellh was hostess at a Mrs. Jack Kelth was hostess at a bridge tee on Thursday, the affair be-ing informal and Miss Marge Eller-beck and Miss Blyth assisting. The parlor and hall were decorated in lavender cosmos, the library in red sweet peak and the diving room in golden glow and sunflowers, and prizes were won hy Mrs. George C. Moore, Mrs. Richard Stingley, Mrs. J. T. Har-ris, and Mrs. W. D. Denoher, Mrs. Fred Dern and Mrs. U. C. Taylor.

4 8 2

Miss Hattie Whitney and Sidney G. Saville wore guests of homor at a delightful evening party on Thursday given by Mr. and Mes. Nepht Morris and Miss Claire Young, a number of promessive games being played and prime awarded the winners, who were Miss Genetive Clark, Miss Mary Young and Mr. Noel Prati.

1.1.1

Mrs. Walter T. Pyper entertidned her Sewing Club on Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Hattle Whitney who is a member, and during the afternoon the club presented the hylde-alsot with a complete set of kitchen utensits. The rooms were decented to different flowrooms were decorated in different flow-ars, the partor in pick and white ast-ors, the iberary in southowers and the diuling room in nasturthums. The time was spent in serving and social chat.

DR. T. FELIX COURAUD'S

ORIENTAL TOILET POWDER

AN IDEAL, ANTISEPTIC TOILET POWDER FOR INFANTS AND ADULTS.

This is an exputately perfumed, antiseptic toilet pow-der. It is a household necessity for the numery and toiler it keeps the complexion clear and preserves the velvely texture of youth. It should be used freely after bathing giving a delightful and refreshing effect.

FERD. T. HOPKINS, N. Y. City.

COURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM.

WILLES-HORNE DRUG CO., No. $ Main St. By the Monument, SALT LAKE CITY

Sepermber is rivalling June for the number of its weddings. Each of the weeks so far has had a long and in-teresting list, and next week promises another equally notable number of events events. . . .

A preity home wedding of the week was that of Miss C. Louise Eldredge and John Medley Johnson, the ceremony being performed at 184 H street, with Apostle O. F. Whitney officiating. The rooms were decorated in various colors, the parlor in white and green, and the bridal couple standing under a canopy of smilax studded with white carnations. The dining room was in plak and the hall is purple and here Miss Flora Spence provided at the punch boxl. The bride's gown was of white irory satto with trimmings of Venetian lace and she carried a show-er loquet of bridesroses. The bridal music was played by Miss Marian Can-non and assisting in receiving were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elama-than Eldredge, Mrs. W. C. Spence and Misse Claips Eldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Junnson will be at home after Oct. I, at 114 H street, at 134 H mireot, . . . A pretty wedding reception of the week was that of Miss Bessle Widdison and Don Carlos Clayton, the ceremony having taken place at the Temple dur-ting the day, and the reception taking place at the bride's home,

The wedding of Miss Pearl Anderson and Mr. Alma, O. Soderberg will take place Sept. 25. 4 4 8

Miss Sarab Eardley and Edward Pane were among the week's bridal couples, the ceremony being performed at the bride's house by E. A. Eardley her brother. A pretty reception was held, the bride being attended by Misses Allee Eardley and Atten Pace, and the groom of Ray Sheets. Mr. and Mrz. Pace will be at house after Sept-ia, at 357 south Becond Wrest.

at 337 south Record West.
At the home of Mrs. Frances Pendle-ton on Wednesday night Miss Sophia Penri Pendleton and Mr. Henry Jones were matrixed, Itev. P. A. Simplina offs-cuting, Miss Etta Millner of Provo and F. J. Howleti of this city acting re-spectively as bridesmald and less man. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will reside here.
A temple murriage of the week was that of Miss Eve Richardson and W. A. Howard, a breakfast following at the bride's name and the couple leaving afterwards for Californa.

Invitations have been beened by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Clavson for the mar-riage of their daughter, Iruns, and Charles Elichard Williams, Wodnesday, Jciober 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Canham annonnew the matrixing of their daughter Neille to George Jacobs, to take place at their hume slept. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grant announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Bough, and William Cornell.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pike of Los Angeles, formerly of this city, an-nounce the congenerat of their daugh-ter, Diric Laura, to Warren C. Man-sum of this city. The wedding will take place in the near future.

MILLIONAIRE'S DAUGHTER QUITS HUSBAND.

Mrs. Aurel Batonyi, nee Mrs. Burke-Roche, nee Miss Work, daughter of the New York millionaire clubman, Frank Work, has left her riding-master husband and gone to the roof of her parent at the behest of the latter and in order to share in the $15,000,000 estate which Mr. Work will, in a few years or earlier, leave to posterity.

Following her divorce from the Englishnian, Burke-Roche, she , married Batonyl, who was reported to be of noble birth, but whom her father has cause to believe is a common person of Hungarian blood by the patronymic of Cohn. Newport declined to receive its former riding master on a social equality and the road of the pair has been strewn with thorns rather than the roses which they expected. The unforgiving father is hearly 90 years of age, but still vigorous for one of his years.

bright with flowers and ferns and a some to New York, where they will large number of guests present. Later make their home. large number of guests present. Later Mr. and Mrs. Paul left for Arizona, Mrs. E. N. Botsford and her daugh-ter, Miss Josephine Botsford, leave shortly for a trip of a few weeks to the northwest. where they expect to reside.

Miss Eveline Lannan Thomas and William D. Foster were married at St. Paul's on Wednesday night, the hurch being most beautifully adorned for the occasion and being filled with the friends of the bridal pair. Rev. Paul Jones of Logan officiated, Mrs. S. Paul Jones of Logan officiated, Mrs. S. D. Park was matron of honor, Misses Annio and Kate Adams and Frances Cowan were the maids and Arthur L. Thomas, Jr., was best man, while A. W. Thomas, Marcènus Foster, W. W. Little and C. H. Gibbs were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Foster have gone on an extended eastern trip,

Miss Josie Zitzman and Malcolm Mc-Allister were married in the temple on Wednesday, and after a wedding break-fast, left for an castern trip, after which they will be at home at 162 north First West street.

Among the interesting bridal events of the week was the marriage of Misa Priscilla Smith and William F. Long-Priscilla Smith and William F. Lang-ton, the ceremony being performed in the temple by the bride's father. John Henry Smith, and a reception taking place in the evening at the bride's home. The rooms were prettily dec-orated and a number of intimate friends assisted in receiving and serving re-freehments. Mr. and Mrs. Langton will be at home at the corner of First West and First North streets.

Miss M. A. Torgeson has returned to Logan after a two weeks' visit here with her slater, Mrs. Walter T. Pyper.

Miss Wild of Los Angeles, who has been the guest of Miss Julia Cullen, left yesterday for Wellesley college.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Erdmann left Tuesday for a two weeks trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Mrs. Henrietta Billings and daughter of Cincinnatel are in the city, visit ing with Mr. and Mrs. Justus Jungk.

Mrs. Harry G. Roberts left for her home in Denver, Colo., after arending a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Sowles, on Third East.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bluss, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherwood for a month, left this week for their home in Ann Arbor, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkes ( field are visiting at Major home, 133 Fourth East street. Major Wilkes turned to their home in Nevada Miss Barbara Royle and Payton

Mrs. A. A. Gibson has returned after t visit of some six months in the cast, and is again at home at 52 the Brans-Kriese of Ogden were married this week at Montello, surprising their relatives and many friends. The stole away from Ogden Saturday at returned Monday happily welde-They are both popular in the city.

Mrs. Benner X. Smith left Saturday for New York to Join her mother for an extended eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Matteur and sor of Baker City, Or., visited in Order this week, the guests of O. B. Mad Mr. and Mrs. Clifford R. Pearsall have one east for a month's trip. Among the prominent young p ple of Ogden to wed this wack we Miss Geneva Driggs and Mr. Wal O. Halverson, who were married Wr needay in the Salt Lake temple. Th will be at home to their friends aff Oct. 1, at 2519 Orchard avenue. The beide is one of the effect describe

Mr. and Mrs. W. Blakemore will leave for Chicago and Toronto, Canada, on Tuesday morning for a month's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Clyde Squires left for their home in New York Tuesday

A brilliant reception was given Thursday evening by Presidnt L. W. Shurtliff of the Weber stake, at the turned from a month spent in Seattle and the Pacific Northwest. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hosmer are ex-Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Williams are at nome at No. 22, the Bransford, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swenson and loughter, Miss Grace, left yesterday for Sasta Cruz, Cal., where they will spend be winter. 1 (0)

OGDEN.

Mrs. L. C. Chester, formerly of this city, but now of Los Angeles, is here, the guest of Mrs. Robert Riddle at the Halls hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Whittemore and their daughters will leave tonight for Los Angeles to make their home. A large circle of friends will regret their

. . . Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Connar re-

John D. Laftis and mother left dur-tic the work for an extended visit in the East. They will visit all the large

Mrs. Charles Syron's left Friday for er home in Atchison, Kan., after pending two months here with friends.

Miss Abby Herman and Miss Vir-ginia Elmer have returned from a three month's trip through California.

Miss Mary Bishop returned last week from spendlar the summer with rela-tives in Lond Island, N. Y.

The Misses Daisy and Florence Pat-terson are visiting in Idaho with their dater, Mrs. J. P. Patterson.

Mrs. William P. Mnor and daughter, Virginia, are visiting relatives in Vir-

Miss Ivy Snyder left Tuesday to enter Miss Bennett's school on the Hudson. Mrs. Z. G. Logan of Ophir, Utah. has been visiting with Mrs. J. M. Sile

. . . . Mrs William T. Brooks has re-turned from a six weeks' solourn in California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Banks announce by her mother, will leave today for the Philippines.

