SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES

WHAT ANYONE MAY BER.

Anyone who will examine the list of Cen-tennial Awards will see that the manufac-turers of Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster received the highest and only medal award to plasters.

What Cannot Be Seen

What Cannot Be Seen In this list is the name of any of their nu-merous competitors. So greatly auperior to ordinary percus plasters and limiments is Bensen's Capcine Forous Plaster, that it has gained the approval of the highest medical authority in the world. Dr. J. N. H: Thompson, of Washington, D. C., Judge in the Drug Department of the Centenni-al Expectition, says of them: "I use them constantly in my practice and esteem them one of the most useful inventions of the age." Benson's Capcine Flaster strengthens, soothes stimulates a healthful direculation of the blood, relieves at once, and cures quicker than any known plaster, liniment or compound. It is now consid-dred to be the unrivalled reundy for lame back, rheumatism, neuragia, spisal and sidney affections, solatics, lumbago, stub-born colds. Sold everywhere, Price, 25 cm.

> The Mandamus Case. - In the Supreme Court, yesterday, arguments were heard respecting the mandamus case of F. M. Lyman, against E. F. Martin. The former was desirous that a canvass of the returns after the last general eleclowing lines handed to us by the the gentleman for publication will tion should be made. Mr. Martin refused to make this canvass, considering that certain lawful regulations had not been complied with. Alternate and peremptory wilts of mandamus were issued to compel the county officers to make such a count, and on this question an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court. Mr. Baskin made an argument for the county officers and Mr. Rawlins spoke for the respondent yesterday, and the same gentlemen made further remarks this morning, after which the case was laken under advisement.
