A Change .- A change has been made in the management of the Descret Museum, owing to the rap ally declining health of Professor Joseph L. Barfoot, who has had now. The numerous friends of Brother Barfoot will join with us in the hope that a change from the close confinement at the Museum will result ben-fically to his health which has been declining for some time past. His management of the Museum has been characterized by intelligence and skill, in the classi fication of the varied and numerous cabinets, there being but few men pos-essing so wide a range information as he upon so many varied subjects, which, Browa E combined with his uniformly or won for him the good opinion of all Brdge MA who have met him.

He will be succeeded in the management by an intelligent and Bus E. well informed young gentleman | Herg E from Kanab country, in Southern Utah, W. D. Johnson, Jr., who, we Capen H M feel assured, will fill the position Clark J
